The Psalms of DAVID in metre.

Beatus vir. Psal. i. T. S.

THe man is blest that hath not bent,
to wicked read his ear :
Nor led his life as sinners do,
nor sat in corners chair.
2 But in the law of God the Lord
doth set his whole delight :
And in that law doth exercise
himself both day and night.

3 He shall be like the tree that grows
fast by the rivers side,
Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit
in her due time and tide.
Whose leaf shall never fade nor fall,
but flourish still and stand :
Even so all things shall prosper well,
that this man takes in hand.

4 So shall not the ungodly men,
they shall be nothing so :
But as the dust which from the earth
the winde drives to and fro.
5 Therefore shall not the wicked men
in judgement stand upright :
Nor yet the sinners with the just
shall come in place or sight.

6 For why ? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known :
And eke the way of wicked men
shall quite be overthrowen.

Quare fremuntur. Psal. ii. T. S.

Why did the Gentiles tumults raise ?
what rage was in their brain ?
Why did the Jewish people muse,
seeing all is but vain ?

1 The kings and rulers of the earth
conspire and are all bent Against the Lord and Christ his Son,
which he among us sent.

3 Shall we be bound to them, say they ?
let all their bonds be broke :
And of their doctrine and their law
let us reject the yoke.

4 But he that in the heaven dwells,
their doings will deride :
And make them all as mocking-flocks,
throughout the world so wide.

5 For in his wrath the Lord will say
to them upon a day :
And in his fury trouble them,
and then the Lord will say,

6 I have anointed him my king
upon my holy hill :
I will therefore (Lord) preach thy law,
and eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wise the Lord himself
did say to me I wot,
Thou art my dear and onely Son,
to day I thee begot.

8 All people I will give to thee,
as heirs at thy request :
The ends and coasts of all the earth
by thee shall be possess.

9 Thou shalt them bruise even with a mace,
as men under foot trod :
And as the potters sheards, shalt break
them with an iron rod.

10 Now ye, O kings and rulers all,
be wise therefore and learn'd.
By whom the matters of the world
be judged and discern'd.

11 See that ye serve the Lord above
in trembling and in fear :

See that with reverence ye rejoyce
to him in like manner.

12 See that ye kiss and eke embrace
his blessed Son, I say, Lest in his wrath ye suddenly perish in the mid way.

13 If once his wrath never so small
shall kindle in his breast :
O then all they that trust in Christ
shall happy be and blest.

Domine quid. Psal. iii. T. S.

O Lord, how are my foes increast,
which vex me more and more ?
2 They kill my heart when as they say,
God can him not restore.

3 But thou, O Lord, art my defence,
when I am hard bestead :
My worship and mine honour both,
and thou hold'st up my head.

4 Then with my voice upon the Lord
I did both call and cry :
And he out of his holy hill
did hear me by and by.

5 I laid me down, and quietly
I slept and rose again :
For why ? I know assuredly
the Lord will me sustain.

6 If then thousand had hem'd me in,
I could not be afraid :
For thou art still my Lord and God,
my Saviour and mine aid.

Rise up therefore, save me, my God,
for now to thee I call :
7 For thou hast broke the cheeks and teeth
of these wicked men all.

8 Salvation onely doth belong to thee, O Lord above : Thou dost bestow upon thy folk thy blessing and thy love.

Cum invocarem. Psal. iv. T. S.

O God that art my righteousness,
Lord hear me when I call :
Thou hast set me at libertie,
when I was bound and thrall.

2 Have mercy (Lord) therefore on me,
and grant me my request :
For unto thee incessantly
to crie I will not rest.

3 O mortal men, how long will ye my glory thus despise ?
Why wander ye in vanity,
and follow after lies ?

4 Know ye that good and godly men
the Lord doth take and chuse :
And when to him I make my plaint,
he doth me not refuse.

5 Sin not but stand in awe therefore,
examine well your heart :
And in your chamber quietly
see you your selves convert.

6 Offer to God the sacrifice
of righteousness, I say,
And look that in the living Lord
you put your trust alway.

7 The greater sort crave worldly goods,
and riches do embrace :
But, Lord, grant us thy countenance,
thy favour and thy grace.

8 For thou thereby shalt make my heart
more joyfull and more glad,

Then they that of their corn and wine
full great increase have had.
9 In peace therefore lie down will I,
taking my rest and sleep:
For thou onely wilt me, O Lord,
alone in safety keep.

Verba mea auribus. Psal. v. T.S.

Incline thine ears unto my words,
O Lord, my plaint consider:
2 And hear my voice, my King, my God,
to thee I make my prayer.
3 Hear me betimes, Lord, tarry not,
for I will have respect,
My prayer early in the morn
to thee for to direct.

4 And I will trust through patience
in thee my God alone:
Thou art not pleas'd with wickedness,
and ill with thee dwells none.
5 And in thy sight shall never stand
these furious fools, O Lord:
Vain workers of iniquitie
thou hast always abhor'd.
6 The liars and the flatterers,
thou shalt destroy them than:
And God will hate the blood-thirsties,
and the deceitfull man.
7 Therefore will I come to thine house,
trusting upon thy grace:
And reverently will worship thee
toward thine holy place.

8 Lord, lead me in thy righteousness,
for to confound my foes:
And eke the way that I shall walk
before my face disclose.
9 For in their mouths there is no truth,
their heart is foul and vain:
Their throat an open sepulchre,
their tongues do glose and feign.
10 Destroy their false conspiracies,
that they may come to nought:
Subvert them in their heaps of sin,
which have rebellion wrought.
11 But those that put their trust in thee,
let them be glad always:
And render thanks for thy defence,
and give thy name the praise.
12 For thou with favour wilt increase,
the just and righteous still:
And with thy grace, as with a shield,
defend him from all ill.

Domine ne in furore. Psal. vi. T.S.

Iord in thy wrath reprove me not,
though I deserve thine ire:
Nev' correct me in thy rage,
O Lord, I thee desire.
2 For I am weak, therefore, O Lord,
of mercy me forbear.
And heal me Lord, for why? thou knew'st
my bones do quake for fear.
3 My soul is troubled very sore,
and vexed vehemently:
But, Lord, how long wilt thou delay
to cure my misery?
4 Lord, turn thee to thy wonted grace,
my Gilly soul up take:
O save me not for my deserts,
but for thy mercies sake.
5 For why? no man among the dead
remembereth thee one whit:
Or who shall worship thee, O Lord,
in the infernal pit?
6 So grievous is my plaint and mean,
that I was wondrous faint:
All the night long I wash my bed
with tears of my complaint.

7 My sight is dim and waxeth old
with anguish of my heart;
For fear of these that be my foes,
and would my soul subvert.
8 But now away from me all ye
that work iniquitie:
For why? the Lord hath heard the voice
of my complaint and cry.
9 He heard not onely the request
and prayer of my heart;
But it received at my hands,
and took it in good part.
10 And now my foes that vexed me,
the Lord will soon defame:
And suddenly, confound them all,
to their rebuke and shame.

Domine Deus meus. Psal. vii. T.S.

O Lord my God, I put my trust
and confidence in thee:
Save me from them that the pursue,
and eke deliver me.
2 Lest like a lion he me gear,
and rend in pieces small,
While there is none to succour me
and rid me out of thrall.
3 O Lord my God, if I have done
the thing that is not right,
Or else if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy sight:
4 Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or left him in distress,
Which me pursu'd most cruelly,
and hated me causeless:
5 Then let my foes pursue my soul,
and eke my life down thrust Unto the earth, and display
mine honour in the dust.
6 Start up, O Lord, show in thy wrath,
and put my foes to pain:
Perform the kingdom promised
to me which wrong sustain.
7 Then shall great nations come to thee,
and know thee by this thing,
If thou declare for love of them,
thy self as Lord and King.
8 And as thou art of all men Judge,
O Lord, now judge thou me
According to my righteousness,
and mine integritie.

The second part.

9 Lord, cease the hate of wicked men,
and be the just mans guide:
10 By whom the secrets of all hearts
are searched and descride.
11 I take my help to come of God,
in all my pain and smart,
That doth preserve all those that be
of pure and perfect heart.
12 The just man and the wicked both
God judgeth by his power:
So that he feels his mighty hand
even every day and hour.
13 Except he change his mind, I die;
for even as he should smite,
He whets his sword, his bowe he bends aiming where he may hit:
14 And doth prepare his mortal darts,
his arrows keen and sharp,
For them that do me persecute,
whiles he doth mischief warp.
15 But in though he in travail be
of his devilish forecast,
And of his mischief once conceiv'd,
yet brings forth nought at last.
16 He digs a ditch and delves it deep,
in hope to hurt his brother:

ut he shall fall into the pit
that he digg'd up for other.
17 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt
of him in whom it bred.
And all the mischief that he wrought
shall fall upon his head.
18 I will give thanks to God therefore that judgeth righteously.
And with my song will praise the name
of him that is most high.

Domine Deus, Psal. viii. T.S.

O God our Lord how wonderfull are thy works every where Whose fame surmounts in dignitie
above the heavens cleere !
2 Even by the mouth of sucking babes
thou wilt confound thy foes :
For in those babes thy might is seen,
thy graces they disclose.
3 And when I see the heavens high,
the works of thine own hand ;
The sun, the moon, and all the stars
in order as they stand ?
4 What thing is man, Lord, think I then,
that thou dost him remember ?
Or what is mans posterity,
that thou dost it consider ?
5 For thou hast made him little less
then angels in degree ;
And thou hast crown'd him also
with glory and dignity.
6 Thou hast prefer'd him to be lord
of all thy works of wonder :
And at his feet hast set all things,
that he should keep them under.
7 As sheep, and neat, and all beasts else
that in the field do feed :
8 Fowls of the air, fish in the sea,
and all that therein breed.
9 Therefore must I say once again,
O God that art our Lord,
How famous and how wonderfull
are thy works through the world !

Confitebor tibi, Domine. Psal. ix. T.S.

With heart and mouth unto the Lord
will I sing laud and praise :
And speak of all thy wondrous works,
and them declare always.
2 I will be glad and much rejoyce
in thee, O God most high :
And make my songs extoll thy name
above the starry skie.
3 For that my foes are driven back
and turned unto flight :
They fall down flat and are destroyed
by thy great power and might.
4 Thou hast revenged all my wrong,
my grief and all my grudge :
Thou dost with justice hear my cause,
most like a righteous judge.
5 Thou dost rebuke the heathen folk,
and wicked so confound,
That afterward the memory
of them cannot be found.
6 My foes thou hast made good dispatch,
and all their towns destroy'd :
Thou hast their fame with them de fac'd,
through all the world so wide.
7 Know thou, that he which is above
for evermore shall reign,
And in the seat of equity
true judgement will maintain.
8 With justice he will keep and guide,
the world and every wight :
And so will yeeld with equity
to every man his right.

9 He is protector of the poor,
what time they be oppress'd :
He is in all adversitie
their refuge and their rest.
10 And they that know thy holy name,
therefore shall trust in thee :
For thou forsakest not their suit
in their necessity.

The second part.

11 Sing psalms therefore unto the Lord
that dwells in Sion hill :
Publish among all nations
his noble acts and will.
12 For he is mindfull of the blood
of those that be oppress'd :
Forgetting not the afflicted heart
that steels to him for rest.
13 Have mercy, Lord, on me poor wretch
whose enemies still remain,
Which from the gates of death art wont
to raise me up again.
14 In Sion, that I might set forth
thy praise with heart and voice,
And that in thy salvation, Lord,
my soul might still rejoyce.
15 The heathen flock fast in the pit
that they themselves prepar'd,
And in the net that they did set
their own feet fast are snar'd.
16 God shows his judgements which were good,
for every man to mark,
When as ye see the wicked man
lie trapt in his own work.
17 The wicked and deceitfull men
go down to hell for ever,
And all the people of the world,
that will not God remember.
18 But sure the Lord will not forget the poor mans grief and pain :
The patient people never look for help of God in vain.
19 O Lord arise, lest men prevail
that be of worldly might :
And let the heathen flock receive their judgement in thy sight.
20 Lord strike such terror, fear, and dread,
into the hearts of them,
That they may know assuredly
they be but mortal men.

Ut quid, Domine. Psal. x. T.S.

What is the cause that thou, O Lord,
art now so far from thine,
And keepst close thy countenance
from us this troublous time ?
2 The poor do perish by the proud
and wicked mens desire :
Let them be taken in the craft
that they themselves conspire.
3 For in the lust of his own heart
th'ungodly doth delight :
So doth the wicked praise himself,
and doth the Lord despight.
4 He is so proud that right and wrong
he setteth all apart :
Nay, nay, there is no God, saith he,
for thus he thinks in heart.
5 Because his ways do prosper still,
he doth thy laws neglect,
And with a blast doth puff against such as would him correct.
6 Turn, turn, saith he, I have no dread,
lest mine estate should change :
And why ? for all adversitie
to him is very strange.
7 His mouth is full of cursedness,
of fraud, deceits, and guile :

Under his tongue doth mischief sit,
and travaill all the while.

8 He lieth hid in ways and holes
to slay the innocent :

Against the poor that pass him by his cruel eyes are bent.

9 And like a lion privily
lies larking in his den,
If he may snare them in his net,
to spoil poor simple men.

10 And for the nonce full craftily
he croucheth down, I say :

11 So are great heaps of poor men made by his strong power his prey.

The second part.

12 Tush, God forgetteth this, saith he,
therefore I may be bold :
His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold.

13 Arise, O Lord, O God in whom the poor mans hope doth rest :
Lift up thy hand, forget not, Lord,
the poor that be oppressd.

14 What blasphemy is this to thee,
Lord, dost thou not abhor it,
To hear the wicked in their heart
say, Tush thou canst not for it ?

15 But thou seest all their wickedness,
and well dost understand

16 That friendless and poor fatherless are left into thy hand.

17 Of wicked and malicious men
then break the power for ever,
That they with their iniquity
may perish altogether.

18 The Lord shall reign for evermore
as King and God alone,
And he will chase the heathen folk
out of the land each one.

19 Thou hear'st, O Lord, the poor mens plaint,
their prayers and request :

Their hearts thou wilt confirm, untill
thine ears to hear be prest :

20 To judge the poor and fatherless,
and help them to their right :
That they may be no more oppressd
by men of worldly might.

In Domino confido. Psal. xi. T.S.

I Trust in God, how dare ye then
say thus my soul untill, Flie hence as fast as any fowl,
and hide you in your hill ?

2 Behold, the wicked bend their bowes,
and make their arrows prest
To shoot in secret, and to hurt
the sound and harmless breast.

3 Of worldly hope all stays were thrunk,
and clearly brought to nought :
Alas, the just and righteous man,
what evil hath he wrought ?

4 But he that in his temple is most holy and most high,
And in the heavens hath his seat,
of royal majestie :

The poor and simple mans estate
considereth in his minde,
And searcheth out full narrowly
the manners of mankind.

5 And with a cheatfull countenance
the righteous man will use :
But in his heart he doth abhor
all such as mischief use :

6 And on the sinners coldest snarcs
as thick as any rain,
Fire and brimstone, & whirlwinds thick,
appointed for their pain.

7 Ye see then how a righteous God
doth righteousness embrace,
And to the just and upright men
shews forth his pleasant face.

Salvum me fac. Psal. xlii. T.S.

Help, Lord, for good and godly men
do perish and decay :
And faith and truth from worldly men
is parted clean away.

2 Whoso doth with his neighbour talk,
his tack is all but vain :
For every man bethinketh how to flatter, lye and feign.

3 But flattering and deceitfull lips,
and tongues that be so stout
To speak proud words and make great brag,
the Lord soon cuts them out.

4 For they say still, We will prevail,
our tongues shall us extoll :
Our tongues are ours, we ought to speak ;
what Lord shall us controll ?

5 But for the great complaint and crie
of poor and men oppressd, Arise will I now with the Lord,
and them restore to rest.

6 Gods word is like to silver pure,
that from the earth is tride,
And hath no less then seven times
in fire been purifide.

7 Now with the promise is to help,
Lord, keep thy promise then :
And save us now and evermore
from this ill kinde of men.

8 For now the wicked world is full of mischiefs manifold,
When vanitie with worldly men
so highly is extold.

Usquequo Domine. Psal. xlii. T.S.

How long wilt thou forget me, Lord ?
shall I ne be remembered ?
How long wilt thou thy visage hide,
as though thou wert offended ?

2 In heart and minde how long shall I
with care tormented be ?
How long eke shall my deadly foes
thus triumph over me ?

3 Behold me now, my Lord, my God,
and hear me sore oppressd :
Lighten mine eyes, lest that I sleep
as one by death possed :

4 Lest that mine enemy say to me,
Behold I do prevail :
Lest they also that hate my soul,
rejoyce to see me quail.

5 But from thy mercy and goodness
my hope shall never start :
In thy relief and saving health
right glad shall be my heart.

6 I will give thanks unto the Lord,
and praises to him sing :
Because he hath heard my request,
and granted my wishing.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. xiv. T.S.

There is no God, as foolish men
affirm in their mad mood :
Their drifts are all corrupt and vain,
not one of them doth good.

2 The Lord beheld from heaven high
the whole race of mankind,
And saw not one that sought indeed
the living God to finde.

3 They went all wide and were corrupt,
and truly there was none

that in the world did any good :
 I say there was not one.
 Is all their judgement so far lost,
 that all work mischief still,
 Bringing my people even as bread,
 not one to seek Gods will ?
 When they thus rage, then suddenly great fear on them shall fall :
 For God doth love the righteous men,
 and will maintain them all.
 Ye mock the doings of the poor,
 to their reproach and shame :
 Because they put their trust in God,
 and call upon his name.
 But who shall give thy people health ?
 and when wilt thou fulfil Thy promise made to Israel
 from out of Sion hill ?
 Even when thou shalt restore again
 such as were captive led :
 Then Jacob shall therein rejoyce,
 and Israel shall be glad.

Domine quis. Psal. xv. T.S.

O Lord, within thy tabernacle
 who shall inhabit still ?
 Or whom wilt thou receive to dwell
 in thy most holy hill ?
 The man whose life is uncorrupt,
 whose works are just and straight,
 Whose heart doth think the very truths,
 whose tongue speaks no deceit:
 Nor to his neighbour doth none ill
 in body, goods or name, Nor willingly doth move false tales
 which might impair the fame :
 That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men :
 But those that love and fear the Lord
 he maketh much of them.
 His oath and all his promises
 that keepeth faithfully,
 Although he make his covenant so,
 that he doth lose thereby.
 That putteth not to usury
 his money and his coyn, Nor for to hurt the innocent
 doth bribe or else purloyn.
 Whoso doth all things as you see
 that here is to be done,
 Shall never perish in this world,
 nor in the world to come.

Conserve me. Psal. xvi. T.S.

L Lord, keep me for I trust in thee,
 and do confesse indeed,
 Thou art my God, and of my goods,
 O Lord-thou hast no need.
 I give my goods unto the saints
 that in the world do dwell,
 And namely to the faithfull flock
 in vertue that excell.
 They shall heap sorrows on their heads,
 which run as they were mad,
 To offer to the idol gods :
 alas it is too bad.
 As for their bloody sacrifice
 and offerings of that sort,
 I will not touch, nor yet thereof
 my lips shall make report.
 For why ? the Lord the portion is of mine inheritance :
 And thou art he that dost maintain
 my rent, my lot, my chance.
 The place wherein my lot did fall,
 in beautie did excell :
 Mine heritage assign'd to me
 doth please me wondrous well.

7 I thank the Lord that caused me
 to understand the right :
 For by his means my secret thoughts
 do teach me every night.
 8 I set the Lord still in my sight,
 and trust him over all :
 For he doth stand on my right hand,
 therefore I shall not fall.
 9 Wherefore my heart and tongue also do both rejoyce together
 My flesh and body rest in hope,
 when I this thing consider.
 10 Thou wilt not leave my soul in graves;
 for, Lord, thou lovest me :
 Nor yet wilt give thy holy One corruption for to see.
 11 But wilt me teach the way to life ;
 for all treasure and store
 Of perfect joy are in thy face,
 and power for evermore.

Exaudi Domine. Psal. xvii. T.S.

O Lord, give ear to my just cause,
 attend when I complain :
 And hear the prayer that I put forth
 with lips that do not faine.
 2 And let the judgement of my cause
 proceed always from thee :
 And let thine eyes behold and clear
 this my simplicitie.
 3 Thou hast well try'd me in the night,
 and yet couldst nothing finde
 That I have spoken with my tongue
 that was not in my minde.
 4 As for the works of wicked men
 and paths perverse and ill.
 For love of thy most holy name,
 I have refrained still.
 5 Then in thy paths that be most pure
 stay me, Lord, and preserve :
 That from the way wherein I walk
 my steps may never swerve.
 6 For I do call to thee, O Lord,
 surely thou wilt me aid :
 Then hear my prayer, and weigh right well
 the words that I have said.
 7 O thou the Saviour of all them
 that put their trust in thee,
 Declare thy strength on them that spurn
 against thy majestie.
 8 O keep me as thou wouldst keep
 the apple of thine eye :
 And under covert of thy wings
 defend me secretly.

The second part.

9 From wicked men that trouble me
 and daily me annoy.
 And from my foes that go about
 my soul for to destroy :
 10 Which wallow in their worldly wealth,
 so full and eke so fat,
 That in their pride they do not spare
 to speak they care not what.
 11 They lie in wait where I should passe,
 with craft me to confound :
 And muting mischief in their minds,
 to cast me to the ground.
 12 Much like a lion greedily
 that would his prey embrace :
 Or lurking like a lions whelp
 within some secret place.
 13 If Lord in haste, prevent my foe,
 and cast him at thy feet :
 Save thou my soul from the ill man,
 and with thy sword him smite.
 14 Deliver me, Lord, by thy power
 out of these tyrants hands :

Which now so long time reigned have,
and kept us in their bands.

- 15 I mean from worldly men to whom
all worldly goods are ripe.
That have no hope nor part of joy
but in this present life.
16 Thou of thy store their bellies fill'st
with pleasure to their minde:
Their children have enough, and leave
to theirs the rest behinde.
17 But I shall with pure conscience
behold thy gracious face:
So when I wake I shall be full of thine image and grace.

Diligam te Dom. Psal. xviii. T. 3.

- O God my strength and fortitude,
of force I must love thee:
Thou art my castle and defence
in my necessity.
2 My God, my rock, in whom I trust,
the worker of my wealth:
My refuge, buckler, and my shield,
the horn of all my health.
3 When I sing laud unto the Lord,
most worthy to be served,
Then from my foes I am right sure that I shall be preserved.
4 The pangs of death did compass me,
and bound me every where:
The flowing waves of wickedness
did put me in great fear.
5 The snie and subtil snares of hell
were round about me set:
And for my death there was prepar'd
a deadly trapping net.
6 I thus beset with pain and grief,
did pray to God for grace:
And he forthwith did hear my plaint
out of his holy place.
7 Such is his power that in his wrath
He made the earth to quake.
Yea, the foundation of the mount
of Basan for to shake.
8 And from his nostrils came a smoke
when kindled was his ire:
And from his mouth came kindled coals
of hot consuming fire.
9 The Lord descended from above,
and bow'd the heavens high
And underneath his feet he cast
the darkness of the skie.
10 On cherubs and on cherubims
full royally he rode:
And on the wings of all the winds
came flying all abroad.

The second part.

- 11 And like a den most dark he made his hid and secret place:
With waters black and airie clouds
environed he was.
12 But when the presence of his face
in brightness shall appear,
Then clouds consume, and in their stead
come hail and coals of fire.
13 The fierie darts and thunderbolts
disperse them here and there:
And with his often lightnings
he puts them in great fear.
14 Lord, at thy wrath and threatenings,
and at thy chiding cheer,
The springs and the foundations
of all the world appear.
15 And from above the Lord sent down
to fetch me from below,
And pluckt me out of waters great,
that would me ever flow.

- 15 And me delivered from my foes
that would have made me thrall, Yea from such foes as were too strong
for me to deal withall.
17 They did prevent me to oppress
in time of my great grief:
But yet the Lord was my defence,
my succour and relief.
18 He brought me forth in open place,
whereas I might be free:
And kept me safe, because he had a favour unto me.
19 And as I was an innocent,
so did he me regard,
And to the cleanness of my hands
he gave me my reward:
20 For that I walked in his ways,
and in his paths have trod,
And have not sinned wickedly
against my Lord and God.

The third part.

- 21 But evermore I have respect
to his law and decree:
His statutes and commandments
I cast not out from me.
22 But pure and clean, and uncorrupt
appeared before his face,
And did refrain from wickedness
and sin in any case.
23 The Lord therefore will me reward,
as I have done aright:
And to the cleanness of my hands,
appearing in his sight.
24 For, Lord, with him that holy is wilt thou be holy too,
And with the good and virtuous men
right verouly wilt do.
25 And to the loving and elect thy love thou wilt reserve:
And thou wilt afe the wicked men
as wicked men deserve.
26 For thou dost save the simple folk
in trouble when they lie,
And dost bring down the countenance
of them that look full high.
27 The Lord will light my candle so that it shall shine full bright:
The Lord my God will make also
my darkness to be light.
28 For by thy help an host of men discomfitt, Lord, I shall:
By thee I scale and over leap
the strength of any wall.
29 Unspotted are the ways of God
his word is purely true:
He is a sure defence to such as in his faith abide.
30 For who is God except the Lord?
for other there is none:
Or else who is omnipotent,
saying our God alone?

The fourth part.

- 31 The god that girdeth me with strength,
is he that I do mean,
That all the ways wherein I walk
did ever more keep clean.
32 That made my feet like to the harts
in swiftness of my pace,
And for my surety brought me forth
into an open place.
33 He did in order put my hands
to battel and to fight:
To break in sunder bars of brass
he gave mine arms the might.
34 Thou teachest me thy saving health,
thy right hand is my tower:
Thy love and familiarity
doth still increase my power.

And under me thou makest plain
the way where I should walk,
that my feet shall never slip,
nor stumble at a balk.
And fiercely I pursue and take
my foes that me annoy'd:
And from the field do not return,
till they be all destroy'd.
So I suppress and wound my foes,
that they can rise no more:
For at my feet they fall down flat,
I strike them all so sore.
For thou dost gird me with thy strength
to war in such a wise.
That they be all scattered abroad
that up against me rise.
Lord thou hast put into my hands
my mortal enemies' yoke:
And all my foes thou dost divide
in sunder with thy stroke.
They call'd for help; but none gave ear,
nor holp them with relief:
Yea to the Lord they call'd for help,
yet heard he not their grief.

The fifth Part.

And still like dust before the winde
I drive them under feet,
And sweep them out like filthy clay
that sticketh in the street.
Thou keep'st me from seditious folk,
that still in strife are led:
And thou dost of the heathen folk appoint me to be head.
A people strange to me unknown,
and yet they shall me serve;
And at the first obey my word, wherewith mine own will serve.
I shall be irksome to mine own,
they will not see my light:
But wander wide out of the way,
and hide them out of sight.
But blessed be the living Lord,
most worthy of all praise,
That is my rock and saving health:
praised be he always.
For God it is that gave me power
revenged for to be:
And with his holy word subdu'd
the people unto me.
And from my foe deliver'd me,
and set me above those
That cruel and ungodly were,
and up against me rose.
And for this cause, O Lord my God,
to thee give thanks I shall,
And sing out praises to thy name
among the Gentiles all.
That gavest great prosperity
unto the king, I say,
To David thine anointed king,
and to his seed for aye.

Celsienarrant. Psal. xix. T. 5.

The heavens and the firmament
do wondrously declare
The glory of God omnipotent,
his works and what they are.
The wondrous works of God appear
by every days success:
The nights likewise which their race run,
the self same thing express.
There is no language, tongue, or speech,
where their sound is not heard:
In all the earth and coasts thereof
their knowledge is conferr'd.
In them the Lord made for the sun
a place of great renown;

Who like a bridegroom ready trimm'd
doth from his chamber come.

And as a valiant champion,
who for to get a prize,
With joy doth haste to take in hand
some noble enterprise.
And all the while from end to end
he compasseth about:
Nothing can hide it from his heat,
but he will finde it out.
How perfect is the law of God,
how is his covenant sure,
Converting souls, and making wise
the simple and obscure!
Just are the Lords commandments
and glad both heart and minde;
His precepts pure and giveth light to eyes that be full blinde.
The fear of God is excellent,
and doth endure for ever:
The judgements of the Lord are true
and righteous altogether:
And more to be embrac'd alway
then fined gold, I say:
The honey and the honey-comb
are not so sweet as they.

By them thy servant is forewarn'd
to have God in regard:
And in performance of the same
there shall be great reward.
But, Lords, what earthly man doth know
the errors of his life?
Then cleanse me from my secret sins,
which are in me most ripe.
And keep me that presumptuous sins
prevail not over me;
And so shall I be innocent,
and great offences flee.
Accept my mouth and eke my heart,
my words and thoughts each one:
For my redeemer and my strength,
O Lords, thou art alone.

Exaudiat te Dom. Psal. xx. T. 5.

In trouble and adversitie
the Lord God hear thee still,
The maiestie of Jacobs God defend thee from all ill.
And send thee from his holy place
his help at every need:
And so in Sion stablish thee,
and make thee strong indeed.
Remembering well the sacrifice
that now to him is done:
And so receive right thankfully thy burnt-offerings each one.
According to thy hearts desire
the Lord grant unto thee.
And all thy counsel and device
full well perform may he.
We shall reioyce when thou us sav'st,
and our banners display Unto the Lord which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.
The Lord will his anointed save,
I know well by his grace,
And send him help by his tight hand,
out of his holy place.
In chariots some put confidence,
and some in horses trust;
But we remember God our Lord,
that keepeth promise just.
They fall down flat, but we do rise
and stand up stedfastly.
Now save and help us Lord and King,
on thee when we do cry.

Domine, in virtute. Psal. xxi. T. S.

- O Lord, how joyfull is the king
in thy strength and thy power
How vehemently doth he rejoyce
in thee his Saviour?
- 2 For thou hast given unto him
his godly hearts desire:
To him nothing thou hast denied
of that he did require.
- 3 Thou didst prevent him with thy gifts
and blessings manifold,
And thou hast set upon his head
a crown of perfect gold.
- 4 And when he asked life of thee,
thereof thou mad'st him sure,
To have long life yea such a life
as ever shall endure.
- 5 Great is his glory by thy help,
thy benefit and aid:
Great worship and great honour both
thou hast upon him laid.
- 6 Thou wilt give him felicitie
that never shall decay,
And with thy cleerfull countenance
wilt comfort him alway.
- 7 For why the king doth strongly trust
in God for to prevail:
Wherefore his goodness and his grace
will not that he shall quail.
- 8 But let thee enemies feel thy force,
and those that thee withstand:
Finde out thy foes and let them feel
the power of thy right hand.
- 9 And like an oven burn them Lord,
in fierce flame and fume:
Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and fire shall them consume.
- 10 And thou shalt root out of the earth
their fruit that should increase:
And from the number of thy folk,
their seed shall end and cease.
- 11 For why? much mischief did they muse
against thy holy name:
Yet did they fail and had no power
for to perform the same.
- 12 But as a mark thou shalt them set
in a most open place,
And charge thy bowe strings readily against thine enemies face.
- 13 Be thou exalted, Lord, therefore
in thy strength every hour:
So shall we sing thy might alway,
praising thy mighty power.

Deus, Deus meus. Psal. xxii. T. S.

- O God my God, wherefore dost thou forsake me utterly,
And helpest not when I do make
my great complaint and cry?
- 2 To thee my God even all day long
I do both cry and call,
I cease not all the night, and yet
thou hearest not at all.
- 3 Even thou that in thy sanctuary
and holy place dost dwell, Thou art the comfort and the joy
and glorie of Israel.
- 4 And he in whom our fathers old
had all their hope for ever:
And when they put their trust in thee,
thou didst them aye deliver.
- 5 They were delivered even when they called on thy name:
And for the faith they had in thee
they were not put to shame.
- 6 But I am now become a worm
more like then any man:
As out cast whom the people scorn
with all the spite they can.

- 7 All men despise as they behold
me walking on the way:
hey grin they mock, they nod their heads,
and on this wise they say.
- 8 This man did glory in the Lord,
his favour and his love,
Let him redeem and help him now,
his power if he will prove.
- 9 But, Lord, out of my mothers womb
I came by thy request:
Thou didst preserve me still in hope
while I did suck her breast.
- 10 I was committed from my birth
with thee to have abode:
Since I was in my mothers womb,
thou hast been e're my God.

The second part.

- 11 Then, Lord, depart not now from me;
in this my present grief,
Since I have none to be my help,
my succour and relief.
- 12 So many bulls do compass me
that be full strong of head:
Yea bulls so fat as though they had
in Bagan field been fed.
- 13 They gape upon me greedily,
as though they would me slay:
Much like a lion roaring out
and ramping for his prey.
- 14 But I drop down like water shed,
my joynts in sunder break,
My heart doth in my bodie melt
like wax against the heat.
- 15 And like a potsherd drieth my strength,
my tongue it cleaveth fast Unto my jaws, and I'm brought to dust of death at last.
- 16 And many dogs do compass me,
and wicked counsel eke
Conspire against me curdly,
they pierce my hands and feet.
- 17 I was tormented, so that I might all my bones have told:
Yet still upon me they do look,
and still they me behold.
- 18 My garments they divided eke
in parts among them all:
And for my coat they did cast lots
to whom it might befall.
- 19 Therefore, I pray thee, be not far
from me at my great need:
I'm rather fith thou art my strength,
to help me Lord make speed.
- 20 And from the sword, Lord, save my soul:
by thy might and thy power;
And keep my soul thy darling dear,
from dogs that would devour.
- 21 And from the lions mouth, that would
me all in sunder shiver,
And from the horns of unicorns,
Lord safely me deliver.
- 22 Then shall I to my brethren all
thy maiestie record:
And in thy church shall praise the name
of thee the living Lord.

The third part.

- 23 All ye that fear him praise the Lords
thou Jacob honour him:
And all ye seed of Israel
with reverence worship him.
- 24 For he despiseth not the poor,
he turneth not awry
His countenance when they do call,
but granteth to their crye.
- 25 Among the folk that fear the Lord
I will therefore proclaim

Thy praise, and keep my promise made for setting forth thy name.
26 The poor shall eat and be suffic'd
and those that do their deaver
To know the Lord, shall praise his name,
their hearts shall live for ever.
27 All coasts of th'earth shall praise the Lord,
and turn to him for grace:
The heathen folk shall worship him
before his blessed face.
28 The kingdom of the heathen folk the Lord shall have therefore:
And he shall be their governour
and king for evermore.
29 The rich men of his goodly gifts
shall feed and taste also:
And in his presence worship him
and bow their knees full low.
30 And all that shall go down to dust,
of life by him shall taste:
My seed shall serve and praise the Lord,
while any world shall last.
31 My seed shall plainly shew to them
that shall be born hereafter,
His justice and his righteousness,
and all his works of wonder.

Domini regit me. Psal. xliii. W. W.

THe Lord is onely my support,
and he that doth me feed:
How can I then lack any thing
whereof I stand in need?
1 He doth me fold in coats most safe
the tender grass fast by:
And after drives me to the streams
which run most pleasantly.
2 And when I feel my self near lost,
then doth he me home take,
Conducing me in his right paths,
even for his own names sake.
4 And though I were even at deaths door,
yet would I fear none ill:
For with thy rod and shepherds crook
I am comforted still.
5 Thou hast my table richly deckt
in despite of my foe:
Thou hast my head with balm refresht,
my cup doth overflow.
6 And finally while breath doth last thy grace shall me defend:
And in the house of God will I
my life for ever spend.

Another of the same, by T. S.

My shepherd is the living Lord,
nothing therefore I need;
In pastures fair with waters calm
he sets me forth to feed.
2 He did convert and glad my soul,
and brought my munde in frame:
To walk in paths of righteousness,
for his most holy name.
3 Yea though I walk in vale of death,
yet will I fear none ill:
Thy rod, thy staff doth comfort me,
and thou art with me still.
4 And in the presence of my foes
my table thou shalt spread:
Thou shalt, O Lord, fill full my cup,
and eke anoint my head.
5 Through all my life thy favour is so frankly shew'd to me:
That in thy house for evermore
my dwelling place shall be.

Domini est terra. Psal. xlii. J. H.

The earth is all the Lords, with all her store and furniture:

Yea his is all the world; and all that therein doth endure.
2 For he hath fastly founded it
above the seas to stand;
And laid alow the liquid foudry
to flow beneath the land.
3 For who is he, O Lord, that shall ascend into thy hill,
Or pass into thy holy place,
there to continue still?
4 Whose hands are harmlesse, and whose heart
no spot there doth defile:
His soul not set on vanity,
who hath not sworn to guile.
5 Him that is such a one, the Lord shall place in blissfull plight.
And God his God and Saviour
shall yeeld to him his right.
6 This is the brood of travellers,
inseeking of his grace:
As Jacob did the Israelite,
in that time of his race.
7 Ye princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate:
For there shall enter in thereby
the king of glorious state:
8 Who is the king of glorious state?
the strong and mighty Lord,
The mighty Lord in battel stout,
and trial of the sword.
9 Ye princes ope your eyes, stand ope
the everlasting gate:
For there shall enter in thereby
the king of glorious state.
10 Who is the king of glorious state?
the Lord of hosts it is:
The kingdom and the royalty
of glorious state is his.

Ad te Domine, Psal. xxi. T. S.

I Lift my heart to thee,
my God and guide most just:
Now suffer me to take no shame,
for in thee do I trust.
2 Let not my foes rejoyce
nor make a scorn of me:
And let them not be overthrowen
that put their trust in thee.
3 But shame shall them befall
which harm them wrongfully:
Therefore thy paths, and thy right ways
unto me, Lords, descende.
4 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me, I thee pray:
Thou art my God and Saviour
on thee I wayt alway.
5 Thy mercies manifold
I pray thee, Lord, remember,
And eke thy pittie plentiful,
for they have been for ever.
6 Remember not the faults
and frailty of my youth:
Remember not how ignorant
I have been of thy truth.
Nor after my deserts
let me thy mercie finde:
But of thine own benignity,
Lord have me in thy minde.
7 His mercie is full sweet,
his truth a perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will sinners teach,
and such as go astray.
8 The humble he will teach his precepts for to keep:
He will direct in all his ways
the lowly and the meek.
9 For all the ways of God
are truth and mercy both,
To them that keep his testament,
the witnesses of his troth.

The second part.

- 10 Now for thy holy name,
O Lord, I thee intreat.
To grant me pardon for my sin,
for it is wondrous great.
- 11 Who's doth fear the Lord
the Lord will him direct To lead his life in such a way
as he doth best accept.
- 12 His soul shall evermore
in goodness dwell and stand :
His seed and his posterity
inherit shall the land.
- 13 All those that fear the Lord
know his secret intent :
And unto them he doth declare his will and testament.
- 14 Mine eyes and eke my heart
to him I will advance,
That pluck'd my feet out of the snare
of sin and ignorance.
- 15 With exercise me behold,
to thee I make my mone :
For I am poor and desolates
and comfortless alone.
- 16 The troubles of my heart
are multipl'd indeed :
Bring me out of this misery,
necessity and need.
- 17 Behold my poverty,
mine anguish and my pain :
Remit my sin and mine offence,
and make me clean again.
- 18 O Lord, behold my foes,
how they do still increase,
Pursuing me with deadly hate
that slain would live in peace.
- 19 Preserve and keep my soul,
and eke deliver me :
And let me not be overthrown,
because I trust in thee.
- 20 Let my simple pureness
me from mine enemies shend :
Because I look as one of thine,
that thou shouldst me defend.
- 21 Deliver, Lords, thy folk,
and send them some relief,
I mean thy chosen Israel,
from all their pain and grief.

Judas me Domine. Psal. xvi. T. S.

- LOrd, be my judge, and thou shalt see my paths be right and plain :
I trust in God and hope that he will strength me to remain.
- 2 Prove me, my God, I thee desire
my ways to search and trie :
As men do prove their gold with fire,
my reins and heart espie.
- 3 Thy goodness laid before my face
I durst behold always :
For of thy truth I tread the trace,
and will do all my days.
- 4 I do not lust to haunt or use
with men whose deeds are vain :
To come in house I do refuse
with the deceitfull train.
- 5 I much abhor the wicked sort
their deeds I do despise :
I do not once to them resort
that hurtfull things devise.
- 6 My hands I wash, and do proceed
in works to walk upright :
Then to thine altar I make speed,
to offer there in sight.
- 7 That I may speak and preach the praise
that doth belong to thee,

- And so declare how wondrous ways,
thou hast been good to me.
- 8 O God, thy house I love most dear,
to me it doth excell :
I have delight and would be near
whereas thy grace doth dwell.
- 9 O that not up my soul with them
in sin that take their fill.
Nor yet my life among those men
that seek much blood to spill.
- 10 Whose hands are hept with craft & guile,
their lives thereof are full :
And their right hand with wrench and wile
for bribes doth pluck and pull.
- 11 But I in righteousness intend
my time and days to serve.
Have mercie, Lord, and me defend,
so that I do not swerve.
- 12 My foot is stay'd for all assaies,
it standeth well and right :
Wherefore to God will I give praise
in all the peoples sight.

Dominus illuminatio. Psal. xvi. J. H.

- THe Lord is both my health and light ;
shall man make me dismayd ?
Sith God doth give me strength and might,
why should I be afraid ?
- 2 While that my foes with all their strength
begin with me to brawl,
And think to eat me up, at length
themselves have caught the fall.
- 3 Though they in camp against me lye,
my heart is not afraid :
In battel fight if they will trie,
I trust in God for aid.
- 4 One thing of God I do require that he will not denie :
For which I pray and will desire
till he to me apply :
- 5 That I within his holy place
my life throughout may dwell,
To see the beautie of his face,
and view his temple well.
- 6 In time of dread he shall me hide
within his place most pure,
And keep me secret by his side,
as on a rock most sure.
- 7 At length I know the Lords good grace
shall make me strong and stout,
My foes to foil and clean deface,
that compass me about.
- 8 Therefore within his house will I give sacrifice of praise,
With psalms and songs I will apply to laud the Lord always.

The second part.

- 9 Lord hear the voice of my request,
for which to thee I call :
Have mercie Lord, on me oppress,
and send me help withall.
- 10 My heart doth knowledge unto thee,
I sue to have thy grace :
Then seek my face, faist thou to me,
Lords, I will seek thy face.
- 11 In wrath turn not thy face away,
nor suffer me to slide :
Thou art my help still to this day,
be still my God and guide.
- 12 My parents both their foes forsook,
and cast me off at large :
And then the Lord himself yet took
of me the care and charge.
- 13 Teach me, O Lord, the way to thee,
and lead me on forth right,
For fear of such as watch for me,
to trap me if they might.

- 14 Do not betake me to the will,
of them that be my foes :
For they surmise against me still false witness to depose.
- 15 My heart would faint but that in me
this hope is fixed fast,
The Lord Gods good grace shall I see
in life that aye shall last.
- 16 Trust still in God whose whole thou art,
his will abide thou must :
And he shall ease and strength thy heart
if thou in him do trust.

Ad te Dom. clamabo. Psal. xxviii. T. S.

- THou art, O Lord, my strength and stay,
the succour which I crave :
Neglect me not, lest I be like
to them that go to grave.
- 2 The voice of thy suppliant hears
that unto thee doth crye :
When I lift up my hands unto thy holy ark most high.
- 3 Repute me not among the sort of wicked and pervert.
That speak right fair unto their friends
and think full ill in heart.
- 4 According to their handie-works,
as they deserve indeed,
And after their inventions
let them receive their meed.
- 5 For they regard nothing Gods works,
his law ne yet his lore :
Therefore will he them and their seed destroy for evermore.
- 6 To render thanks unto the Lord
how great a cause have I,
My voice, my prayer, and my complaint
that heard so willingly !
- 7 He is my shield and fortitude,
my buckler in distress :
My hope, my help, my hearts relief,
my song shall him confess.
- 8 He is our strength and our defence,
our enemies to resist :
The health and the salvation
of his elect by Christ.
- 9 Thy people and thine heritage,
Lord, bless, guide, and preserve :
Increase them, Lord, and rule their hearts,
that they may never swerve.

Afferte Domino. Psal. xxix. T. S.

- Give to the Lord, ye potentates;
ye rulers of the world,
Give ye all praise, honour and strength
unto the living Lord.
- 2 Give glory to his holy name
and honour him alone :
Worship him in his majestie,
Within his holy throne.
- 3 His voice doth rule the waters all,
even as himself doth please :
He doth prepare the thunder claps,
and governs all the seas.
- 4 The voice of God is of great force,
and wondrous excellent :
It is most mighty in effect,
and most magnificent.
- 5 The voice of God doth rend and break
the cedar trees so long :
The cedar-trees of Lebanon,
which are most high and strong.
- 6 And makes them leap like as a calf,
or else the unicorn :
Not onely trees but mountains great,
whereon the trees are born.
- 7 His voice divides the flames of fire,
and shakes the wilderness :

- 8 It makes the desert quake for fear,
that called is Cades.
- 9 It makes the hinds for fear to calves
and makes the coverts plain :
Then in his temple every man
his glory doth proclaim.
- 10 The Lord was set above the floods,
ruling the raging sea :
So shall he reign as Lord and King
for ever and for aye.
- 11 The Lord will give his people power
in vertue to increase :
The Lord will bless his chosen flock
with everlasting peace.

Exaltabo te, Domine. Psal. xxx. J. H.

- ALl laud and praise with heart and voice,
O Lord, I give to thee,
Which didst not make my foes joyces
but hast exalted me.
- 2 O Lord my God, to thee I cri'd
in all my pain and grief :
Thou gav'st an ear and didst provide
to ease me with relief.
- 3 Of thy good will thou hast call'd back
my soul from hell to save,
Thou didst revive when strength did lack,
and keptst me from the grave.
- 4 Sing praise, ye saints, that prove and see the goodwills of the Lord :
In memorie of his majestie
rejoyce with one accord.
- 5 For why ? his anger but a space
doth last, and slack again :
But in his favour and his grace
always doth life remain.
- Though gripes of grief and pangs full sore
shall lodge with us all night,
The Lord to joy shall us restore
before the day be light.
- 6 When I enjoy'd the world at will,
thus would I boast and say,
Trust, I am sure to feel none ill,
this wealth shall not decay.
- 7 For thou, O Lord, of thy good grace,
hast sent me strength and aid :
But when thou turn'dst away thy face,
my minde was sore dismay'd.
- 8 Wherefore again yet did I crye
to thee, O Lord of might :
My God with plaints I did apply,
and pray'd both day and night.
- 9 What gain is in my blood, said I,
if death destroy my days,
Doth dust declare thy majestie
or yet thy truth doth praise ?
- 10 Wherefore, my God, some pitie take,
O Lord, I thee desire :
Do not this simple soul forsake,
of help I thee require :
- 11 Then didst thou turn my grief and wo
into a cheerfull voice :
The mourning weed thou tookst me fro,
and mad'st me to rejoyce.
- 12 Wherefore my soul uncessantly
shall sing unto thy praise :
My Lords, my God, to thee will I give laud and thanks all ways.

In te Domine. Psal. xxxi. J. H.

- O Lord, I put my trust in thee,
let nothing work me shame :
As thou art just, deliver me,
and set me quite from blame.
- 2 Hear me, O Lord, and that anon,
to help me make good speed :
Be thou my rock and house of stone,
my fence in time of need.

For why? as stones thy strength is tride,
thou art my fort and tower:
For thy names sake be thou my guide,
and lead me in thy power.
4 Pluck thou my feet out of the snare
which they for me have laid:
Thou art my strength, and all my care
is for thy might and aid.
5 Into thy hands, Lord, I commit
my spirit, which is thy due:
For why thou hast redeemed it,
O Lord my God most true.
6 I hate such folk as will not part
from things to be abhorred:
When they on trifles set their hearts,
my trust is in the Lord.
7 For I will in thy mercie joy,
I see it doth excell:
Thou seest when ought would me annoy,
and knowest my soul full well.
8 Thou hast not left me in their hand
that would me over charge:
But thou hast set me out of band,
to walk abroad at large.

The second part.

9 Great grief, O Lord, doth me assail,
some pittie on me take:
Mine eyes wax dim, my sight doth fail,
my womb for wo doth ache.
10 My life is worn with grief and pain,
my years in wo are past.
My strength is gone, and through disdain
my bones corrupt and waste.
11 Among my foes I am a scorn,
my friends are all dismayd:
My neighbours and my kinsmen born
to see me are afraid.
12 As men once dead are out of minde,
so am I quite forgot:
As small dust in me they finde
as in a broken pot.
13 I heard the brags of all the rout,
their threats my minde did fray:
Now they conspir'd and went about
to take my life away.
14 But, Lord, I trust in thee for aid,
not to be overtrode:
For I confesse and still have said,
thou art my Lord and God.
15 The length of all my life and age,
O Lord, is in thy hand:
Defend me from the wrath and rage
of them that me withstand.
16 To me thy servant, Lord expresse
and shew thy joyfull face:
And save me, Lord, for thy goodness,
thy mercie and thy grace.

The third part.

17 Lord, let me not be put to blame,
for that on thee I call:
But let the wicked hear the shame
and in the grave to fall.
18 O Lord make dumb their lips outright,
which are addit to lies,
And cruelly with pride and spight
against the iust devise.
19 O how great good hast thou in store
laid up full safe for them
That fear and trust in thee therefore,
before the sons of men!
20 Thy presence shall them fence and guide
from all proud brags and wrongs:
Within thy place thou shalt them hide
from all the strife of tongues.
21 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd
on me his grace so far,

Me to defend with watch and ward,
as in a town of war.
22 Thus did I say both day and night,
when I was fore oppress:
Lo, I was clean cast out of sight,
yet heardst thou my request.
23 Ye saints, love ye the Lord, I say,
the faithfull he doth guide:
And to the proud he doth repay
according to their pride.
24 Be strong, and God shall stay your hearts,
be bold and have a lust:
For sure the Lord will take your part,
sith ye on him do trust.

Beati quorum. Psal. xxxiii. T. S.

THe man is blest whose wickedness
the Lord hath clean remitted:
And he whose sin and wickedness
is hid and also covered.
2 And blest is he to whom the Lord
imputeth not his sin:
Which in his heart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.
3 For whilest that I kept close my sin
in silence and constraints,
My bones did wear and waste away
with daily moan and plaint.
4 For night and day thy hand on me
so grievous was and smart,
That all my blood and humours moist
to dust did convert.
5 I did therefore confesse my fault,
and all my sins discover:
Then thou, O Lord, didst me forgive,
and all my sins pass over.
6 The humble man shall pray therefore,
and seek thee in due time:
So that the floods of waters great
shall have no power on him.
7 When trouble and adversitie
do compass me about,
Thou art my refuge and my joy,
and thou dost rid me out.
8 Come hither and I will thee teach
how thou shalt walk right:
I will thee guide as I my self
have learn'd by proof and sight.
9 Be not so rude and ignorant
as is the horse and mule, Whose mouth without a rein or bit
from harm thou canst not rule.
10 The wicked man shall manifold sorrows and griefs sustain:
But unto him that trusts in God
his goodness shall remain.
11 Be merrie therefore in the Lord,
ye just lift up your voice,
And ye of pure and perfect heart,
be glad and cheerejoyce.

Exultate iusti. Psal. xxxiii. T. H.

YE righteous in the Lord rejoyce:
it is a seemly sight,
That upright men with thankfull voice
should praise the Lord of might.
2 Praise ye the Lord with harp and song,
in psalms and pleasant things:
With lute and instrument among
that soundeth with ten strings.
3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage give him praise:
4 For why? his word is ever true,
his works and all his ways.
5 To judgement enquire, and sight
he hath a great good will:
And with his gifts he doth delight
the earth throughout to fill.

- 6 For by the word of God alone
the heaven: all were wrought:
Their heav'ns and powers every one
his breath to passe hath brought.
- 7 The waters great gathered hath he
on heaps within the shore:
And hid them in the depth to be,
as in an house of store.
- 8 All men on earth both least and most,
fear God and keep his law:
Yet that inhabit in each coast,
dread him and stand in awe.
- 9 What he commanded wrought it was
at once with present speed:
What he doth will is brought to passe
with full effect indeed.
- 10 The counsels of the nations rude
the Lord doth bring to nought:
He doth defeat the multitude of their device and thought.
- 11 But his decrees continue still,
they never slack nor swage:
The motions of his minde and will take place in every age.

The second part.

- 12 And blest are they to whom the Lord
as God and guide is known:
Whom he doth choose of meer accord
to take them as his own.
- 13 The Lord from heaven cast his sight
on men mortal by birth:
14 Considering from his seat of might
the dwellers of the earth.
- 15 The Lord, I say, whose hand hath wrought
mans heart and doth it frame:
For he alone doth know the thought
and working of the same.
- 16 A king that trusteth in his host,
shall nought prevail at length:
The man that of his might doth boast,
shall fall for all his strength.
- 17 The troups of horse-men eke shall fall,
their sturdy steeds shall sturre:
The strength of horse shall not prevail
the rider to preserve.
- 18 But lo-the eyes of God intend
and watch to rid the just:
With such as fear him to offend,
and on his goodness trust.
- 19 That he of death and great distress
may set their souls from dread:
And if that dearth their land oppresse,
in hunger them to feed.
- 20 Wherefore our soul doth whole depend on God our strength and stay:
He is our shield us to defend,
and drive all darts away.
- 21 Our soul in God hath joy and game,
rejoycing in his might:
For why? in his most holy name
we hope and much delight.
- 22 Therefore let thy goodness, O Lord,
still present with us be:
As we always with one accord
do onely trust in thee.

Benedicam Dom. Psal. xxxiv. T.S.

- I Will give laud and honour both unto the Lord always,
And eke my mouth for evermore
shall speak unto his praise.
- 2 I do delight to laud the Lord
in soul and eke in voice:
That humble men and mortall'd
may hear and so rejoyce.
- 3 Therefore see that ye magnifie
with me the living Lord,

- And let us now exalt his name
together with one accord.
- 4 For I my self be sought the Lord:
he answered me again.
And me delivered incontinent
from all my fear and pain.
- 5 Whoso they be that him behold,
shall see his light most clear:
Their countenance shall not be dasht
they need it not to fear.
- 6 This filly wretch for some relief
unto the Lord did call:
Who did him hear without delay,
and tid him out of thrall.
- 7 The angel of the Lord doth pitch
his tents in every place,
To save all such as feare the Lord,
that nothing them deface.
- 8 Taste and consider well therefore that God is good and just:
O happy man that maketh him
his onely stay and trust!
- 9 Fear ye the Lord ye holy ones,
above all earthly thing:
For they that fear the living Lord
are sure to lack nothing.
- 10 The lions shall be hunger bit,
and pin'd with famine much:
But as for them that fear the Lords,
no lack shall be to such.

The second part.

- 11 Come near therefore my children deare,
and to my words give ear:
I shall you teach the perfect way,
how ye the Lord should feare.
- 12 Who is the man that would live long,
and lead a blessed life?
- 13 See thou refrain thy tongue and lips
from all deceit and strife.
- 14 Turn back thy face from doing ill,
and do the godly deed:
Enquire for peace and quietness,
and follow it with speed.
- 15 For why? the eyes of God above
upon the just are bent:
His ears likewise do hear the plaint
of the poor innocent.
- 16 But he doth frown and bend his brow
upon the wicked train:
And cuts away the memory
that should of them remain.
- 17 But when the just do call and crye,
the Lord doth hear them so:
That out of pain and miserie
forthwith he lets them go.
- 18 The Lord is kinde and straight at hand
to such as be contrite:
He saves also the sorrowfull,
the poor and meek in spite.
- 19 Full many be the miseries
that righteous men do suffer:
But out of all adversities
the Lord doth them deliver.
- 20 The Lord doth so preserve and keep his very bones alway,
That not so much as one of them
doth perish or decay.
- 21 The sin shall slay the wicked man,
which he himself hath wrought:
And such as hate the righteous man
shall soon be brought to nought.
- 22 But they that fear the living Lord,
the Lord doth save them found:
And who that put their trust in him,
nothing shall them confound.

- Lord, plead my cause against my foes,
confound their force and might :
Fight on my part against all those
that seek with me to fight.
- 2 Lay hand upon the spear and shield,
thy self in armour dress :
Stand up for me and fight the field,
to help me from distress.
- 3 Gird on thy sword, and stop the way,
mine enemies to withstand :
That thou unto my soul mayst say,
Lo I thy help at hand.
- 4 Confound them with rebuke and blame,
that seek my soul to spill :
Let them turn back and flee with shame,
that think to work me ill.
- 5 Let them disperse and flee abroad,
as winde doth drive the dust :
And that the angel of our God
their might away may thrust.
- 6 Let all their ways be void of light,
and sinners like to fall :
And send thine angel with thy might,
to persecute them all.
- 7 For why ? without my fault they have
in secret set their gin :
And for no cause have digg'd a cave
to take my soul therein.
- 8 When they think least and have no care,
O Lord, destroy them all :
Let them be trapt in their own snare:
and in their mischief fall.
- 9 And let my soul, my heart and voice,
in God have joy and wealth :
That in the Lord I may rejoyce,
and in his saving health.
- 10 And then my bones shall speak and say,
my parts shall all agree :
O Lord, though they do seem full gay,
what man is like to thee ?

The second part.

- 11 Thou dost defend the weak from them
that are both stout and strong :
And rid the poor from wicked men,
that spoil and do them wrong.
- 12 My cruel foes against me rise,
to witness things untrue :
And to accuse me they devise
of things I never knew.
- 13 Where I to them did ow good will,
they quit me with disdain :
That they should pay my good with ill,
my soul doth sore complain.
- 14 When they were sick I mourn'd therefore
and clad my self in sack :
With fasting I did faint full sore,
to pray I was not slack.
- 15 As they had been my brethren dear,
I did my self behave :
As one that maketh wofull cheer
about his mothers grave.
- 16 But they at my disease did joy,
and gather on a rout :
Yea abject slaves at me did toy,
with mocks and checks full stout.
- 17 The belly-gods and flattering train,
that all good things deride,
At me do grin with great disdain,
and pluck their mouthes aside.
- 18 Lord, when wilt thou amend this gear ?
why dost thou stay and pause ?
O rid my soul mine onely dear,
out of these lions claws.
- 19 And then will I give thanks to thee
before the church always :

And where most of the people be,
there will I shew thy praise.
20 Let not my foes prevail on me,
which hate me for no fault :
Nor yet to wink or turn their eye,
that causless me assault.

The third part.

- 21 Of peace no word they think or say,
their talk is all untrue :
They still consult and would betray
all those that peace ensue.
- 22 With open mouth they run at me,
they gape, they laugh, they flout :
Well, well, say they, our eye doth see
the thing that we desire.
- 23 But, Lord, thou seest what ways they take,
cease not this gear to mend :
Be not far off, nor me forsake,
as men that fail their friend.
- 24 Awake, arise, and stir abroad,
defend me in my right :
Revenge my cause, my Lord, my God,
and aid me with thy might.
- 25 According to thy righteousness,
my Lord God, set me free :
And let them not their pride expte's,
nor triumph over me.
- 26 Let not their hearts rejoyce and cries
there, there, this gear goes trim :
Nor give them cause to say on high,
We have our will on him.
- 27 Confound them with rebuke and shame,
that joy when I do mourn :
And pay them home with spight and blame,
that brag at me with scorn.
- 28 Let them be glad and eke rejoyce,
which love mine upright way :
And they all times with heart and voice
shall praise the Lord, and say,
- 29 Great is the Lord, and doth excell,
for why ? he doth delight
To see his servants prosper well,
that is his pleasant sight.
- 30 Wherefore my tongue I will applie
thy righteousness to praise :
Unto the Lord my God will I sing laud and praise awaies.

Dixit injustus. Psal. xxxvi. J. H.

- THe wicked with his works unjust
doth thus pervert his heart,
That of the Lord he hath no trust ;
his fear is set apart.
- 2 Yet doth he joy in his estate,
to walk as he began,
So long till he deserve the hate
of God and eke of man.
- 3 His words are wicked, vile, and naught,
his tongue no truth doth tell :
Yet at no hand will he be taught
which way he may do well.
- 4 When he should sleep, then doth he muse
his mischiefs to fulfill ;
No wicked ways doth he refuse,
nor nothing that is ill.
- 5 But, Lord, thy goodness doth ascend
above the heavens high :
So doth thy truth it self extend unto the cloudy sky.
- 6 Much more then hills so high and steep,
thy justice is expreit :
Thy judgements like to seas most deep ;
thou sav'st both man and beast.
- 7 Thy mercy is above all things,
O God, it doth excell :
In trust whereof as in thy wings,
the sons of men shall dwell.

1 Within thy house thy shall be fed with plenty at their will :
Of all delights they shall be sped,
and take thereof their fill.
2 For why ? the well of life so pure
doth ever flow from thee,
And in thy light we are full sure
the lasting light to see.
3 From such as thee desire to know
let not thy grace depart :
Thy righteousness declare and show
to men of upright heart.
4 Let not the proud on me prevail,
O Lord of thy good grace :
Not let the wicked me assail,
to throw me out of place.
5 But they in their device shall fall
that wicked works maintain :
They shall be overthrowen withall,
and never rise again.

Noli emulari. Psal. xxxvii. IV. IV.

GRudge not to see the wicked men
in wealth to flourish still :
Nor yet envy such as to ill
have bent and set their will.
2 For as green grass and flourishing herbs
are cut, and wither away :
So shall their great prosperity
soon pass, fade, and decay.
3 Trust thou therefore in God alone,
to do well give thy minde :
So shalt thou have the land as thine,
and there sure food shalt finde.
4 In God for all thy hearts delight,
and look what thou wouldst have,
Or else canst wish in all the world,
thou needst it not to crave.
5 Cast both thy self and thine affairs
on God with perfect trust,
And thou shalt see with patience
th' effect both sure and just.
6 Thy perfect life and godly name
he will clear as the light :
So that the sun even at noon-day
shall not shine half so bright.
7 Be still therefore, and steadfastly on God see thou wait then,
Not shrinking for the prosperous state
of lewd and wicked men.
8 Shake off despight, envy, and hate,
at least in any wise :
Their wicked steps avoid and flee,
and follow not their guile.
9 For every wicked man will God
destroy, both more and less :
But such as trust in him are sure
the land for to possess.
10 Watch but a while, and thou shalt see
no more the wicked train,
No not so much as house or place
where once he did remain.

The second part.

11 But mercifull and humble men
enjoy shall sea and land :
In rest and peace they shall joyce,
for nought shall them withstand.
12 The lewd men and malicious
against the just conspire :
They gnash their teeth at him, as men
which do his bane desire.
13 But while that lewd men thus do think,
the Lord laughs them to scorn :
For why ? he sees their term approach
when they shall sigh and mourn.
14 The wicked have their sword out drawn,
their bowe eke have they bent,

To overthrow and kill the poor
as he the right way went.
15 But the same sword shall pierce their heart,
which was to kill the just :
Likewise the bowe shall break to shivers,
wherein they put their trust.
16 Doubtless the just mans poor estate
is better a great deal more Then all these lewd and wicked mens rich pomp and heaped store.
17 For be their power never so strong,
God will it overthrow :
Where contrary he doth preserve
the humble men and low, 18 He sees by his great providence
the good mens trade and way :
And will give them inheritance
which never shall decay.
19 They shall not be discouraged,
when some are hard bested :
When others shall be hunger-bit,
they shall be clad and fed.
20 For whosoever wicked is,
and enemy to the Lord,
Shall quail, yea melt even as lambs greese,
or smoke that flies abroad.

The third part.

21 Behold the wicked borrows much,
and never pays again :
Whereas the just by liberal gifts
makes many glad and fain.
22 For they whom God doth bless, shall have the land for heritage :
And they whom he doth curse, likewise
shall perish in his rage.
23 The Lord the just mans ways doth guide,
and gives him good success :
To every thing he takes in hand
he sendeth good address.
24 Though that he fall, yet is he sure
not utterly to quail :
Because the Lord puts out his hand
at need and doth not fail.
25 I have been young and now am old,
yet did I never see
The just man left, nor yet his seed
to beg for misery.
26 But gives always most liberally,
and lends whereas is need :
His children and posterity
receive of God their meed.
27 Flee vice therefore and wickedness,
and vertue do embrace :
So God shall grant thee long to have
on earth a dwelling place.
28 For God so loveth equity,
and shews to his such grace,
That he preserveth them alway,
but stroyes the wicked race.
29 Whereas the good and godly men
inherit shall the land,
Having as lords all things therein
in their own power and hand.
30 The just mans mouth shall ever speak
of matters wise and high :
His tongue doth talk to edifie,
with truth and equity.
31 For in his heart the law of God
his Lord doth still abide :
So that where ever he goes or walks,
his foot can never slide.
32 The wicked like a ravening wolf
the just man doth beset,
By all means seeking him to kill,
if he fall in his net.

The fourth part.

- 33 Though he should fall into his hands,
yet God would succour send:
Though men against him sentence give,
God would him yet defend.
- 34 Wait thou on God and keep his way,
he shall preserve thee then.
The earth to rule, and thou shalt see destroy'd these wicked men.
- 35 The wicked have I seen most strong
and plac'd in high degree.
Flourishing in all wealth and store,
as doth the lawrel-tree.
- 35 But suddenly he past away,
and lo he was quite gone!
Then I him sought, but could not finde
the place where dwelt such one.
- 37 Mark and behold the perfect man,
how God doth him increase:
For the just man shall have at length
great joy with rest and peace.
- 38 As for transgressours, wo to them,
destroy'd they shall all be:
God will cut off their budding race,
and rich posterity.
- 39 But the salvation of the just
doth come from God above,
Who in their trouble sends them aid,
of his meek grace and love.
- 40 God doth them help, save, and deliver
from lewd men and unjust:
And still will save them whilst that they
in him do put their trust.

Domine ne Psal. xxxviii. J. H.

- PUt me not to rebuke, O Lord,
in thy provoked ire:
Ne in thy heavie wrath, O Lord,
correct me I desire.
- 2 Thine arrows do stick fast in me,
thy hand doth press me sore:
And in my flesh no health at all appeareth any more.
- 3 And all this is by reason of thy wrath that I am in:
Nor any rest is in my bones
by reason of my sin.
- 4 For lo my wicked doings, Lord;
above my head are gone:
A greater load then I can bear,
they lie me fore upon.
- 5 My wounds stink and are fester'd so,
as loathsome is to see:
Which all through mine own foolishness
betideth unto me.
- 6 And I in carefull wife am brought
in trouble and distress:
That I go weeping all the daie
in dolefull heaviness.
- 7 My loins are fill'd with sore disease,
My flesh hath no whole part:
8 I feeble am and broken sore.
I roar for grief of heart.
- 9 Thou know'st, Lord, my desire, my groans
are open in thy sight:
10 My heart doth pant, my strength doth fail,
mine eyes have lost their light.
- 11 My lovers and my wonted friends
stand looking on my wo:
And eke my kinsmen far away
are me departed fro.
- 12 They that did seek my life hid snares,
and they that sought the waie
To do me hurt, spake lies, and thought on mischief all the daie.

The second part.

- 13 But as a deaf man I became,
that cannot hear at all:
14 And as one dumb, that opens not his mouth to speak withall.
- 15 For all my confidence, O Lord,
is wholly set on thee:
O Lord, thou Lord that art my God,
thou shalt give ear to me.
- 16 This did I crave, that they my foes
triumph not over me:
For when my foot did slip, then they did joy my fall to see.
- 17 And truelie I poor wretch am set
in place a wooll wight:
And eke my grievous heaviness
is ever in my sight.
- 18 For while that I my wickedness
in humble wise confesse:
And while I for my sinful deeds
my sorrows do expresse:
- 19 My foes do still remain alive,
and mightie are also,
And they that hate me wrongfully,
in number hugely grow.
- 20 They stand against me that my good
with evil do repaie:
Because that good and honest things
I do ensue awaie.
- 21 Forfake me not, O Lord my God,
be thou not far awaie:
22 Hasten me to help, my Lord, my God,
my saviour and my saie.

Dixi custodiam. Psal. xxxix. J. H.

- ISaid, I will look to my waies,
for fear I should go wrong:
I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.
- 2 As with a bit I will keep fast
my mouth with force and might,
Not once to whisper all the while
the wicked are in sight.
- 3 I held my tongue and spake no word,
but kept me close and still:
Yea from good talk I did refrain,
but for against my will.
- 4 My heart waxt hot within my breast,
with musing, thought and doubt;
Which did increase and stir the fire:
at last these words burst out;
- 5 Lord number out my life and daies
which yet I have not past;
So that I may be certaine
how long my life shall last.
- 6 Lord, thou hast pointed out my life
in length much like a span:
Mine age is nothing unto thee,
so vain is every man.
- 7 Man walketh like a shade, and doth
in vain himself annoy
In getting goods, and cannot tell
who shall the same enjoy.
- 8 Now, Lord, with things this wise do frame,
what help do I desire?
Of truth my help doth hang on thee,
I nothing else require.

The second part.

- 9 From all the sins that I have done,
Lord, quit me out of hand:
And make me not a scorn to fools
that nothing understand.
- 10 I was as dumb, and to complaine
no trouble might me move:
Because I knew it was thy work,
my patience for to prove.

11 Lord,

- 11 Lord, take from me thy scourge & plague,
I can them not withstand :
Faint and pine away for fear
of thy most heauie hand.
12 When thou for sin dost man rebuke,
he waxeth wo and wane,
As doth a cloth that moths haue fret :
so vain a thing is man.
13 Lord hear my suit and giue good heed,
regard my tears that fall :
I sojourn like a stranger here,
as did my fathers all.
14 O spare a little, giue me space
my strength for to restore,
Before I go away from hence,
and shall be seen no more.

Expellans expellauit. Psal. xl. J. H.

- 1 Waited long and sought the Lord,
and patient y did bear :
At length to me he did accord
my voice and cry to hear.
2 He plucked me from the lake so deep
out of the mire and clay :
And on a rock he set my feet,
and he did guide my way.
3 To me he taught a psalm of praise,
which I must shew abroad,
And sing new songs of thanks alwaies
unto the Lord our God.
4 When all the folk these things shall see,
as people much afraid.
Then they unto the Lord will flee,
and trust upon his aid.
5 O blest is he whose hope and heart
doth in the Lord remain,
That with the proud doth take no part,
nor such as lie and feign.
6 For, Lord my God, thy wondrous deeds
in greatness far do pass, Thy fauour towards us exceeds all things that euer was.
7 When I intend and do devise thy works abroad to shew,
To such a reckoning they do rise,
thercof no end I know.
8 Burnt-offrings thou delight'st not in,
I know thy whole desire:
With sacrifice to purge his sin
thou dost no man require.
9 Meat-offerings and sacrifice
thou wouldst not haue at all :
But thou, O Lord, hast open made
mine ears to hear withall.
10 But then said I, Behold and look,
I come a mean to be :
For in the volume of thy book
thus is it said of me,
11 That I, O God, should do thy miade,
which thing doth like me well :
For in my heart thy law I finde
fast placed there to dwell.
12 Thy iustice and thy righteousness
in great resorts I tell:
Behold my tongue no time doth cease,
O Lord, thou knowst full well.

The second part.

- 13 I haue not hid within my breast
thy goodness as by stealth :
But I declare and haue exprest
thy truth and saving health.
14 I kept not close thy loving minde,
that no man should it know :
The truth that in thy truth I finde,
to all the church I shew.
15 Thy tender mercie, Lord, from me
withdrew thou not away :

- But let thy love and veritie
preserve me still for aye.
16 For I with mischiefs many a one am sore beset about :
My sins increase, and do come on,
I cannot spie them out.
17 For why ? in number they exceed the hairs upon my head :
My heart doth faint for very dread,
that I am almost dead.
18 With speed send help and set me free :
O Lord, I thee require :
Make haste with aid to succour me,
O Lord, at my desire.
19 Let them sustain rebuke and shame
that seek my soul to spile :
Drive back my foes, and them defame
that wish and would me ill.
20 For their ill feats do them describe,
that would deface my name :
Always at me they rail and crie,
Fie on him, fie for shame.
21 Let them in thee haue joy and wealth
that seek to thee alwaies :
That those that love thy saving health
may say, To God be praise.
22 But as for me I am but poor,
opprest and brought full low :
Yet thou, O Lord, wilt me restore to health, full well I know.
23 For why, thou art my hope and trust,
my refuge, help and stay :
Wherefore my God, as thou art iust,
with me no time delay.

Beatus qui intelligit. Psal. xli. T. S.

- THE man is blest that careful is the needie to consider:
For in the season perilous
the Lord will him deliver.
2 The Lord will make him safe and sound,
and happy in the land :
And he will not deliver him
into his enemies hand.
3 And in his bed when he lies sick,
the Lord will him restore :
And thou, O Lord, wilt turn to health
his sickness and his sore.
4 Then in my sickness thus said I,
Haue mercy, Lord, on me,
And heal my soule, which is full wo
that I offended thee.
5 Mine enemies wish me ill in heart,
and thus of me did say,
When shall he die, that all his name
may vanish quite away ?
6 And when they come to visit me,
they ask if I do well :
But in their hearts mischief they hatch,
and to their mates it tell.
7 They bite their lips and whisper so,
as though they would me harm,
And cast their fetches how to trap
me with some mortal harm.
8 Some grievous sin hath brought him to this sickness, say they plain ;
He is so low that without doubt rise can he not again.
9 The man also that I did trust,
with me did use deceit :
Who at my table ate my bread,
the same for me laid wait.
10 Haue mercie, Lord, on me therefore,
and let me be preserved :
That I may render unto them
the things they haue deserved :
11 But this I know assuredly,
to be belov'd of thee,
When that mine enemies haue no cause
to triumph over me.

2 But in my right thou hast me kept,
and maintained alway :

And in thy pre'ence place assign'd
where I shall dwell for aye.

13 The Lord the God of Israel
be praised ever more :
Even so be it, Lord, will I say,
Even so be it therefore.

Quemadmodum. Psal. xlii. J. H.

Like as the hart doth breathe and bray
the wel-springs to obtain;
So doth my soul desire alway
with thee, Lord, to remain.

2 My soul doth thirst, and would draw near the living God of might :
Oh when shall I come and appear in presence of his sight !

3 The tears all times are my repast,
which from mine eyes do slide :
When wicked men cry out so fast,
where now is God thy guide ?

4 Alas, what grief is it to think what freedom once I had !
Therefore my soul as at pits brink
most heavy is and sad.

When I did march in good array,
furnished with my train,
Unto the temple was our way,
with songs and hearts most fain.

5 My soul, why art thou sad always,
and fressh thus in my breast ?
Trust still in God ; for him to praise
I hold it ever best.

By him I have succour at need
against all pain and grief :
He is my God, which with all speed
will haste to send relief.

6 And thus my soul within me, Lord,
doth faint to think upon
The land of Jordan, and record
the little hill Mernon.

The second part.

7 One grief another in doth call,
as clouds burst out their voice :
The floods of evil that do fall
run over me with noise.

8 Yet I by day felt his goodness
and help at all assaies :
Likewise by night I did not cease
the living God to praise.

9 I am persuaded thus to say
to him with pure pretence,
O Lord, thou art my guide and stay,
my rock and sure defence.

Why do I then in pensiveness
hanging the head thus walk,
While that mine enemies me oppress,
and vex me with their talk ?

10 For why? they pierce my inward parts
with pangs to be abhor'd,
When they cry out with stubborn hearts,
where is thy God, thy Lord ?

11 So soon why dost thou faint and quail,
my soul with pain oppress :
With thoughts why dost thy self assail
so fore within my breast ?

12 Trust in the Lord thy God always,
and thou the time shalt see
To give him thanks with laud and praise,
for health restor'd to thee.

Judica me Domine. Psal. xliii. T. S.

Judge and revenge my cause, O Lord,
from them that evil be :
From wicked and deceitfull men,
O Lord, deliver me.

2 For of my strength thou art the God,
why putt'st thou me thee iso ?
And why walk I so heavily oppressed with my foe ?

3 Send out thy light, and cleave thy truth,
and lead me with thy grace,
Which may conduct me to thy hill,
and to thy dwelling place.

4 Then shall I to the altar go
of God my joy and cheer :
And on my harp give thanks to thee,
O God, my God most dear.

5 Why art thou then so sad my soul,
and fressh thus in my breast ?
Still trust in God, for him to praise
I hold it always best.

6 By him I have deliverance
against all pain and grief :
He is my God which doth alway
at need send me relief.

Deus auxilium. Psal. xlii. T. S.

Our ears have heard our fathers tell:
and reverently record
The wondrous works that thou hast done
in older time, O Lord.

2 How thou didst cut the Gentiles out,
and avoid'st them with strong hand ;
Planting our fathers in their place,
and gav'st to them their land.

3 They conquered not by sword nor strength
the land of thy bestift :
But by thy hand, thy arm and grace;
because thou lov'st them best.

4 Thou art my King, O God, that holp
Jacob in sundry wise.

5 Led with thy power, we throw down such as did against us rise.

6 I trusted not in bowe nor sword,
they could not save me found.

7 Thou keptst us from our enemies rage,
thou didst our foes confound.

8 And still we boast of thee our God,
and praise thy holy name :

9 Yet now thou goest not with our host,
but leavest us to shame.

10 Thou mad'st us flee before our foes
and so were overtrod :

Our enemies robb'd and spoil'd our goods,
when we were spent abroad.

11 Thou hast us given to our foes,
as sheep for to be slain :

Amongst the heathen every where scattered we do remain.

12 Thy people thou hast sold like slaves,
and as a thing of nought :

For profit none thou hast thereby,
no gain at all was sought.

13 And to our neighbours thou hast made
of us a laughing-stock :

And those that round about us dwell,
at us do grin and mock.

The second part.

14 Thus we serve for none other use,
but for a common talk :

They mock, they scorn, they nod their heads
where ere they go or walk.

15 I am sham'd continually,
to hear these wicked men :

Yea, so I blush, that all my face
with red is covered then.

16 For why? we hear such slanderous words,
such false reports and lies :

That death it is to see their wrongs,
their threatnings and their cries.

17 For all this we forgot not thee,
nor yet thy covenant brake :

- 18 We turn not back our hearts from thee,
nor yet thy paths forsake.
- 19 Yet thou hast trod us down to dust,
where dens of dragons be,
And covered us with shade of death,
and great adversity.
- 20 If we had our Gods name forgot,
and help of idols sought,
- 21 Would not God then have tride this out
for he doth know our thought.
- 22 Nay, nays for thy names sake, O Lord,
always are we slain thus:
As sheep unto the shambles sent,
right to they deal with us.
- 23 If Lord, why sleepest thou? awake,
and leave us not for all:
- 24 Why hidest thou thy countenance,
and dost forget our thrill?
- 25 For down to dust our soul is brought,
and we now at last cast:
Our bel y, like as it were glurd,
unto the ground cleaves fast.
- 26 Rise up therefore for our defence,
and help us, Lord, at need:
We thee beseech for thy goodness,
to rescue us with speed;

Ernaavit. Psal. xlv. J. H.

- MY heart doth take in hand
some godly song to sing:
The praise that I shall shew therein
pertaineth to the king.
- 2 My tongue shall be as quick
his honour to indite,
As is the pen of any scribe,
that useth fast to write.
- 3 O fairest of all men,
thy speech is pleasant pure:
For God hath blessed thee with gifts,
for ever to endure.
- 4 About thee gird thy sword,
O Prince of might elect;
With honour, glorie and renown,
thy person pure is deckt.
- 5 Go forth with godly speed,
with meekness, truth and right:
And thy right hand shall thee instruct in works of dreadfull might.
- 6 Thine arrows sharp and keen
their hearts so sore shall sting:
That folk shall fall and kneel to thee,
yea all thy foes, O king.
- 7 Thy royal seat, O Lord,
for ever shall remain:
Because the scepter of thy realm
doth righteousness maintain.
- 8 Because thou lov'st the right,
and doist the ill detest.
God, even thy God hath nointed thee
with joy above the rest.
- 9 With myrthe and favours sweet
thy clothes are all bespread:
When thou dost from thy palace pass,
therein to make thee glad.
- 10 Kings daughters do attend
in fine and rich array:
At thy right hand the queen doth stand
in gold and garments gay.

The second part.

- 11 O daughter take good heed,
encline and give good ear:
Thou must forget thy kindred all,
and fathers house most dear.
- 12 Then shall the king desire
thy beautie fair and trim:
For why? he is the Lord thy God,
and thou must worship him.

- 13 The daughters then of Tyre,
with gifts full rich to see,
And all the wealthy of the land shall make their suit to thee.
- 14 The daughter of the king
is glorious to behold:
Within her closet she doth sit
all deckt in beaten gold.
- 15 In robes well wrought with needle,
and many a pleasant thing:
With virgins wait on her to wait,
the cometh to the king.
- 16 Thus are they brought with joy
and mirth on every side,
Into the palace of the king,
and there they do abide.
- 17 In stead of parents left,
(O queen, the case so stands)
Thou shalt have sons whom thou mai'st set
as princes in all lands.
- 18 Wherefore thy holy name
all ages shall record:
The people shall give thanks to thee
for evermore, O Lord.

Deus noster. Psal. xlv. J. H.

- THE Lord is our defence and aid,
the strength whereby we stand:
When we with wo are much dismay'd
he is our help at hand.
- 2 Though the earth remove, we will not fear,
though hills so high and steep
Be thrust and hurled here and there
within the sea so deep.
- 3 No, though the waves do rage so sore
that all the banks it spilla:
And though it overflow the shore,
and beat down mightie hills.
- 4 For one fair fount doth send abroad
his pleasant streams apace,
To fresh the citie of our God,
and wash his holy place.
- 5 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell,
she can no whit decay:
All things against her that rebell
the Lord will truly slay.
- 6 The heathen folk the kingdoms fear,
the people make a noise:
The earth doth melt and not appear,
when God puts forth his voice.
- 7 The Lord of hosts doth take our part,
to us he hath an eye:
Our hope of health withall our heart
on Jacobs God doth lie.
- 8 Come here and see with minde and thought
the working of our God:
What wonders he himself hath wrought
in all the world abroad.
- 9 By him all wars are hush and gone,
which countreys did conspire:
Their bowes he brake and spears each one
their chariots burnt with fire.
- 10 Leave off therefore (saith he) and know
I am a God most stout,
Among the heathen high and low,
and all the earth throughout.
- 11 The Lord of hosts doth us defend,
he is our strength and tower:
On Jacobs God we do depend,
and on his might and power.

Omnes gentes. Psal. xlv. J. H.

- YE people all with one accord
clap hands and che rejoyce;
Be glad and sing unto the Lord
with sweet and pleasant voice.
- 2 For high the Lord and dreadfull is,
with wonders manifold;

- A mightie King he is truly,
 in all the earth extold.
3 The people shall he make to be unto our bondage thrall :
 And underneath our feet he shall
 the nations make to fall.
4 For us the heritage he chose
 which we possess alone :
 The flourishing worship of Jacob
 his welbelov'd one.
5 Our God ascended up on high
 with joy and pleasant noise :
 The Lord goes up above the skie
 with trumpets royal voice.
6 Sing praises to our God, sing praise,
 sing praises to our King :
7 For God is King of all the earth,
 all skilfull praises sing.
1 God on the heathen reigns and sits
 upon his holy throne :
 The princes of the people have them joynd everie one 9 To Abrahams people : for our God,
 which is exalted high,
 As with a buckler doth defend
 the earth continually.

Magnus Dominus. Psal.xlviii. J.H.

- Great is the Lord, and with great praise to be advanced still Within the citie of our God,
 upon his holy hill.
2 Mount Sion is a pleasant place,
 it gladdeth all the land :
 The citie of the mightie King
 on her north-side doth stand.
3 Within the palaces thereof
 God is a refuge known :
 For lo, the kings are gathered, and together they are gone.
4 But when they did behold it so,
 they wondred, and they were Astonied much, and sudden y
 were driven back with fear.
5 Great terrour there on them did fall,
 for very wo they cry.
 As doth a woman when she shall go travail by and by.
6 As thou with eastern winde the ships
 upon the sea dost break,
 So they were strow'd : and even as
 we heard our fathers speak :
7 So in the citie of the Lord
 we saw as it was told.
 Yes, in the citie which our God
 for ever will uphold.
8 O Lord, we wait and do attend
 on thy good help and grace :
 For which we do all times attend
 within thy holy place.
9 O Lord, according to thy name
 for ever is thy praise :
 And thy right hand, O Lord, is full of righteousness always.
10 Let for thy judgements, Sion mount fulfilled be with joys :
 And eke of Judah grant, O Lord,
 the daughters to rejoice.
11 Go walk about all Sion hill,
 yea, round about her go :
 And tell the towres that thereupon are builded on a row 12 And mark ye well her bulwarks all,
 behold her towres there :
 That ye may tell thereof to them
 that after shall be here.
13 For this God is our God, our God
 for evermore is he :

Yea, and unto the death also
 our guider shall he be.

Audite hac omnes, Psal.xlix. J.H.

- All people hearken and give ear
 to that that I shall tell,
2 Both high and low, both rich and poor
 that in the world do dwell.
3 For why ? my mouth shall make discourse
 of many things right wise :
 In understanding shall mine heart
 his studie exercise.
4 I will incline mine ear to know
 the parable so dark :
 And open all my doubtfull speech
 in metre on my harp.
5 Why should I fear affliction,
 or any carefull toyl :
 Or else my foes which at my heels
 are prest my life to spoile ?
6 For as for such as riches have,
 wherein their trust is mozt :
 And they which of their treasures great
 themselves do brag and boast ;
7 There is not one of them that can
 his brothers death redeem,
 Or that can give a price to God sufficient for him.
8 It is too great a price to pay,
 none can thereto attain :
 Or that he might his life prolong,
 or not in grave remain.
9 They see wise men as well as fools
 subject unto deaths bands :
 And being dead, strangers possess
 their goods, their rents, their lands.
10 Their care is to build houses fair,
 and so determine sure
 To make their name right great on earth
 for ever to endure.
11 Yet shall no man always enjoy
 high honour, wealth, and rest ;
12 But shall at length taste of deaths cup,
 as well as the brute beast.

The second part.

- 13 And though they trie their foolish thoughts
 to be most lewd and vain :
 Their children yet approve their talk,
 and in like sin remain.
14 As sheep into the fold are brought,
 so shall they into grave :
 Death shall them eat, and in that day
 the just shall lordship have.
15 Their image and their royal port shall fade and quite decay,
 When as from house to pit they pass
 with wo and well-away.
16 But God will surely preserve me
 from death and endless pain :
 Because he will of his good grace
 my soul receive again.
17 If any man wax wondrous rich,
 fear not I say therefore :
 Although the glorie of his house
 increaseth more and more.
18 For when he dies, of all these things
 nothing shall he receive :
 His glorie will not follow him,
 his pomp will take her leave.
19 Yet in this life he takes himself
 the happiest under sun :
 And others likewise flatter him,
 saying, All is well done.
20 And presuppose he live as long
 as did his fathers old ;
 Yet must he needs at length give place,
 and be brought to deaths fold.

11 Thus man to honour God hath brought,
yet doth he not consider:
But like brute beasts, so doth he live,
which turn to dust and powder.

Deus Destum. Psa. l. W. W.

THe mightie God,
th' eternal hath thus spoke,
And all the world
he will call and provoke:
Even from the east,
and so forth to the west.
2 From towards Sion,
which place he liketh best,
God will appear
in beautie most excellent:
Our God will come
before that long time be spent.

3 Devouring fire
shall go before his face:
A great tempest
shall round about him trace.
4 Then shall he call
the earth and heavens bright,
To judge his folk
with equitie and right:
5 Saying, Go to,
and now my saints assemble:
My part they keep,
their gifts do not dissemble.

6 The heavens shall declare his righteousness:
For God is judge
of all things more and lesse.

7 Hear, my people,
for I will now reveal;
Lift Israel,
I will thee nought conceal.
Thy God thy God
am I, and will not blame thee 8 For giving not
all manner offerings to me.

9 I have no need to take of thee at all Goats of thy fold,
or calf out of thy stall:
10 For all the beasts
are mine within the woods:
On thou and hills
cattel are mine own goods.
11 I know for mine
all birds that are on mountains:
All beasts are mine
which haunt the fields and fountains.

12 Hungrie if I were,
I would not thee it tell;
For all is mine
that in the world doth dwell.

13 Eat I the flesh
of great bulls or bullocks?
Or drink the blood
of goats, or of the flocks?
14 Offer to God
Praise and hearty thanksgiving,
And pay thy vows
unto God everliving.

15 Call upon me
when troubled thou shalt be:
Then will I help,
and thou shalt honour me,

16 To the wicked
thus saith th' eternal God,
Why dost thou preach
my laws and hefts abroad:

17 Seeing thou hast
them with thy mouth abused,
And hat it to be
by discipline reformed?

My words, I say,
thou dost reject and hate:
18 If that thou see
a thief, as with thy mate,
Thou run'st with him,
and so your prey do seek,
And art all one
with bawds and ruffians eke, 19 Thou giv'st thy self
to backbite and to slander:
And how thy tongue
deceives it is a wonder.

20 Thou sitt'st musing
thy brother how to blame,
And how to put
thy mothers son to shame.
21 These things thou didst,
and whilst I held my tongue,
Thou didst me judge,
because I staid so long,
Like to thy self:
yet though I keep long silence,
Once shalt thou feel
of thy wrongs just recompense.

22 Consider this,
ye that forget the Lord,
And fear not when
he threatneth with his word:
Left without help
I spoil you as a prey.
23 But he that thanks
offereth praiseth me aye,
Saith the Lord God:
and he that walketh this trace,
I will him teach
Gods saving health to embrace.

Another of the same, by J. H.

THe God of gods, the Lord,
hath call'd the earth by name:
From whence the sun doth rise unto
the setting of the same.

2 From Sion his fair place,
his glorie bright and clear,
The perfect beauty of his grace,
from thence it did appear.

3 Our God shall come in haste,
to speak he shall not doubt:
Before him shall the fire waste,
and tempest round about.

4 The heavens from on high,
the earth below likewise
He will call forth, to judge and trie,
his folk he doth devise.

5 Bring forth my saints, saith he,
my faithfull flock so dear:
Which are in band and league with me,
my law to love and fear.

6 And when these things are tride,
the heavens shall record,
That God is just; and all must bide
the judgement of the Lord.

7 My people, O give heed,
Israel, to thee I crie:
I am thy God, thy help at need,
thou can'st it not denie.

8 I do not say to thee,
thy sacrifice is slack:
Thou offerest daily unto me;
much more then I do lack.

9 Thinkst thou that I do need thy cattel young or old?
Or else so much desire to feed
on goats out of thy fold?

10 Nay; all the beasts are mine,
in woods that eat their fill:
And thousands more of nest and kine,
that run wilde on the hills.

The second part.

- 11 The birds that build on high,
in hills and out of sight;
And beasts that in the fields do lie,
are subject to my might.
- 12 Then though I hungered sore,
what need I sought of thine,
Sith that the earth with her great stores,
and all therein is mine?
- 13 To bulls flesh have I minde
to eat it: dost thou think?
Or such a sweetness do I finde
the blood of goats to drink?
- 14 Give to the Lord his praises,
with thanks to him apply:
And see thou pay thy vows always unto the God most high.
- 15 Then seek and call to me,
when ought would work thee blame:
And I will sure deliver thee,
that thou mayst praise my name.
- 16 Put to the wicked spyn,
which talk of God each day,
And yet their works are foul and vain
to them the Lord will say,
- 17 With what a face darst thou
my word once speak or name?
Why doth thy talk my law allow,
thy deeds denie the same?
- 18 Wherefore for to amend
thy life thou art so slack:
My word the which thou dost pretend,
is cast behinde thy back.

The third part.

- 19 When thou a thief dost see
by theft to live in wealth,
With him thou runst, and dost agree
likewise to thrive by stealth.
- 20 When thou dost them behold
that wives and maids defile,
Thou lik'st it well, and waxest bold
to use that life most vile.
- 21 Thy lips thou dost apply
to slander and defame:
Thy tongue is taught to craft and lie,
and still doth use the same.
- 22 Thou studiest to revile
thy friends to thee so near:
With slander thou wouldst needs defile
thy mothers son most dear.
- 23 Herest while I do wink,
as though I did not see,
Thou go'st on still and so dost think that I am like to thee.
- 24 But sure I will not let
to strike when I begin:
Thy faults in order I will set,
and open all thy sin.
- 25 Mark this I you require,
that have not God in minde:
Lest when I plague you in mine ire,
your help be far to finde.
- 26 He that doth give to me
the sacrifice of praise, Doth please me well, and he shall see
to walk in godly ways.

Miserere mei. Psal. li. W. W.

O Lord, consider my distress,
and now with speed some pitie take:
My sins deface, my faults redress,
good Lord, for thy great mercies sake.
2 Wash me, O Lord, and make me clean
from this unjust and sinfull act,
And purifie yet once again
my hainous crime and bloudy fact.

- 3 Remorse and sorrow do constrain
me to acknowledge mine excess;
My sin alas doth still remain
before my face without release.
- 4 For thee alone I have offended,
committing evil in thy sight:
And if I were therefore condemned,
yet were thy judgements just and right.
- 5 It is too manifest, alas,
that first I was conceiv'd in sin:
Yea, of my mother so born was,
and yet vile wretch remain therein.
- 6 Also behold, Lord, thou dost love
the inward truth of a pure heart:
Therefore thy wisdom from above
thou hast reveal'd me to convert.
- 7 If thou with hyssop purge this blot,
I shall be cleaner then the glass:
And if thou wash away my spot,
the snow in whiteness shall I pass.
- 8 Therefore, O Lord, such joy me send,
that inwardly I may finde grace,
And that my strength may now amend,
which thou hast 'wag'd for my trespass.
- 9 Turn back thy face and frowning ire,
for I have felt enough thy hand:
And purge my sins, I thee desire,
which do in number pass the sand.
- 10 Make new my heart within my breast,
and frame it to thy holy will:
Thy constant spirit in me let rest,
which may these raging enemies kill.

The second part.

- 11 Cast me not, Lord, out from thy face,
but speedily my torments end:
Take not from me thy spirit of grace,
which may from dangers me defend.
- 12 Restore me to those joys again
which I was wont in thee to finde:
And let me thy free spirit retaine,
which unto thee may stir my minde.
- 13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein:
And men that are likewise brought low,
by mine example shall flee sin.
- 14 O God, that of my health art Lord,
forgive me this my bloudie vice:
My heart and tongue shall then accord
to sing thy mercies and justice.
- 15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue untie,
O Lord, which art the onely key:
And then my mouth shall testify
thy wondrous works and praise alway.
- 16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would have offered many a one:
But thou esteem'st them of no price,
and therein pleasure tak'st thou none.
- 17 The heavie heart, the minde oppress,
O Lord, thou never dost reject:
And, to speak truth, it is the best,
and of all sacrifice the effect.
- 18 Lord, unto Zion turn thy face,
pour out thy mercies on thy hill,
And on Jerusalem thy grace,
build up the walls and love it still.
- 19 Thou shalt accept then our offerings
of peace and righteousness, I say:
Yea calves and many other things
upon thine altar will we lay.

Another of the same, by J. H.

HAVE mercie on me, Lord, after thy great bounding grace:
After thy mercies multitude,
do thou my sins deface.
2 Yea wash me more from mine offence,
and cleanse me from my sin:

For I do know my faults, and still
my sin is in mine eye.

Against thee, thee alone I have offended in this case:
And evil have I done before
the presence of thy face:

That in the things that thou hast done
upright thou mayst be tried,
And eke in judging that the doom
may pass upon thy side.

Behold in wickedness my kinde
and shape I did receive:
And so my sinfull mother eke
in sin did me conceive.

But lo, the truth in inward parts
is pleasant unto thee;
And secrets of thy wisdom thou revealed hast to me.

With hyssop, Lord, besprinkle me:
I shall be cleansed so:
For wash thou me, and so I shall be whiter then the snow.

Of ioy and gladness make thou me
to hear the pleasant voice:
That so the bruised bones which thou hast broken may reioyce.

From the beholding of my sins,
Lord, turn away thy face:
And all my deeds of wickedness
do utterly deface.

O God, create in me a heart
unspotted in thy sight:
And eke within my bowels, Lord,
renew a stable sprite.

Ne cast me from thy sight, nor take thy holy Spirit away:
The comfort of thy living health
give me again, I pray.

With thy free Spirit establish me,
and I will teach therefore Manners thy ways and wicked shall be turned to thy lore.

The second part.

O God that art God of my health,
from bloud deliver me:
That praises of thy righteousness
my tongue may sing to thee.

My lips that yet fast closed be,
do thou, O Lord, unloose:
The praises of thy maiestie
my mouth shall so disclose.

I would have offered sacrifice,
if that had pleased thee:
But pleased with burnt-offerings
I know thou wilt not be.

A troubled spirit is sacrifice
delightfull in Gods eyes:
Broken and an humble heart,
God, thou wilt not despise.

In thy good will deal gently, Lord,
to Sion, and withall
that of thy Jerusalem
uprear'd may be the wall,

Burnt-offerings, gifts and sacrifice
of iustice in that day
thou shalt accept, and calves they shall upon thine altar lay.

Quid gloriaris. Psal. 141. J. H.

Why dost thou, tyrant, boast abroad,
thy wicked works to praise?
Dost thou not know there is a God,
whose mercies last always?

Why dost thy minde yet still devise
such wicked wilks to warp?
Thy tongue untrue in forging lies
is like a rasour sharp.

On mischief why sett thou thy minde
and wilt not walk upright?
Thou hast more lust false tales to finde,
then bring the truth to light.

Thou dost delight in fraud and guile,
in mischief, bloud and wrong:
Thy lips have learn'd the flattering stile,
o false deceitfull tongue.

Therefore shall God for aye confound
and pluck thee from thy place, Thy seed root out from off the ground,
and so shall thee deface.

The iust when they behold thy fall,
with fear will praise the Lord,
And in reproach of thee withall
crie out with one accord,

Behold the man that would not take
the Lord for his defence:
But of his goods his god did make,
and trust his corrupt sense.

But I as olive fresh and green
shall spring and spread abroad:
For why? my trust all times hath been upon the living God.

For this therefore will I give praise
to thee with heart and voice:
Untill set forth thy name aways,
wherein thy saints reioyce.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. 142. T. S.

The foolish man in that which he
within his heart hath said,
That there is any God at all
hath utterly denyd,

They are corrupt and they also
a hainous work have wrought:
Among them all there is not one of good that worketh ought.

The Lord lookt down on sons of men,
from heaven all abroad:
To see if any were that would be wise and seek for God.

They are all gone out of the way,
they are corrupted all;
There is not one doth any good,
there is not one at all.

Do not all wicked workers know that they do feed upon My people, as they feed on bread?
the Lord they call not on.

Even there they were afraid, and stood with trembling all dismay'd
Where as there was no cause at all
why they should be afraid.

For God his bones that thee besieg'd
hath scatter'd all abroad:
Thou hast confounded them, for they reioyced are of God.

- 8 O Lord, give thou thy people health,
and thou, O Lord, fulfill Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Zion hill.
- 9 When God his people shall restore that erst was captive led,
Then Jacob shall therein rejoyce,
and Israel shall be glad.

Deus in nomine. Psalm. lii. J. H.

- GOD, save me for thy holy name,
and for thy goodness sake:
Unto the strength, Lord, of the same
I do my cause betake.
- 2 Regard, O Lord, and give an ear
to me when I do pray:
Bow down thy self to me and hear
the words that I do say.
- 3 For strangers up against me rise,
and tyrants vex me still:
Which have not God before their eyes,
they seek my soul to spill.
- 4 But lo, my God doth give me aid,
the Lord is straight at hand:
With them by whom my soul is straid
the Lord doth ever stand.
- 5 With plagues repay again all those
for me that lie in wait:
And in thy truth destroy my foes
with their own snare and bait.
- 6 An offering of free heart and will then I to thee shall make,
And praise thy name, for therein still great comfort I do take.
- 7 O Lord, at length do set me free
from them that craft conspire:
And now mine eie with joy doth see
on them my hearts desire.

Exaudi Deus. Psalm. lii. J. H.

- O God, give ear, and do apply
to hear me when I pray:
And when to thee I call and cry,
hide not thy self away.
- 2 Take heed to me, grant my request
and answer me again:
With plaints I pray full sore oppress,
great grief doth me constrain.
- 3 Because my foes with threats and cries
oppress me through despite:
And so the wicked sort likewise
to vex me have delight.
- 4 For they in counsel do conspire
to charge me with some ill:
So in their haste wrath and ire
they do pursue me still.
- 5 My heart doth faint for want of breath,
it panteth in my breast:
The terrors and the dread of death
do work me much unrest.
- 6 Such dreadfull fear on me doth fall,
that I therewith do quake:
Such horror welmeth me withall,
that I no shift can make.
- 7 But I did say, Who will give me
the swift and pleasant wings
Of some fair dove, that I may flee,
and rest me from these things?
- 8 Lo, then I would go far away,
to flee I would not cease:
And I would hide my self and stay
in some great wilderness.
- 9 I would be gone in all the haste,
and not abide behinde:
That I were quit and overpast
these blasts of boisterous winde.
- 10 Divide them, Lord, and from them pull
their devilish double tongue:

For I have spide their cille full of rapine, strife, and wrong.

- 11 Which things both night & day through
do close her as a wall:
In midst of her is mischief stout,
and sorrow eke withall.
- 12 Her inward parts are wicked plain,
her deeds are much too vile:
And in her streets there doth remain
all craftie fraud and guile.

The second part.

- 13 If that my foes did seek my shame,
I might it well abide:
From open enemies check and blame
some where I could me hide:
- 14 But thou it was, my fellow deare,
which friendship didst pretend,
And didst my secret counsel hear,
as my familiar friend:
- 15 With whom I had delight to talk
in secret and abroad,
And we together oft did walk
within the house of God.
- 16 Let death in haste upon them fall,
and send them quick to hell:
For mischief reigneth in the hall
and parlour where they dwell.
- 17 But I unto my God will cry,
to him for help I flee:
The Lord will help me by and by,
and he will succour me.
- 18 At morning, noon, and evening tide,
unto the Lord I pray:
When I so instantly have cride,
he doth not say me nay.
- 19 To peace he shall restore me yet,
though war be now at hand:
Although the number be full great
that would against me stand.
- 20 The Lord that first and last doth reign
both now and evermore,
Will hear when I to him complain,
and punish them full sore.
- 21 For sure there is no hope that they
to turn will once accord:
For why? they will not God obey,
nor yet do fear the Lord.
- 22 Upon their friends they laid their hands
which were in covenant knit:
Of friendship to neglect the bands
they pass or care no whit.
- 23 While they have wat within their bowels,
as butter are their words:
Although their words were smooth as oyl,
they cut as sharp as swords.
- 24 Cast thou thy care upon the Lord,
and he shall mount thee:
For in no wise will he accord
the just in thrall to see.
- 25 But God shall cast them deep in pit
that thirst for blood always:
He will no gullefull man permit
to live out half his days.
- 26 Though such be quite destroy'd and gone
in thee, O Lord, I trust:
I shall depend thy grace upon,
with all my heart and lust.

Miserere mei. Psalm. lvi. J. H.

- HAVE mercie, Lord, on me, I pray,
for man would me devour:
He fighteth with me day by day,
And troubleth me each hour.
- 2 Mine enemies daily enterprise
to swallow me outright:
To fight against me may rise,
O thou most high of might.

9 When they would make me most afraid
with boasts and brags of pride :

I trust in thee alone for aid,
by thee I will abide,

4 Gods promise I do minde and praise,
O Lord, I stick to thee :
I do not care at all what
what flesh can do to me.

5 What things I either did or spake,
they wrest them at their will :
And all the counsel that they take
is how to work me ill.

6 They all consent themselves to hide,
close watch for me to lay :
They spie my paths, and snares have tide
to take my life away.

7 Shall they thus scape on mischief set ?
thou God on them wilt frown ;
For in his wrath he doth not let
to throw whole kingdoms down.

8 Thou seest how oft they made me see,
and on my tears dost look :
Reserve them in a glass by thee,
and write them in thy book.

9 When I do call upon thy name,
my foes away do start :

I well perceive it by the same,
that God doth take my part,

10 I glorie in the word of God,
to praise it I accord :

With joy I will declare abroad
the promise of the Lord :

11 I trust in God and yet I say,
as I before began,

The Lord he is my help and stay,
I do not care for man.

12 I will perform with heart so free,
to God my vows always :

And I, O Lord, all times to thee
will offer thanks and praise.

13 My soul from death thou dost defend,
and keep'st my feet upright :
That I before thee may ascend
with such as live in light.

Miserere mei. Psal. lii. J. H.

TAKE pittie for thy promise sake,
have mercy, Lord, on me :
For why ? my soul doth her betake
unto the help of thee.

2 Within the shadow of thy wings
I set my self full fast.

Till mischief, malice, and like things
be gone and overpast.

3 I call upon the God most high,
to whom I stick and stand :
I mean the God that will stand by the cause I have in hand.

4 From heaven he hath sent his aide
to save me from their spite.
That to devour me have adai'd ;
his mercie, truth, and might.

5 I lead my life with lions fell,
all set on wrath and ire :
And with such wicked men I dwell,
that fret like flames of fire.

6 Their teeth are spears and arrows long as sharp as I have seen :

They wound and cut with their quick tongues
like swords and weapons keen.

7 Set up, and shew thy self, O God,
above the heavens bright :

Exalt thy praise on earth abroad,
thy majestie and might.

8 They lay their net and do prepare a privie cave and pit :
Wherein they think my soul to snare,
but they are fall'n in it.

9 My heart is set to laud the Lord,
in him to joy always :

My heart, I say, doth well accord
to sing his laud and praise.

10 Awake, my joy, awake, I say,
my lute, my harp, and string :

For I my self before the day
will rise, rejoyce and sing.

11 Among the people I will tell
the goodness of my God,
And shew his praise that doth excell,
in heathen lands abroad.

12 His mercie doth extend as far as heavens all are high :
His truth as high as any star
that shineth in the skie.

13 Set forth and shew thy self, O God,
above the heavens bright :
Extoll thy praise on earth abroad,
thy majestie and might.

Si vere utique. Psal. liiii. J. H.

YE rulers that are put in trust,
to iudge of wrong and right,
Be all your judgements true and iust,
not knowing meed or might :

2 Nay, in your hearts ye mark and muse
in mischief to consent,
And where ye should true justice use,
your hands to bribes are bent.

3 The wicked sort from their birth-day
have erred on this wise :
And from their mothers wombs alway
have used craft and lies.

4 In them the poyson and the breath
of serpents do appear :
Yea, like the adder that is deaf,
and fast doth stop her ear,

5 Because she will not hear the voice
of one that charmeth well :
No though he were the chief of choices,
and did therein excell.

6 O God, break thou their teeth at once within their mouthes throughout :
The tusks that in their great jaw-bones
like lions whelps hang out.

7 Let them consume away and waste,
as water runs forth right :

The shafts that they do shoot in haste,
let them be broke in flight.

8 As snails do waste within the shell,
and unto slime do run :
As one before his time that fell,
and never saw the sun.

9 Before the thorns that now are young,
to bushes big shall grow :
The storms of anger waxing strong shall take them ere they know.

10 The just shall joy, it doth them good that God doth vengeance take :
And they shall wash their feet in blood
of them that him forsake.

11 Then shall the world shew forth and tell,
that good men have reward :
And that a God on earth doth dwell,
that justice doth regard.

Eripe me. Psal. lix. J. H.

SEND aid and save me from my foes,
O Lord, I pray to thee : Defend and keep me from all those
that rise and strive with me.

2 O Lord, preserve me from those men,
whose doings are not good :
And set me sure and safe from them
that thirst still after blood.

3 For lo, they wait my soul to take,
they rage against me still :

Yes, for no fault that I did make,
I never did them ill.

4 They run and do themselves prepare,
when I no whit offend:
Arise and save me from their snare,
and see what they intend.

5 O Lord of hosts of Israel,
arise and strike all lands:
And pittie none that do rebell,
and in their mischiefs stand.

6 At night they sit and seek about,
as hounds they howl and grin:
And all the citie clean throughout,
from place to place they run.

7 They speak of me with mouth alway,
but in their lips are words:
They greed my death, and then would say,
What? none doth hear our words.

8 But Lord, thou hast their ways espide,
and laught thereat apace:
The heathen folk thou dost deride,
and mock them to their face.

9 The strength that doth our foes withstand,
O Lord, doth come from thee:
My God he is my help at hand,
a fort of fence to me.

10 The Lord to me doth shew his grace
in great abundance still:
That I may see my foes in case
such as my heart doth will.

The second part.

11 Destroy them not at once, O Lord,
lest it from minde do fall:
But with thy strength drive them abroad,
and to consume them all.

12 For their ill words and truthlesse tongue
confound them in their pride:
Their wicked oaths with lies and wrong
let all the world deride.

13 Consume them in thy wrath, O Lord,
that nought of them remain:
That men may know throughout the world
that Jacobs God doth reign.

14 At evening they return apace,
as dogs they grin and crie:
Throughout the streets in everie place
they run about and spie.

15 They seek about for meat, I say,
but let them not be fed:
Nor finde a house wherein they may be bold to put their head.

16 But I will shew thy strength abroad,
thy goodness I will praise:
For thou art my defence and God
at need in all assaies.

17 Thou art my strength, thou hast me staid,
O Lord, I sing to thee:
Thou art my fort, my fence and aid,
a loving God to me.

Deus repulisti. Psal. lx. J. H.

O Lord, thou didst us clean forsake,
and scatterdst us abroad:
Such great displeasure thou didst take,
return to us, O God.

2 Thy might did move the land so sore,
that it in sunder brake:
The burg, thereof, O Lord, restores
for it doth bow and quake.

3 With heavie chance thou wastgest thus
the people that are thine:
And thou hast given unto us
a drink of deadly wine.

4 But yet to such as fear thy name
a banner thou didst shew:
That they may triumph in the same,
because thy word is true.

5 So that thy might may keep and save
thy folk that favour thee:

That they thy help at hand may have,
O Lord, grant this to me.

6 The Lord did speak from his own place,
this was his joyfull tale,
I will divide Sichem by pace,
and mete out Succoths vale.

7 Gilead is given to my hands,
Manassie mine beside:
Ephraim the strength of all my land,
my law doth Judah guide.

8 In Moab I will wash my feet,
over Edom throw my shoe:
And thou Palestine ought'st to seek for favour me unto.

9 But who will bring me at this tide unto the citie strong?
Or who to Edom will me guide,
so that I go not wrong?

10 Wilt thou not God, which didst forsake
thy folk, their land, and costs?
Our wars in hand thou wouldst not take,
nor walk among our hosts.

11 Give aid, O Lord, and us relieve from them that us disdain:
The help that hosts of men can give,
it is but all in vain.

12 But through our God we shall have might
to take great things in hand:
He will tread down and put to flight
all those that us withstand.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. lxi. J. H.

Regard, O Lord, for I complain,
and make my suit to thee:
Let not my words return in vain,
but give an ear to me.

2 From out the coasts and utmost parts
of all the earth abroad,
In grief and anguish of my heart
I crie to thee, O God.

3 Upon the rock of thy great power
my weful minde repose:
Thou art my hope, my fort and tower,
my fence against my foes.

4 Within thy tent I lust to dwell,
for ever to endure:
Under thy wings I know right well
I shall be safe and sure.

5 The Lord doth my desire regard,
and doth fulfill the same:
With godly gifts will he reward
all those that fear his name.

6 The king shall he in health maintaine,
and so prolong his days:
That he from age to age shall reign,
for evermore alway.

7 That he may have a dwelling place
before the Lord for aye;
O let thy mercie, truth, and grace,
defend him from decay.

8 Then shall I sing for ever still with praise unto thy name:
That all my vows I may fulfill,
and daily pay the same.

Nunc Deo. Psal. lxii. J. H.

My soul to God shall give good heed,
and him alone attend:
For why? my health and hope to speed
doth whole on him depend.

2 For he alone is my defence,
my rock, thy health, and aid:
He is my stay, that no pretence
shall make me much afraid.

3 O wicked folk, how long will ye ask cause? sure ye must fall:

for as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tottering wall.
4 Whom God doth love ye seek always
to put him to the worse:
ye love to lie, with mouth ye praise,
and yet your heart doth curse.

5 Yet still my soul doth whole depend on God my chief desire:
from all ill feats me to defend none but him I require.
6 He is my rock, my fort and tower,
my health is of his grace:
He doth support me, that no power
can move me out of place.
7 God is my glorie and my health,
my soul's desire and lust:
My fort, my strength, my stay, my wealth,
God is my onely trust.

8 Oh, have your trust in him alway,
ye folk with one accord:
Pour out your hearts to him, and say,
Our trust is in the Lord.

9 The sons of men deceitfull are,
on balance but a feight:
With things most vain do them compase,
for they can keep no weight.
10 Trust not in wrong, robbrie, nor stealth,
let vain delights be gone:
Though goods well got flow in with wealth,
set not your hearts thereon.

11 The Lord long since one thing did tell,
which here to minde I call:
He spake it oft, I heard it well,
That God alone doth all.

12 And that thou, Lord, art good and kinde,
thy mercie doth exceed:
So that all forts with thee shall finde
according to their deede.

Deus, Deus meus. Psalm lxi. T. 3.

O God, my God, I watch betime
to come to thee in haste.
For why? my soul and bodie both
do thirst of thee to take.
And in this barren wilderness
where waters there are none,
My flesh is parcht for thought of thee,
for thee I wish alone.

2 That I might see yet once again
thy glorie, strength and might,
As I was wont it to behold
within thy temple bright.

3 For why? thy mercies far surmount
this life and wretched days:
My lips therefore shall give to thee
due honour, laud and praise.

4 And whilst I live, I will not fail
to worship thee alway:
And in thy name I shall lift up
my hands when I do pray.

5 My soul is fill'd as with marrow,
which is both fat and sweet:
My mouth therefore shall sing such songs
as are for thee most meet.

6 When as in bed I think on thee,
and eke all the night tide.

7 For under covert of thy wings,
thou art my joyfull guide.

8 My soul doth surely stick to thee,
thy right hand is my power:

9 And those that seek my soul to stroy,
them death shall soon devour.

10 The sword shall them devour each one;
their carcasses shall feed

The hungry foxes which do run their prey to seek at need.

11 The king and all men shall rejoyce,
that do profess Gods word:

For liars mouths shall then be stopp'd,
which have the truth disturb'd.

Exaudi Deus. Psalm lxi. J. H.

O Lord, unto my voice give ear;
with plaint when I do pray:
And rid my life and soul from fear
of foes that threat to slay.

2 Defend me from that sort of men
which in deceit do lurk:
And from the frowning face of them
that all ill feats do work.

3 Who whet their tongues, as we have seen men whet and sharp their words:
They shoot abroad their arrows keen,
I mean most bitter words.

4 With privie sleights shoot they their shafts,
the upright man to hit:
The just unware to strike by craft;
they ease or fear no whit.

5 A wicked work they have decreed,
in counsel thus they crye,
To use deceit let us not dread,
What? who can it espie?

6 What way to hurt they talk and muse
all times within their heart:
They all consult what feats to use,
each doth invent his part.

7 But yet all this shall not prevail;
when they think least upon,
God with his dart shall sure assail
and wound them every one.

8 Their crafts and their ill tongues withall
shall work themselves such blame,
That they which then behold their fall
shall wonder at the same.

9 Then all that see shall know right well
that God the thing hath wrought,
And praise his wittie works, and tell what he to us hath brought.

10 Yet shall the just in God rejoyce,
still trusting in his might:
So shall they joy with minde and voice,
whose hearts are pure and right.

To decet hymnus. Psalm lxi. J. H.

Thy praise alone, O Lord, doth reign
in Sion thine own hill:
Their vows to thee they do maintain,
and their behests fulfill.

2 For that thou dost their prayers heare,
and dost thereto agree:
The people all both far and near
with trust shall come to thee.

3 Ont wicked life so far exceeds,
that we shall fall therein:
But Lord, forgive our great misdeeds,
and purge us from our sin.

4 The man is blest whom thou dost chosse
within thy courts to dwell:
Thy house and temple he shall use,
with pleasures that excell.

5 Of thy great justice hear us, God,
our health of thee doth rise:
The hope of all the earth abroad,
and the sea-coasts likewise.

6 With strength thou art beset about,
and compass with thy power:
Thou mak'st the mountains strong and stout,
to stand in every shower.

7 The swelling seas thou dost asswage,
and make their streams substill:
Thou dost restrain the peoples rage,
and rule them at thy will.

8 The folk that dwell full far on earth shall dread thy signes to see,
Which morn and even in great mirth
do praise with praise to thee.

- 9 When that the earth is chapt and drie,
and thirleth more and more,
Then with thy drops thou dost applie,
and much increase her store.
- 10 The flood of God doth overflow,
and so doth cause to spring
The seed and corn which men do sow,
for he doth guide the thing.
- 11 With wet thou dost her furrows fill,
whereby her clods do fall:
Thy drops on her thou dost distill,
and bless her fruit withall
- 12 Thou deckst the earth of thy good grace
with fair and pleasant crop:
Thy clouds distill their dew space,
great plentie they do drop.
- 13 Whereby the desert shall begin
full great increase to bring:
The little hills shall joy therein,
much fruit in them shall spring.
- 14 In places plain the flock shall feed,
and cover all the earth:
The vales with corn shall so exceed,
that men shall sing for mirth.

Jubilat Deo. Psal. lvi. T. 3.

- YE men on earth, in God rejoyce,
with praise set forth his name:
Extoll his might with heart and voice,
give glorie to the same.
- 2 How wonderfull, O Lord, say ye,
in all thy works thou art!
Why foes for fear shall seek to thee
full sore against their heart.
- 3 All men that dwell the earth throughout,
shall praise the name of God:
The land thereof the world about
is shew'd and set abroad.
- 4 All folk, come forth, behold and see what things the Lord hath wrought:
Mark well the wondrous works that he
for man to pass hath brought.
- 5 He bid the sea like heaps on high,
therein a way they had
On foot to pass both fair and drie,
whereof their hearts were glad.
- 6 His might doth rule the world away,
his eyes all things behold:
All such as would him disobey,
by him shall be controld.
- 7 Ye people, give unto our God
due laud and thanks alway:
With joyfull voice declare abroad,
and sing unto his praise:
- 8 Which doth endure our soul with life,
and it preserve withall:
He stays our feet so that no strife
can make us slip or fall.
- 9 The Lord doth prove our deeds with fire,
if that they will abide:
As workmen do when they desire to have their metals tride.
- 10 Although thou suffer us so long
in prison to be cast,
And there with chains and setters strong
to lie in bondage fast.

The second part.

- 11 Although, I say, thou suffer men
on us to ride and reign:
Though we through fire and water run,
of very grief and pain:
- 12 Yet sure thou dost of thy good grace
dispose it to the best:
And bring us out into a place,
to live in wealth and rest.
- 13 Unto thy house resort will I
to offer and to pray,

- And there I will my self apprise
my vows to thee to pay.
- 14 The vows that with my mouth I spake
in all my grief and smart:
The vows, I say, which I did make
in dolour of my heart.
- 15 Burnt-offings I will give to thee
of oxen fat and rams:
Yea, this my sacrifice shall be
of bullocks, goats, and lambs.
- 16 Come forth and hearken here full sooty
all ye that fear the Lord:
What he for my poor soul hath done,
to you I will record.
- 17 Full oft I call to minde his grace,
this mouth to him doth crie:
And thou my tongue make speed apace
to praise him by and by.
- 18 But if I feel my heart within
in wicked works rejoyce:
Or if I have delight to sin,
God will not hear my voice.
- 19 But surely God my voice hath heard,
and what I do require:
My prayer he doth well regard,
and granteth my desire.
- 20 All praise to him that hath not put
nor cast me out of minde:
Nor yet his mercie from me shut,
which I do ever finde.

Deus miseratur. Psal. lvi. 3. H.

- HAVE mercie on us, Lord,
and grant to us thy grace:
To shew to us do thou accord
the brightness of thy face:
- 2 That all the earth may know
the way to godlie wealth:
And all the nations on a row
may see thy saving health.
- 3 Let all the world, O God,
give praise unto thy name:
O let the people all abroad
extoll and laud the same.
- 4 Throughout the world so wide
let all rejoyce with mirth:
For thou with truth and right dost guide
the nations of the earth.
- 5 Let all the world, O God,
give praise unto thy name:
O let the people all abroad
extoll and laud the same.
- 6 Then shall the earth increase,
great store of fruit shall fall:
And then our God the God of peace shall bless us eke withall.
- 7 God shall us bless, I say,
and then both far and near,
The folk throughout the earth alway
of him shall stand in fear.

Exurgat Deus. Psal. lvi. T. 3.

- LET God arise, and then his foes
will turn themselves to flight:
His enemies then will run abroad,
and scatter out of sight.
- 2 And as the fire doth melt the wax,
and winde blows smoke away:
So in the presence of the Lord,
the wicked shall decay.
- 3 But righteous men before the Lord
shall heartily rejoyce:
They shall be glad and merrie all,
and chearfull in their voice.
- 4 Sing praise, sing praise unto the Lord,
who rideth on the skie:
Extoll the name of Jah our God,
and him do magnifie.

5 The same is he that is above
within his holie place,
That father is of fatherles,
and iudge of widows case.
6 Honours he gives and issue both unto the comfortles:
He bringeth bondmen out of thralld,
and rebels to distress.
7 When thou didst march before thy folk
th' Egyptians from among,
And broughtst them through the wilderness
which was both wide and long:
8 The earth did quake, the rain pour'd down;
heard were great claps of thunder;
The mount Sinai shook in such sort,
as it would break in sunder.
9 Thine heritage with drops of rain
abundantly was waht;
And if so be it barren wast,
by thee it was refresht.
10 Thy chosen flock doth there remain;
thou hast prepar'd that place:
And for the poor thou dost provide
of thine especial grace.

The second part.

11 God will give women causes just
to magnifie his name,
When as his people triumphs make,
and purchase bruit and fame.
12 For puissant kings for all their power,
shall flee and take the foil,
And women which remain at home
shall help to part the spoil.
13 And though ye were as black as pots,
your hue shall pass the dove, Whose wings and feathers seem to have silver and gold above.
14 When in this land God shall triumph
o're kings both high and low:
Then shall it be like Salmon hill,
as white as any snow.
15 Though Basan be a fruitfull hill,
and in height others pass:
Yet Zion Gods most holie hill
doth far excell in grace.
16 Why brag ye thus ye hills most high,
and leap for pride together?
The hill of Zion God doth love,
and there will dwell for ever.
17 Gods armie is two millions of warriours good and strong:
The Lord also in Sinai
is present them among.
18 Thou didst, O Lord, ascend on high,
and captives ledst them all,
Which in times past thy chosen flock
in bondage kept and thralld.
Thou mad'st them tribute for to pay:
and such as did repine
Thou didst subdue, that they might dwell
in thy temple divine.
19 Now praised be the Lord, for that he pours on us such grace:
From day to day he is the God
of our health and solace.

The third part.

20 He is the God from whom alone
salvation cometh plain:
He is the God by whom we scape
all dangers, deaths and pain.
21 Thus God will wound his enemies head,
and break the haire scalp
Of those that in their wickedness continually do walk.
22 From Basan will I bring, said he,
my people and my sheep:

And all mine own as I have done,
from dangers of the deep.
23 And make them dip their feet in blood
of those that hate my name:
And dogs shall have their tongues embred
with licking of the same.
24 All men may see how thou, O God,
thine enemies dost deface:
And how thou goest as God and King
into thine holy place.
25 The fingers go before with joy,
the minstrels follow after:
And in the midst the damfels play
with timbrel and with taber.
26 Now in the congregation,
O Israel, praise the Lord:
And Jacobs whole posteritie
give thanks with one accord.
27 Their chief was little Benjamin,
but Judah made their host,
With Zabulon and Nephthaim,
which dwell about their coast.
28 As God hath given power to thee,
so, Lord, make firm and sure
The thing that thou hast wrought in us,
for ever to endure.
29 And in thy temple gifts will we give unto thee, O Lord,
For thine unto Jerusalem
sure promise made by word.

The fourth part.

Yes, and strange kings to us subdu'd
shall do like in those days:
I mean to thee they shall present
their gifts of laud and praise.
30 He shall destroy the spear-mens ranks,
the colves and bulls of might:
And cause them tribute pay, and dunt
all such as love to fight.
31 Then shall the lords of Egypt come,
and presents with them bring:
The Moors most black shall stretch their hands
unto their Lord and King, 32 Therefore ye kingdoms of the earth,
give praise unto the Lord:
Sing psalms to God with one consent;
thereto let all accord.
33 Who though he ride and ever hath
above the heavens bright:
Yet by the fearfull thunder claps men may well know his might.
34 Therefore the strength of Israel
ascribe to God on high,
Whose might and power doth far extend
above the cloudie skie.
35 O God, thy holiness and power
is dread for evermore:
The God of Israel gives us strength,
praised be God therefore.

Salvum me fac. Psal. lxxviii. y. ff.

S Ave me, O God, and that with speed;
the waters flow full fast:
So nigh my soul do they proceed,
that I am fore agast.
2 I stick full deep in mire and clay,
wherens I feel no ground:
I fall into such floods, I say,
that I am like be drown'd.
3 With crying oft I faint and quail,
my throat is hoarse and drie;
With looking up my sight doth fail,
for help to God on high.
4 My foes that guiltles do oppress
my soul, with hate are led:
In number sure they are no less
then hairs are on my head.

5 Though for no cause they vex me sore,
they prosper and are glad :
They do compell me to reſoſe
the things I never had .
6 What I have done for want of wit,
thou, Lord, all times canſt tell :
And all the faults that I commit
to thee are known full well .
7 O God of hoſts, defend and ſlay
all thoſe that truſt in thee :
Let no man doubt or ſhrink away
for ought that chaſteth me .
8 It is for thee and for thy ſake
that I do bear this blame :
In ſpight of thee they would me make
to hide my face for ſhame .
9 My mothers ſons, my brethren all
forſake me on a row :
And as a ſtranger they me call ,
my face they will not know .
10 Into thy houſe ſuch zeal I bear ,
that it doth pine me much :
Their checks and taunts at thee to hear,
my very heart doth grutch .

The ſecond part.

11 Though I do ſiſt , my ſenſe to chaſt ,
yea , if I weep and moan :
Yet in my teeth this gear is caſt ,
they paſs not thereupon .
12 If I for grief and pain of heart
in ſackcloth uſe to walk ,
and they ſay, What doſt thou do ?
thereof they jeſt and talk .
13 Both high and low, and all the throng
that ſit within the gate,
They have me ever in their tongue ,
of me they talk and prate .
14 The drunkards which in wine delight,
it is their chief paſtime
To ſeck which way to work me ſpight ;
of me they ſing and rhyme .
15 But thee the while , O Lord, I pray,
that when it pleaſeth thee,
For thy great truth thou wilt alway
ſend down thy aid to me .
16 Pluck thou my feet out of the mire,
from drowning do me keep :
From ſuch as ow me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deep .
17 Left with the waves I ſhould be drown'd,
and depth my ſoul devour,
And that the pit ſhould me confound,
and ſhut me in her power .
18 O Lord of hoſts to me give ear,
as thou art good and kinde :
And as thy mercie is moſt dear,
Lord, have me in thy minde .
19 And do not from thy ſervant hide
nor turn thy face away :
I am oppreſt on every ſide,
in haſte give ear, I ſay .
20 O Lord, unto my ſoul draw nigh,
the ſame with aid reſoſe :
Because of their great tyrannie,
acquie me from my foes .

The third part.

21 That I abide rebuke and ſhame
thou knowſt and thou canſt tell :
For thoſe that ſeck and work the ſame,
thou ſeaſt them all full well .
22 When they with brags do break my heart
I ſeck for help anon :
But finde no friends to eaſe my ſmart,
to comfort me not one .
23 But in my meat they gave me gall,
too cruel for to think :

And gave me in my thieft withall
ſtrong vinegar to drink .
24 Lord, turn their table to a ſnare,
to take themſelves therein :
And when they think full well to ſcare,
then trap them in the gin .
25 And let their eyes be dark and blinde,
that they may nothing ſee :
Bow down their backs, and do them blinde,
in thraldome for to be .
26 Pour out thy wrath as hot as fire,
that it on them may fall :
Let thy diſpleaſure in thine ire
take hold upon them all .
27 As deſerts drie their houſe diſguſt,
their off-ſpring the ſerpent :
That none thereof poſſeſs their place,
nor in their tents do dwell .
28 If thou doſt ſtrike the man to tyme,
on him they lay full ſore :
And if that thou do wound the ſame,
they ſeek to hurt him more .
29 Then let them heap up miſchief ſtilh
(ſith they are all pervert)
That of thy favour and good will they never have a part .
30 And raſe them clean out of thy book
of life, of hope, of truſt :
That for their names they never look
in number of the juſt .

The fourth part.

31 Though I, O Lord, with we and grief
have been full ſore oppreſt :
Thy help ſhall give me ſuch relief,
that all ſhall be redreſt .
32 That I may give thy name the praiſe,
and ſhew it with a ſong :
I will extoll the ſame alway
with heartie thanks among .
33 Which is more pleaſant unto thee
(ſuch minde thy grace hath born)
Then either ox or calf can be,
that hath both hoof and horn .
34 When ſimple folk do this behold,
it ſhall rejoyce them ſure :
All ye that ſeck the Lord, behold,
your life for aye ſhall dure .
35 For why ? the Lord of hoſts doth hear
the poor when they complain :
His praiſe they ſhall declare and ſhow,
with all that live in them .
36 Wherefore the ſkie and earth below,
the ſea with flood and ſtreame :
His praiſe they ſhall declare and ſhow,
with all that live in them .
37 For ſure our God will Sion ſave,
and Juda's cities build :
Much folk poſſeſſion there ſhall have,
her ſtreets ſhall all be fill'd .
38 His ſervants ſeed ſhall keep the ſame
all ages out of minde :
39 And there all they that love his name ,
a dwelling-place ſhall finde .

Psalm in alijutorium. Pſl. lxx. 3. R.

O God, to me take heed,
of help I thee require :
O Lord of hoſts, with haſte and ſpeed
help, help, I thee deſire .
2 With ſhame confound them all that ſeck my ſoul to ſpill :
Rebuke them back with blame to fall,
that think and wiſh me ill .
3 Confound them that applie
and ſeck to work me ſhame :
And at my harm do laugh, and crye,
ſo, ſo, thou goes the game .

But let them joyfull be
in thee with joy and wealth,
which onely trust and fees to thee,
and to thy ſaving health.

That they may ſay always
in mirth and one accord,
all glorie, honour, laud and praiſe
be given to thee, O Lord.
But I am weak and poor;
come, Lord, thine aid I lack;
thou art my ſtay and help, therefore
make ſpeed and be not ſlack.

In it, Domine. Pſal. lxxi. 3. H.

MY Lord my God in all diſtreſs
my hope is whole in thee:
Then let no ſhame my ſoul oppreſs,
nor once take hold on me.
As thou art juſt, defend me Lord,
and rid me out of dread:
Give ear, and to my ſuit accord,
and ſend me help at need.
Be thou my rock, to whom I may
for aid all times reſort:
Thy promiſe is to help always,
thou art my fence and fort.
Save me, my Gods from wicked men,
and from their ſtrength and power:
from folk unjuſt and eke from them
that cruelly devour.
Thou art the ſtay wherein I truſt,
thou, Lord of hoſts, art he:
Yea, from my youth I had a juſt
ſtill to depend on thee.
Thou haſt me kept ev'n from my birth,
and I through thee was born:
Wherefore I will thee praiſe with mirth,
both evening and at morn,

As to a monſter ſeldome ſeen,
much folk about me throng:
But thou art now, and ſtill haſt been
my fence and aid ſo ſtrong.
Wherefore my mouth no time ſhall lack
thy glorie and thy praiſe:
And eke my tongue ſhall not be ſlack
to honour thee always.

Reſuſe me not, O Lord, I ſay,
when age my limbs doth take:
And when my ſtrength doth waſte away,
do not my ſoul forſake.
Among themſelves my foes enquire
to take me through deceit:
And they againſt me do conſpire
that for my ſoul laid wait.

The ſecond part.

Lay hand and take him now, they ſaid,
for God from him is gone:
Diſpatch him quite, for to his aid
(I wis) there cometh none.
Do not abſent thy ſelf away,
O Lord, when need ſhall be:
But that in time of grief thou may in haſte give help to me.
With ſhame confound and overthrow
all thoſe that ſeek my life:
Oppreſs them with rebuke alſo
that faint would work me ſtrife.
But I will patiently abide thy help at all affairs:
Still more and more, each time and tide,
I will ſet forth thy praiſe.

My mouth thy juſtice ſhall records
that daily help doth ſend:
But of thy benefits, O Lord,
I know no count nor end.
Yet will I go and ſeek forth one,
with thy good help, O God:
The ſaving health of thee alone
to ſhew and ſet abroad.

For of my youth thou tookſt the care,
and doſt inſtruct me ſtill:
Therefore thy wonders to declare
I have great minde and will:
And as in youth from wanton rage
thou didſt me keep and ſtay:
Forſake me not unto mine age,
and till my head be gray.

The third part.

That I thy ſtrength and might may ſhow
to them that now be here:
And that our ſeed thy power may know
hereafter many a year.
O Lord, thy juſtice doth exceed
thy doings all may ſee:
Thy works are wonderfull indeed,
oh who is like to thee!
Thou mad'ſt me feel affliction ſore,
and yet thou didſt me give:
Yea, thou didſt help and me reſtore,
and tookſt me from the grave.
And thou mine honour doſt increaſe,
my dignitie maintain:
Yea, thou doſt make all grief to ceaſe,
and comfortſt me again.
Therefore thy faithfullneſs to praiſe
I will with viol ſing:
My harp ſhall ſound thy praiſe always,
O Iſraels holy King.
My mouth will joy with pleaſant voice
when I ſhall ſing to thee:
And eke my ſoul will much rejoyce,
for thou haſt made me free.
My tongue thy uprightneſs ſhall ſound
and ſpeak it daily ſtill:
For grief and ſhame do them confound
that ſeek to work me ill.

Deus judicium. Pſal. lxxii. 3. M.

LOrd, give thy judgements to the king,
therein inſtruct him well:
And with his ſon that princely things
Lord, let thy juſtice dwell.
That he may govern uprightly,
and rule thy folk aright:
And ſo defend through equitie
the poor that have no might.
And let the mountains that are high
unto thy folk give peace:
And eke let little hills apply
in juſtice to increaſe.
That he may help the weak and poor,
with aid and make them ſtrong:
And eke deſtroy for evermore
all thoſe that do them wrong.
And then from age to age ſhall they regard and fear thy might:
So long as ſun doth ſhine by day,
or eke the moon by night.
Lord make the king unto the juſt
like rain to fields new mown:
And like to drops that by the duſt,
and freſh the land new ſown.
The juſt ſhall flouriſh in his time,
and all ſhall be at peace,

Untill the moon shall leave to prime,
 waste, change, and to increase,
 He shall be lord of sea and land,
 from shore to shore throughout
 And from the floods within the land,
 through all the earth about.
 The people that in deserts dwell
 shall kneel to him full thick:
 And all his enemies that rebell
 the earth and dust shall lick.
 The lords of all the isles thereby great gifts to him shall bring:
 The kings of Saba and Arabia
 give many a costly thing.

The second part.

11 All kings shall seek with one accord
 in his good grace to stand:
 And all the people of the world
 shall serve him at his hand.
 12 For he the needie sort doth save
 that unto him do call:
 And eke the simple folk that have no help of man at all.
 13 He taketh pittie on the poor
 that are with need oppress:
 He doth preserve them evermore,
 and bring their souls to rest.
 14 He shall redeem their lives from dread,
 from fraud, from wrong, from might:
 And eke the blood that they shall bleed
 is precious in his sight.
 15 But he shall live, and they shall bring to him of Saba's gold:
 He shall be honoured as a king
 and daily be extol'd.
 16 The mightie mountains of his land
 of corn shall bear such throng,
 That it like cedar trees shall stand
 in Libanus full long.
 17 Their cities eke full well shall speed,
 the fruits thereof shall pass:
 In plentie it shall far exceed,
 and spring as green as grass.
 18 For ever they shall praise his name
 while that the sun is light:
 And think them happy through the same,
 all folk shall blese his might.
 19 Praise ye the Lord of hosts, and sing
 to Israels God each one:
 For he doth every wondrous thing,
 yea he himself alone.
 20 And blessed be his holy name
 all times eternally:
 That all the earth may praise the same,
 amens, amens, say I.

Quam bonus Deus. Psal. lxxiii. T. 3.

How ever it be, yet God is good and kinde to Israel:
 And to all such as safely keep their conscience pure and well.
 2 Yet like a fool I almost slept,
 my feet began to slide:
 And ere I wist, even at a pinch,
 my steps away gan glide.
 3 For when I saw such foolish men,
 I grudg'd and did disdain:
 That wicked men all things should have without turmoill or pain.
 4 They never suffer pangs nor grief,
 as if death should them smite:
 Their bodies are both stout and strong,
 and ever in good plight.
 5 And free from all adversitie
 when other men be ment:
 And with the rest they take no part of plague or punishment.

Psalm lxxiii.

6 Therefore presumption doth embrace their necks as doth a chain:
 And are even wrapt as in a robe,
 with rapine and disdain.
 7 They are so fed that even for fat
 their eyes oft-times out-start:
 And as for worldly goods, they have more then can with their heart.
 8 Their life is most licentious,
 boasting much of the wrong
 Which they have doneto simple men,
 and ever pride among.
 9 The heavens and the living Lord
 they spare not to blasphem:
 And prateth they do of worldly things,
 no wight they do esteem.
 10 The people of God oft-times turn back to see their prosperous state:
 And almost drink the selfsame cups,
 and follow the same rate.

The second part.

11 How can it be that God, say they,
 should know or understand These worldly things, with wicked men
 be lords of sea and land?
 12 For we may see how wicked men
 in riches still increase,
 Rewarded well with worldly goods,
 and live in rest and peace.
 13 Then why do I from wickedness
 my fastie refrain,
 And wash my hands with innocents,
 and cleanse my heart in vain?
 14 And suffer scourges every day,
 as subject to all blame:
 And every morning from my youth
 sustain rebuke and shame?
 15 And I had almost said as they,
 mistaking mine estate:
 But that I should thy children judge
 as folke unfortunate.
 16 Then I bethought me how I might
 this matter understand:
 But yet the labour was too great
 for me to take in hand.
 17 Untill the time I went into thine holy place, and then I understood right perfectly
 the end of all these men, 18 And namely, how thou settest them
 upon a slippery place:
 And at thy pleasure and thy will thou dost them all deface.
 19 Then all men muse at that strange sight,
 to see how suddenly
 They are destroy'd, dispatcht, consum'd,
 and dead so horribly.
 20 Much like a dream when one awakes,
 so shall their wealth decay:
 Their famous names in all mens sight
 shall ebb and pass away.

The third part.

21 Yet thus my heart was grieved then
 my minde was much oppress:
 22 So fond was I and ignorant,
 and in this point a beast.
 23 Yet nevertheless by my right hand
 thou hold'st me always fast:
 24 And with thy counsell dost me guide
 to glory at the last.
 25 What thing is there that I can wish
 but thee in heaven above?
 And in the earth there is nothing
 like thee that I can love.
 26 My flesh and eke my heart doth fail,
 but God doth fall me never:

For of my health God is the strength,
my portion eke for ever.

- 27 And lo, all such as thee forsake
thou shalt destroy each one:
And those that trust in any thing
saying in thee alone.
28 Therefore will I draw near to God,
and ever with him dwell:
In God alone I put my trust;
thy wonders I will tell.

Ut quid, Deus. Psal. lxxiv. J. H.

Why art thou, Lord, so long from us
in all this danger deep?
Why doth thine anger kindle thus
at thine own pasture sheep?

2 Lord, call thy people to thy thought
which have been thine so long,
The which thou hast redeem'd and brought from bondage sore and strong.

3 Have minde therefore and think upon,
remember it full well,
Thy pleasant place, thy mount Sion,
where thou wast wont to dwell.

4 Lift up thy feet and come in haste,
and all thy foes deface:
Which now at pleasure rob and waste
within thy holy place.

5 Amid thy congregations all,
thine enemies roar, O God:
They set as signes on every wall
their banners spiald abroad.

6 As men with axes hew down trees
that on the hills do grow:
So shine the bills and swords of these within thy temple now.

7 The cieling saw'd, the carved boards,
the goodly graven stones,
With axes, hammers, bills, and swords
they beat them down at once.

8 Thy places they consume with flame,
and eke in all this toil,
The house appointed to thy name
they rase down to the soil.

9 And thus they say within their heart,
Dispatch them out of hand:
Then burnt they up in every part
Gods houses through the land.

10 Yet thou no signe of help dost send,
our prophets all are gone:
To tell when this our plague shall end
among us there is none.

11 When wilt thou, Lord, once end this shame
and cease thine enemies strong?
Shall they always blaspheme thy name,
and rail on thee so long?

12 Why dost thou draw thy hand aback,
and hide it in thy lap?
Oh pluckt it out, and be not slack
so give thy foes a rap.

The second part.

13 O God, thou art our King and Lord,
and evermore it been:
Yea, thy good grace throughout the world
for our good help hath seen.

14 The seas that are so deep and dead,
thy might did make them drie:
And thou didst break the serpents head,
that he therein did die:

15 Yea, thou didst break the heads so great
of whales that are so fell:
And gav'st them to the folk to eat
that in the deserts dwell.

16 Thou mad'st a spring with streams to rise
from rock both hard and high:
And eke thy hand hath made likewise
deep riyens to be drie.

17 Both day and eke the night are thine
by thee they were begun:
Thou sett'st it to serve us with their shine,
the light, and eke the sun.

18 Thou didst appoint the ends and coasts
of all the earth about:
Both summer heats, and winter frosts,
thy hand hath found them out.

19 Think on, O Lord, no time forget
thy foes that thee defame:
And how the foolish folk are set
to rail upon thy name.

20 O let no cruel beast devour
thy trulle that is true:
Forget not always in thy power
the poor that much do rue.

21 Regard thy covenant and behold
thy foes possess the land:
All sad and dark, forsworn and old
our realm as now doth stand.

22 Let not the simple go away,
nor yet return with shame:
But let the poor and needie say
give praise unto thy name.

23 Rise, Lord, let be by thee maintain'd
the cause that is thine own:
Remember how that thou blasphem'd
art by the foolish one.

24 The voice forget not of thy foes,
for the presumption high
Is more and more increas'd of those that hate thee spitefully.

Confitebitur tibi. Psal. lxxv. J. H.

Vnto thee, God, will we give thanks,
we will give thanks to thee:
Sith thy name is so near, declare thy wondrous works we will we.

2 I will uprightly ludge when get convenient time I may:
The earth is weak and all therein,
but I her pillars stay.

3 I did to the mad people say,
deal not so furiously:
And unto the ungodly ones,
set not your horns on high.

4 I said unto them, Set not up your risid horns on high:
And see that you do with stiff neck
not speak presumptuously.

5 For neither from the eastern parts,
nor from the western side,
Nor from forsaken wilderness,
promotion doth proceed.

6 For why? the Lord our God he is the righteous ludge alone:
He putteth down the ones, and sets
another in the throne.

7 For why? a cup of mightie wine
is in the hand of God:
And all the mightie wine therein
blissful doth pour abroad.

8 As for the lees and filthie dregs that do remain of it,
The wicked of the earth shall drink
and suck them every whit.

9 But I will talk of God, I say,
of Jacobs God therefore:
And will not cease to celebrate his praise for evermore.

10 In under break the horns of all ungodly men will I:
But then the horns of righteous men
shall be exalted high.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son, and holy Ghost,
all glorie be therefore,

As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

In Judas. Psal. lxxvi. J.H.

TO all that now in Jewry dwell
the Lord is clearly known :
His name is great in Israel :
a people of his own.

2 At Salem he his tents hath pight,
to tarry there a space :
In Sion eke he hath delight
to make his dwelling-place.

3 And there he brake both shaft and bowe,
the sword, the spear, and shield :
And brake the ray to overthrow
in battel on the field.

4 Thou art more worthy honour, Lords,
more might in thee doth lie,
Then in the strongest of the world,
that reb on mountaints high.

5 But now the proud are spoild through thee
and they are fallen on sleep :
Through men of war no help can be,
themselves they could not keep.

6 At thy rebuke, O Jacobs God,
when thou didst them reprove :
As holf on sleep their chariots stood,
no horse-men once did move.

7 For thou art dreadful, Lord, indeed,
what man the courage hath
To bide thy sight, and doth not dread
when thou art in thy wrath ?

8 When thou dost make thy judgements heard from heaven through the ground :
Then all the earth full sore afraid
in silence shall be found.

9 And that when thou, O God, dost stand
in judgements for to speak,
To save the afflicted of the land,
on earth that are full weak.

10 The fury that in man doth reign
shall turn unto thy praise :
Hereafter, Lord, do thou restrain their wrath and threats always.

11 Make vows and pay them to our God,
ye folk that nigh him be :
Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadful sure is he.

12 For he doth take both life and might
from princes great of birth :
And full of terror is his sight
to all the kings on earth.

Vox mea. Psal. lxxvii. J.H.

I With my voice to God do crie,
with heart and hearty cheer :
My voice to God I lift on high,
and he my suit doth hear.

2 In time of grief I fought to God,
by night no rest I took :
But stretcht my hands to him abroad,
my soul comfort forsook.

3 When I to think on God intende,
my trouble then is more :
I spake, but could not make an end
my breath was stoppt so sore.

4 Thou holdst mine eyes always from rest,
that I alway awake :
With fear I am so sore oppress,
my speech doth me forsake.

5 The days of old in minde I cast,
and oft did thinke upon
The times and ages that are past
full many years ago.

6 By night my songs I call to minde,
once made thy praise to show :
And with my heart much talk I finde
my spirit doth search to know.

7 Wilt thou, O God, sayd that once for all,
call off his people thus,
So that henceforth no time he shall be friendly unto us ?
8 What ? is his goodness cleane decay'd
for ever and a day ?
Or is his promise now decay'd
and doth his truth decay ?

9 And will the Lord our God forge
his mercies manifold ?
Or shall his wrath increase so hot,
his mercies to withhold ?

10 At last I said, My weakness is the cause of this mistrust :
Gods mighty hand can help all thine
and change it when he lust.

The second part.

11 I will regard and thinke upon
the working of the Lord :
Of all his wonders past and gone
I gladly will record.

12 Ye call his works I will declare,
and what he did devise :
To tell his facts I will not spare,
and eke his counsel wise.

13 Thy works, O Lord, are all upright,
and holy all abroad :
What one hath strength to match the might
of thee, O Lord our God ?

14 Thou art a God that dost forth shew
thy wonders every hour :
And so dost make the people know
thy virtue and thy power.

15 And thine own folk thou dost defend with strength and stretched arm :
The sons of Jacob that descends,
and Josephs seed from harm.

16 The waters, Lord, perceived thee,
the waters saw thee well :
And they for fear away did flee,
the depths on trembling fell.

17 The clouds that were both thick and black
did rin full plentifully :
The thunder in the air did crack,
thy shafts abroad did flie.

18 Thy thunder in the air was heard,
thy lightnings from above
With flashes great made men afraid,
the earth did quake, and move.

19 Thy ways within the sea do lie,
thy paths in waters deep :
Yet none can there thy steps espie,
nor know thy paths to keep.

20 Thou ledst thy folk upon the land
as sheep on every side :
Through Moses and through Aarons hand
thou didst them safely guide.

Attendite populi. Psal. lxxviii. J.H.

Attend my people to my law,
and to my words incline :
2 My mouth shall speak strange parables,
and sentences divine :

3 Which we our selves have heard & learn'd,
even of our fathers old :
And which for our instruction
our fathers have us told.

4 Because we should not keep it close from them that should come after :
Who should Gods power to their race praise
and all his works of wonder.

5 To Jacob he commandment gave
how Israel should live, Willing our fathers should the same
unto their children give.

6 That they and their posterity
that were not sprung up tho,

Shew'd

Should have the knowledge of the law,
and teach their seed also.
7 That they might have the better hope
in God that is above:
And not forget to keep his laws
and his precepts in love.
9 Not being as their fathers were,
rebellin in Gods sight:
And would not frame their wicked hearts
to know their God might.
9 How went the people of Ephraim their neighbours for to spoil:
Shooting their darts the day of war,
and yet they took the spoil?
10 For why? they did not keep with God
the covenant that was made,
Nor yet would walk or lead their lives
according to his trade:
11 But put into oblivion
his counsel and his will,
And all his works most magnifick,
which he declared still.

The second part.

12 What wonders to our fore-fathers
did he himself disclose
In Egypt land within the field
that call'd is Thaneos?
13 He did divide and cut the sea,
that they might pass at once:
And made the waters stand as still
as doth an heap of stones.
14 He led them secret in a cloud
by day when it was bright:
And in the night when dark it was,
with fire he gave them light.
15 He brake the rocks in wilderness,
and gave the people drink:
As plentiful as when the deers
do flow up to the brink.
16 He drew out rivers out of rocks
that were both dry and hard,
Of such abundance, that no floods
to them may be compar'd.
17 Yet for all this against the Lord
their sin they did increase:
And stirred him that is most high
to wrath in wilderness.
18 They tempted God within their hearts,
like people of mistrust:
Requiring such a kinde of meat
as served to their lust:
19 Saying with murmuration
in their unfaithfulness,
What? can this God prepare for us
a feast in wilderness?
20 Behold he strake the stony rock,
and floods forthwith did flow:
But can he now give to his folk
both bread and flesh also?
21 When God heard this, he waxed wroth
with Jacob and his seed:
So did his indignation
on Israel proceed.

The third part.

22 Because they did not faithfully believe, and hope that he Could always help and succour them
in their necessity:
23 Wherefore he did command the clouds,
forthwith they brake in thunder, 24 And rain'd down manna for them to eat,
a food of mickle wonder.
25 When earthly men with angels food
were fed at their request.
26 He had the east-winde blow away,
and brought in the south-west.

27 He rain'd down flesh as thick as dough,
and fowl as thick as sand.
28 Which he did cast amid the place
where all their tents did stand.
29 Then did they eat exceedingly,
and all men had their fills:
Yet more and more they did desire
to serve their lusts and wills.
30 But as the meat was in their mouthes,
his wrath upon them fell,
31 And slew the flower of all their youth
and choise of Israel.
32 Yet fell they to their wonted sin,
and still they did him grieve:
For all the wonders that he wrought,
they would him not beleve.
33 Their days therefore he shortened,
and made their honour vain:
Their years did waste and pass away
with terror and with pain.
34 But ever when he plagued them,
they sought him by and by,
35 Remembering that he was their strength,
their help and God most high.
36 Though in their mouthes they did but glory,
and flatter with the Lord:
And with their tongues and in their hearts,
dissembled every word.

The fourth part.

37 For why? their hearts were nothing bent
to him nor to his trade:
Nor yet to keep or to perform
the covenant that was made.
38 Yet was he still so mercifull,
when they deserv'd to die,
That he forgave them their misdeeds,
and would not them destroy.
Yes, many a time he turn'd his wrath,
and did himself advise:
And would not suffer all his whole displeasure to arise.
39 Considering that they were but flesh,
and even as a winde
That passeth away and cannot well
return by his own kinde.
40 How oftentimes in wilderness
did they the Lord provoke!
How did they move and stir the Lord
to plague them with his stroke?
41 Yet did they turn again to sin,
and tempted God oftsoon, Prescribing to the holy Lord
what things they would have done.
42 Not thinking of his hand and power,
nor of the day when he Delivered them out of the hands
of their fierce enemy.
43 Nor how he wrought his miracles
(as they themselves beheld)
In Egypt, and the wonders that he did in Zoan field.
44 Nor how he turned by his power
their waters into blood:
That no man might receive his drink
at river nor at flood.
45 Nor how he sent them swarms of flies,
which did them sore annoy:
And fill'd their country full of frogs,
which did their land destroy.

The fifth part.

46 Nor how he did commit their fruits
unto the caterpillar:
And all the labour of their hands
he gave to the grasshopper.
47 With hailstones he destroy'd their vines,
so that they were all lost:

And

And not so much as wilde fig-trees ;
but he consum'd with frost.

48 And yet with hailstones once again
the Lord their cattel smote :
And all their flocks and herds likewise
with thunder-bolts full hot.

49 He cast upon them in his ire
and in his furie strong ,
Displeasure, wrath, and evil spirits ,
to trouble them among.

50 Then to his wrath he made a way ,
and spared not the least :

But gave unto the pestilence
the man and eke the beast.

51 He strake also the first-born all that up in Egypt came ;
And all the chief of men and beasts
within the tents of Ham.

52 But as for all his own dear folk ,
he did preserve and keep :
And carried them through wilderness;
even like a flock of sheep.

53 Without all fear both safe and sound
he brought them out of thrall :
Where as their foes with rage of seas
were overwhelmed all.

54 And brought them out into the coasts
of his own holy land, Even to the mount which he had got
by his strong arm and hand.

55 And there cast out the heathen folk ,
and did their land divide :
And in their tents he set the tribes
of Israel to abide.

56 Yet for all this, their God most high they stirr'd and tempted still.
And would not keep his testament ,
not yet obey his will.

57 But as their fathers turned back,
even so they went astray ,
Much like a bowe that would not bend,
but slip and flint away.

The sixth part.

58 And griev'd him with their kill-altars ,
with offerings and with fire :
And with their idols vehemently
provoked him to ire.

59 Therewith his wrath began again
to kindle in his brest :
The naughtiness of Israel
he did so much detest.

60 Then he forsook the tabernacle of Silo, where he was Right conversant with earthly men ,
even as his dwelling-place.

61 Then suffered he his might and power
in bondage for to stand,
And gave the honour of his ark
into his enemies hand.

62 And did commit them to the sword ,
wroth with his heritage :

63 Their young men were devour'd with fire,
maide had no marriage.

64 And with the sword the priests also did perish ev'ry one :
And not a widow left alive
their death for to bemoan.

65 And then the Lord began to wake
like one that slept a time,
And like a valiant man of war
refreshed after wine.

66 With emerods in the hinder parts
he strake his enemies all :
And put them then unto a shame
that was perpetual.

67 Then he the tent and tabernacle
of Joseph did refuse:

As for the tribe of Ephraim,

he would in no wise chuse:
68 But chose the tribe of Jehuda
whereas he thought to dwell:
Even the noble mount Sion,
which he did love so well.

69 Whereas he did his temple build both sumptuously and sure ,
Like as the earth which he hath made
for ever to endure :

70 Then chose he David him to serve,
his people for to keep ;
Whom he took up and brought away
even from the folds of sheep.

71 As he did follow th' ewes with young ,
the Lord did him advance ,
To feed his people Israel ,
and his inheritance.

72 Thus David with a faithfull heart
his flock and charge did feed ,
And prudently with all his power
did govern them indeed.

Deus, venerunt. Psal. lxxix. J. H.

O God, the Gentiles do invade thine heritage to spoil :
Jerusalem an heap is made,
thy temple they desile.

2 The bodies of thy saints most dear
abroad to birds they cast :
The flesh of them that do thee fear
the beasts devour and waste.

3 Their blood throughout Jerusalem
as waterspitt they have :
So that there is not one of them ,
to lay their dead in grave.

4 Thus are we made a laughing stock
almost the world throughout :
The enemies at us jest and mock which dwell our coasts about.

5 Wilt thou, O Lord, thus in thine ire
against us ever fume,
And shew thy wrath as hot as fire,
thy folk for to consume ?

6 Upon those people pour the same which did thee never know :
All realms which call not on thy name
consume and overthrow.

7 For they have got the upper hand ,
and Jacobs seed destroy d :
His habitation and his land
they have left waste, and void.

8 Bear not in minde our former faults,
with speed some pittie show :
And aid us, Lord, in all our needs,
for we are weak and low.

The second part.

9 O God, that giv'st all health and grace ,
on us declare the same :
Weigh not our works, our sins deface
for honour of thy name.

10 Why shall the wicked still alway,
to us as people dumb,
In thy reproach rejoyce, and say,
Where is their God become ?

Require, O Lord, as thou see'st good,
before our eyes in sight,
Of all these folk thy servants bloud
which they spilt in despite.

11 Receive into thy sight in haste
the clamours, grief, and wrong
Of such as are in prison call,
sustaining irons strong.

Thy force and strength to celebrate,
Lord, set them out of hand

Whith

Which unto death are destinate,
and in their enemies hand 12 The nations which have been so bold
as to blaspheme thy name:
Into their lips with seven fold
repay again the same.
13 So we thy flock and pasture sheep
will praise thee evermore,
And teach all ages for to keep
for thee like praise in store.

Qui regis Israel. Psal. lxxxviii. J. H.

THou Herd that Israel dost keep,
give ear and take good heed:
Which leadest Joseph like a sheep,
and dost him watch and feed.
2 Thou, Lord, I say, whose seat is set
on cherubims most bright, Shew forth thy self and do not let,
send down thy beams of light.
3 Before Ephraim and Benjamin,
Manasse eke likewise,
To shew thy power do thou begin
come help us, Lord, arise.
4 Direct our hearts unto thy grace,
convert us, Lord, to thee:
Shew us the brightness of thy faces,
and then full safe are we.
5 Lord God of hosts of Israel,
how long wilt thou, (I say) Against thy folk in anger swell,
and wilt not hear them pray?
6 Thou dost them feed with sorrows deep
their bread with tears they eat,
And drink the tears that they do weep,
in measure full and great.
7 Thou hast us made a very strife
to those that dwell about:
And that our foes do love a life,
they laugh and jest it out.
8 O take us, Lord unto thy grace,
convert our hearts to thee:
Shew forth to us thy joyfull face,
and we full safe shall be.
9 From Egypt where it grew not well
thou broughtst a vine full dear:
The heathen folk thou didst expell,
and thou didst plant it there.
10 Thou didst prepare for it a place,
and set her roots full fast:
That it did grow and spring apace,
and fill'd the land at last:

The second part.

11 The hills were covered round about with shade, that from it came,
And eke the cedars strong and stout,
with branches of the same.
12 Why then didst thou her walls destroy?
her hedge pluckt up thou hast:
That all the folk that pass thereby thy vine may spoil and waste.
13 The bear out of the wood so wilde
doth dig and root it out:
The furious beasts out of the field
devour it all about.
14 O Lord of hosts, return again,
from heav'n look betime:
Behold, and with thy help sustain
this poor vineyard of thine.
15 Thy plant, I say, thine Israel,
whom thy right hand hath set:
The same which thou didst love so well,
O Lord, do not forget.
16 They lop and cut it down apace,
they burn it eke with fire:

And through the frowning of thy face
we perish in thine ire.

17 Let thy right hand be with them now
whom thou hast kept so long:
And with the son of man whom thou
to thee hast made so strong.
18 And so when thou hast set us free,
and saved us from shame:
Then will we never fall from thee,
but call upon thy name.
19 O Lord of hosts, through thy good grace
convert us unto thee:
Behold us with a pleasant face,
and then full safe are we.

Deo exultate. Psal. lxxxviii. J. H.

Light and glad, in God rejoyce,
which is our strength and stay:
Be joyfull and lift up your voice
to Jacobs God, I say.
2 Prepare your instruments most meet,
some joyfull psalm to sing:
Strike up with harp and lute so sweet,
on every pleasant string.
3 Blow as it were in the new moon,
with trumpets of the best:
As it is used to be done
at any solemn feast.
4 For this is unto Israel
a statute and a trade:
A law that must be kept full well,
which Jacobs God hath made.
5 This clause with Joseph was decreed
when he from Egypt came,
That as a witness all his seed
should still observe the same.
6 When God, I say, had so prepared to bring him from that land:
Whereas the speech which he had heard
he did not understand.
7 I from his shoulders took (saith he)
the burden clean away:
And from the furnace quit him free,
from burning brick of clay.
8 When thou in grief didst cry and call,
I help thee by and by:
And I did answer thee withall
in thunder secretly.
9 Vea at the waters of discord
I did thee tempt and prove:
Whereas the goodness of the Lord
with murthering thou didst move.
10 Hear, O my folk, O Israel,
and I assure it thee:
Regard, and mark my words full well,
if thou wilt cleave to me.

The second part.

11 Thou shalt no god in thee reserve
of any land abroad:
Nor in no wife to bow or serve
a strange or foreign god.
12 I am the Lord thy God, and I
from Egypt set thee free:
Then ask of me abundantly,
and I will give it thee.
13 And yet my people would not hear
my voice when that I spake:
Nor Israel would not obey,
but did me quite forsake.
14 Then did I leave them to their will,
in hardness of their heart:
To walk in their own counsels still,
themselves they might pervert.
15 O that my people would have heard
the words that I did say:

And eke that Israel would regard
to walk within my way !
16 How soon would I confound their foes
and bring them down full low :
And turn my hand upon all those
that would them overthrow !
17 And they that at the Lord do rage ,
as slaves should seek him till :
But of his folk the time and age
shall flourish ever still .
18 I would have fed them with the crop
and finest of the wheat :
And made the rock with honey drop ,
that they their fill should eat .

Dixit Dominus. Psal. lxxii. 3. H.

AMid the preas with men of might
the Lord himself doth stand,
To plead the cause of truth and right
with judges of the land.
2 How long (said he) will you proceed
false judgement to award,
And have respect for love of meed
the wicked to regard ?
3 Whereas of due you should defend
the fatherless and weak,
And when the poor man doth contend,
in judgement justly speak,
4 If ye be wise defend the cause
of poor men in their right :
And rid the needy from the claws
of tyrants force and might.
5 But nothing will they know or learn,
in vain to them I talk :
They will not see or ought discern,
but still in darkness walk.
6 For lo, even now the time is come
that all things fall to nought :
And likewise laws both all and some
for gain are sold and bought.
I had decreed it in my fight
as gods to take you all :
And children to the men of might
for love I did you call.
7 But notwithstanding ye shall die
as men, and so decay :
O tyrants, I shall you destroy,
and pluck you quite away.
8 Up, Lord, and let thy strength be known,
and judge the world with might :
For why all nations are thine own,
to take them as thy right.

Dixit Dominus. Psal. lxxiii.

DO not, O God, refrain thy tongue,
in silence do not stay :
Withhold not, Lord, thy self so long,
and make no more delay.
2 For why ? behold thy foes, and see how they do rage and cry :
And those that bear an hate to thee
hold up their heads on high.
3 Against thy folk they use deceit,
and craftily they enquire :
For thine elect to lie in wait
their counsel doth conspire.
4 Come on, say they, let us expell
and pluck these folk away :
So that the name of Israel
may utterly decay.
5 They all conspire within their heart,
how they may thee withstand :
Against the Lord to take a part
they are in league and band.
6 The tents of all the Edomites,
the Ishmaelites also :

The Magarenes and Mesabites;
with divers other men.

7 Gebal with Ammon, and likewise
doth Amalek conspire :
The Philistines against thee rise,
with them that dwell at Tyre.
8 And Asur eke is well appaid with them in league to be :
And doth become a fence and aid
to Lets posterity.
9 As thou didst to the Midianites,
to serve them, Lord, each one :
As to Siser, and to Jabin,
beside the brook Kifon.
10 Whom thou in Endor didst destroy :
and waste them through thy might :
That they like dung on earth did lie,
and that in open fight.

The second part.

11 Make them now and their lords appear like Zeb and Oreb than :
As Zebah and Zalmuna were
the kings of Midian.
12 Which said, Let us throughout
in all the coasts abroad, Possess and take into our hand
the fair houses of God.
13 Turn them, O God, with storms as fast
as wheels that have no stay :
Or like the chaff, which men do cast
with winds to flie away.
14 Like as the fire with rage and fume
the mightie sorcerers spills :
And as the flame doth quite consume
the mountains and the hills :
15 So let the tempest of thy wrath
upon their necks be laid :
And of thy stormy winde and showre,
Lord, make them all afraid.
16 Lord, bring them all, I thee desire,
to such rebuke and shame,
That it may cause them to enquire,
and learn to seek thy name.
17 And let them evermore daily
to shame and slander fall :
And in rebuke and obloquie
to perish eke withall.
18 That they may know and feel full well
that thou art called Lord :
And that alone thou dost excell,
and reign throughout the world.

Quam dilecta. Psal. lxxiv. 9. H.

How pleasant is thy dwelling place,
O Lord of hosts to me !
The tabernacles of thy grace
how pleasant, Lord, they be !
2 My soul doth long full fore to go into thy courts abroad :
My heart doth lust, my flesh also,
in thee the living God.
3 The sparrows finde a room to rest,
and save themselves from wrong,
And eke the swallow hath a nest
wherein to keep her young.
4 These birds full nigh thine altar may have place to sit and sing :
O Lord of hosts, thou art, I say,
my God and eke my King.
5 O they be blessed that may dwell
within thy house always :
For they all times thy facts do tell,
and ever give thee praise.
6 Yea, happie sure likewise are they whose day and strength thou art :

Which

Which to thy house do minde the way,
and seek it in their heart.

As they go through the vale of tears,
they dig up fountains still:
That as a spring it all appears,
and thou their pits dost fill.

From strength to strength they walk full fast,
no faintness there shall be:
And so the God of gods at last in Zion they do see.

O Lord of hosts, to me give heed,
and hear when I do pray:
And let it through thine ears proceed,
O Jacobs God, I say.

O Lord our shield, of thy good grace
regard and so draw near:
Regard, I say, behold the face
of thine anointed dear.

For why? within thy courts one day
is better to abide,
Then other-where to keep or stay
a thousand days beside.
Much rather would I keep a door
within the house of God,
Then in the tents of wickedness
to settle mine abode.

For God the Lord, light and defence,
will grace and worship give:
And no good thing will he withhold
from them that purely live.

O Lord of hosts, that man is blest,
and happy sure is he,
That is persuaded in his breast
to trust all times in thee.

Benedixisti. Psal. lxxv. J. H.

Thou hast been mercifull indeed,
O Lord, unto thy land:

For thou restoredst Jacobs seed
from thraldome out of band.

The wicked ways that they were in,
thou didst them clean remit:
And thou didst hide thy peoples sin,
full close thou coverdest it.

Thine anger eke thou didst assuage,
that all thy wrath was gone:
And so didst turn thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.

O God our health, do now convert
thy people unto thee:
Put all thy wrath from us apart,
and angry cease to be.

Why, shall thine anger never end,
but still proceed on us?
And shall thy wrath it self extend upon all ages thus?

Wilt thou not rather turn therefore and quicken us, that we
And all thy folk may evermore
be glad and joy in thee?

O Lord, on us do thou declare
thy goodness to our wealth:
Shew forth to us and do not spare,
thine aid and saving health.

I will heark what God saith, for he speaks to his people peace,
And to his saints, that never they return to foolishness.

For why? his help is still at hand
to such as do him fear:
Whereby great glory in our land shall dwell and flourish there.

For truth and mercy there shall meet,
in one to take their place:
And peace shall justice with kiss greet,
and thote they shall embrace.

As truth from earth shall spring aspee,
and flourish pleasantly:

So righteousness shall shew her face,
and look from heaven high.

Yea, God himself doth take in hand
to give us each good thing:
And through the coasts of all the land
the earth her fruit shall bring.

Before his face shall justice go much like a guide or stay:
He shall direct his steps also,
and keep them in the way.

Inclina, Domine. Psal. lxxvi. J. H.

O Lord, bow thine ear to my request,
and hear me by and by:
With grievous pain and grief oppress'd,
full poor and weak am I.

Preserve my soul, because my way
and doings holy be:
And save thy servant, O my Lords,
that puts his trust in thee.

Thy mercie, Lord, on me express,
defend me eke withall:
For through the day I do not cease
on thee to crie and call.

Comfort, O Lord, thy servants soul
that now with pain is pin'd:
For unto thee, Lord, I extoll
and lift my soul and minde.

For thou art good and bountifull,
thy gifts of grace are free:
And eke thy mercie plentiful
to all that call on thee.

O Lord, likewise when I do pray,
regard and give an ear:
Mark well the words that I do say,
and all my prayers hear.

In time when trouble doth me move,
to thee I doe complain:

For why? I know and well do prove thou answerest me again.

Among the gods, O Lord, is none
with thee to be compar'd:
And none can do as thou alone,
she like hath not been heard.

The second part.

The Gentiles and the people all
which thou didst make and frame:
Before thy face on knees shall fall,
and glorifie thy name.

For why? thou art so much of might,
all power is thine own:
Thou werkest wonders still in fight;
for thou art God alone.

O teach me, Lord, thy way, and I shall in thy truth proceed:

O joyn my heart to thee so nigh
that I thy name may dread.

To thee, my God, will I give praise,
with all my heart, O Lord:
And glorifie thy name always
for ever through the world.

For why? thy mercie shew'd to me
is great, and doth excell:
Thou sett'st my soul at libertie
out from the lower hell.

O Lord, the proud against me rise,
and heape of men of might:
They seek my soul, and in no wise
will have thee in their sight.

Thou, Lords, art mercifull and meek,
full slack and slow to wrath:
Thy goodness is full great, and eke
thy truth no measure hath.

- 15 O turn to me, and mercie grant,
thy strength to me apply:
O help and save thine own servant,
thy hand on aids son am I.
- 17 On me some signe of favour show,
that all my foes may see
And be asham'd, because, Lord, thou dost help and comfort me.

Fundamenta. Psal. lxxvii. J. H.

That city shall full well endure,
her ground-work still doth stay
Upon the holy hills full sure,
it can no time decay.

2 God loves the gates of Sion best,
his grace doth there abide:
He loves them more then all the rest of Jacobs tents beside.

3 Full glorious things reported be in Sion, and abroad:
Great things, I say, are said of thee,
thou citie of our God.

4 On Rahab I will cast an eye,
and bear in minde the same:
And Babylon shall eke apply
and learn to know my name.

5 Lo, Palestine and Tyre also,
with Ethiopie likewise,
A people old, full long ago
were born and there did rise.

6 Of Sion they shall say abroad,
that divers men of fame
Have there sprung up, and the high God
hath founded fast the same.

7 In their records to them it shall through Gods device appear,
Of Sion, that the chief of all
had his beginning there.

8 The trumpeters with such as sing,
there in great plenty be:
My fountains and my pleasant springs
are compass all in thee.

Domine Deus. Psal. lxxviii. J. H.

Lord God of health, the hope and stay
thou art alone to me:
I call and cry throughout the day,
and all the night to thee.

2 O let my prayer soon ascend unto thy sight on high:
Incline thine ear, O Lord, attend,
and hearken to my cry.

3 For why? with woe my heart is fill'd,
and doth in trouble dwell:
My life and breath almost doth yield,
and draweth nigh to hell.

4 I am esteem'd as one of them
that in the pit do fall:
And made as one among those men
that have no strength at all.

5 As one among the dead, and free
from things that here remain:
It were more ease for me to be,
with them the which are slain.

6 As those that lie in grave, I say,
whom thou hast clean forgot:
The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regard'st them not.

7 Yea, like to one shut up full sure
within the lower pit,
In places dark and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.

8 Thine anger and thy wrath likewise
full sore on me doth lie:
And all thy storms against me rise,
my soul to vex and trie.

9 Thou put'st my friends far off from me,
and mak'st them hate me sore:

I am shut up in prison fast,
and can come forth no more.
10 My sight doth fall through grief and woe,
I call to thee, O God:
Throughout the day my hands also
to thee I stretch abroad.

The second part.

11 Dost thou unto the dead declare thy wondrous works of fame?
Shall dead to life again repair,
and praise thee for the same?

12 Or shall thy loving kindness, Lord,
be preach'd in the grave?
Or shall with them that are destroy'd
thy truth her honour have?

13 Shall they that lie in dark full low
of all thy wonders wot?
Or there shall they thy lustre know
where all things are forgot?

14 But I, O Lord, to thee always do cry and call apace:
My prayer eke ere it be day
shall come before thy face.

15 Why dost thou, Lord, abhor my soul
in grief that seeketh thee?
And now, O Lord, why dost thou hide
thy face away from me?

16 I am as ill as dying still
from youth this many a year:
The terrors which do vex me ill
with troubled minde I bear.

17 The furies of thy wrathfull rage
full sore upon me fall:
Thy terrors eke do not assuage,
but me oppress withall.

18 All day they compass me about,
as water at the tide:
And all at once with streams full stout
beset me on each side.

19 Thou settest far from me my friends
and lovers every one:
Yea, and mine old acquaintance all
out of my sight are gone.

Misericordias. Psal. lxxix. J. H.

To sing the mercies of the Lord
my tongue shall never spare:
And with my mouth from age to age
thy truth I will declare.

2 For I have said that mercy shall
for evermore remain:
In that thou dost the heavens stay
thy truth appeareth plain.

3 To mine elect, saith God, I made a covenant and behest:
My servant David to persuade
I swore and did protest:

4 Thy seed for ever I will stay,
and stablish it full fast:
And still uphold thy throne alway
from age to age to last.

5 The heavens shew with joy and mirth
thy wondrous works, O Lord:
Thy saints within thy church on earth
thy faith and truth record.

6 Who with the Lord is equal then
in all the clouds abroad?
Among the sons of all the gods,
what one is like our God?

7 God in assembly of the saints
is greatly to be dread:
And over all that dwell about
in terrour to be had.

8 Lord God of hosts, in all the world
what one is like to thee?
On every side, most mightie Lord,
thy truth is seen to be.

Pſalm lxxix.

The raging ſea by thine advice thou ruleſt at thy will :
and when the waves thereof ariſe,
thou mak'ſt them calm and ſtill.
And Egypt-Lord, thou haſt ſubdu'd,
and thou haſt it deſtroi'd :
with thou thy foes with mighty arm
haſt ſcattered all abroad.

The ſecond part.

The heavens are thine and ſtill have been,
likewiſe the earth and land :
The world and all that is therein
thou foundedſt with thy hand.
Both north and ſouth, with eaſt and weſt
thy ſelf didſt make and frame :
both Tabor mount and eke Hermon,
rejoyce and praife thy name.

Thine arm is ſtrong and full of power,
all might therein doth lie :
The ſtrength of thy right hand each hour
thou liſteſt up on high.

In righteouſneſs and equitie
thou haſt thy ſeat and place :
Mercy and truth are ſtill with thee,
and go before thy face.

That ſolk is bleſt that knows aright
thy preſent power, O God :
For in the favour of thy light
they walk full ſafe abroad.

For in thy name throughout the day
they joy and much rejoyce :
and through thy righteouſneſs have they
a pleaſant fame and noiſe.

For why ? their glory, ſtrength, and aid,
in thee alone doth lie :

Thy goodneſs eke that hath us ſtaid,
ſhall liſt our horns on high.

Our ſtrength that doth defend us well
The Lord to us doth bring
The holy One of Iſrael
he is our guide and King.

Sometimes thy will unto thy ſalve
in viſions thou didſt ſhow :
And thus then didſt thou ſay to them,
thy minde to make them know :

A man of might I have erect
your king and guide to be :
and ſet him up whom I elect,
among the ſolk to me.

The third part.

My ſervant David I appoint,
whom I have ſearched out :
And with mine holy oyl anoint
him king of all the rout.

For why ? my hand is readie ſtill
with him for to remain :
And with mine arm alſo I will
him ſtrengthen and ſuſtain.

The enemies ſhall not him oppreſs,
they ſhall him not devour :

Ne yet the ſons of wickedneſs
on him ſhall have no power :

His foes likewiſe I will deſtroy
before his face in fight :

And thoſe that hate him I will plague,
and ſtrike them with my might.

My truth and mercy eke withall
ſhall ſtill upon him lie :

And in my name his horn eke ſhall
be lifted up on high.

His kingdome I will ſet to be
upon the ſea and land :

And eke the running ſtouds ſhall the embrace with his right hand.

He ſhall depend with all his heart
on me, and thus ſhall ſay,

My father and my God thou art
my rock of health and ſtay.

As my firſt-born I will him take,
of all on earth that ſprings :
His might and honour I will make above all earthly kings.

My mercy ſhall be with him ſtill,
as I my ſelf have told :

My faithfull covenant to fulfill
my mercy I will hold.

And eke his ſeed I will ſuſtain
for ever ſtrong and ſure :

So that his ſeat ſhall ſtill remain
while heaven doth endure.

The fourth part.

If that his ſons forſake my law,
and ſo begin to ſwerve :

And of my judgements have none
nor will not them obſerve :

Or if they do not uſe aright
my ſtatutes to them made,
And ſet all my commandments light,
and will not keep my trade :

Then with the rod will I begin
their doings to amend :

And ſo with ſcourging for their ſin,
if that they do offend.

My mercie yet and my goodneſs
I will not take him fro :

Nor handle him with crueltie,
and ſo my truth forgo.

But ſure my covenant I will hold,
with all that I have ſpoke :

No word the which my lips have told
ſhall alter or be broke.

Once ſware I by my holineſs,
and that perform will I :

With David I ſhall keep promiſe,
to him I will not lie.

His ſeed for evermore ſhall reign,
and eke his throne of might :

As doth the ſumit ſhall remain
for ever in my fight.

And as the moon within the ſide
for ever ſtandeth fiſt

A faithfull witneſs from on high,
ſo ſhall his kingdome liſt.

But now, O Lord, thou doſt reſect,
and now thou changeſt cheer :

Yea, thou art wroth with thine elect,
thine own anointed deare.

The covenant with thy ſervant made,
Lord, thou haſt quite undone :

And down upon the ground alſo
haſt caſt his royal crown.

The fifth part.

Thou pluck'ſt his hedges up with might,
his walls thou doſt confound :

Thou beateſt eke his bulwarks down,
and break'ſt them to the ground.

That he is ſore deſtroi'd and torn
of comers by throughout :

And ſo is made a mock and ſcorn
to all that dwell about.

Thou their right hand haſt lifted up,
that him ſo ſore annoy :

And all his foes that him devour,
lo, thou haſt made to joy.

His ſwords edge thou doſt take away,
that ſhould his foes withſtand :

To him in war no victorie
thou giv'ſt, nor upper hand.

His glorie thou doſt alſo waſte,
his throne, his joy, his mirth

By thee is overthrowen and caſt
fall low upon the earth.

- 45 Thou hast cut off and made full short
his youth and lustie days :
And rais'd of him an ill report
with shame and great dispraise.
- 47 How long away from me, O Lord,
for ever wilt thou turn ?
And shall thine anger still alway
as fire consume and burn ?
- 48 O call to minde, remember then,
my time consumeth fast :
Why hast thou made the sons of men
as things in vain to waste ?
- 49 What man is he that liveth here,
and death shall never see ?
Or from the hand of hell his soul
shall he deliver free ?
- 50 Where is, O Lord, thine own goodnesse
so oft declar'd before,
Which by thy truth and uprightness
to David thou hast sworn :
- 51 The great rebukes to minde I call
that on thy servants lie :
The railings of the people all
born in my breast have I.
- 52 Wherewith, O Lord, thine enemies
blaspheme, I have thy name :
The steps of thine anointed one
they cease not to defame.
- 53 All praise to thee, O Lord of hosts,
both now and eke for aye :
Through skie and earth, and all the coasts,
amen, amen, I say.

Domine, refugium. Psal. xc. J. H.

- THOU, Lord, hast been our sure defence,
our place of ease and rest.
In all times past, yea so long since
is cannot be express'd.
- 2 Ere there was made mountain or hill,
the earth and world abroad :
From age to age and allways still
for ever thou art God.
- 3 Thou grindest man through grief and pain
to dust or clay, and then,
And then thou say'st again, Return
again ye sons of men.
- 4 The lasting of a thousand years,
what is it in thy sight ?
As yesterday it doth appear,
or as a watch by night.
- 5 So soon as thou dost scatter them,
then is their life and trade
As a sleep, and like the grass
whose beautie soon doth fade :
- 6 Which in the morning shines full bright,
but fadeth by and by :
And is cut down ere it be night,
all withered dead and drie.
- 7 For through thine anger we consume,
our might is much decay'd :
And of thy servant wrath and fume
we are full sore afraid.
- 8 The wicked works that we have wrought
thou sett'st before thine eie :
Our privie faults, yea, eke our thoughts
thy countenance doth spie.
- 9 For through thy wrath our days do waste,
thereof doth nought remain :
Our years consume as words or blasse,
and are not call'd again.
- 10 Our time is threescore years and ten
that we do live on mold :
If one see fourscore, surely then
we count him wondrous old.

The second part.

- 11 Yet of this time the strength and chief
the which we count upon,

- Is nothing else but painfull grief,
and we as blasse are gone.
- 12 Who once doth know what strength is there,
what might thine anger hath ?
Or in his heart who doth these fear
according to thy wrath ?
- 13 Instru't us, Lord, to know and trie
how long our days remain :
That then we may our hearts apply
true wisdom to attain.
- 14 Return, O Lord, how long wilt thou forth on in wrath proceed ?
Shew favour to thy servants now,
and help them at their need.
- 15 Refresh us with thy mercie soon,
and then our joy shall be,
All times so long as life doth last,
in heart rejoyce will we.
- 16 As thou hast plagued us before
now also make us glad :
And for the years wherein full sore affliction we have had.
- 17 O let thy work and power appear,
and on thy servants light :
And shew unto thy children dear
thy glorie and thy might.
- 18 Lord let thy grace and glorie stand
on us thy servants thus :
Confirm the works we take in hand,
Lord, prosper them to us.

Qui habitat. Psal. xli. J. H.

- HE that within the secret place
of God most high doth dwell :
In shadow of the mightiest grace
at rest shall keep him well.
- 2 Thou art my hope and my strong hold,
I to the Lord will say,
My God is he, in him will I
my whole assistance stay.
- 3 He shall defend thee from the same
the which the hunter kild :
And from the deadly plague and care
whereof thou art afraid.
- 4 And with his wings shall cover thee
and keep thee safely there :
His faith and truth thy fence shall be,
as sure as shield and spear.
- 5 So that thou shalt not need, I say,
to fear or be affright
Of all the insafts that lie by day,
nor terrors of the night :
- 6 Nor of the plague that privily
doth wale in dark so fast :
Nor yet of that which doth destroy
and at noon-day doth waste.
- 7 Yea, at thy side as thou dost stand
a thousand ike shall be :
Ten thousand eke at thy right hand,
and yet shalt thou be free.
- 8 But thou shalt see it for thy part,
thine eyes shall well regard,
That even like to their deserts
the wicked have reward :
- 9 For why ? O Lord, I onely just to stay my hope on thee :
And in the high'st I put my trust,
my sure defence is he.
- 10 Thou shalt not need none ill to fear,
with thee it shall not mell :
Nor yet the plague shall once come near
the house where thou dost dwell.
- 11 For why ? unto his angels all
with charge commanded he,
That still in all thy ways they shall preserve and prosper thee.
- 12 And in their hands shall bear thee up,
still waiting thee upon :

so that thy foot shall never chance
to spurn at any stone.

13 Upon the lions thou shalt go,
the adder fell and long:
And tread upon the lions young,
with dragons stout and strong.

14 For he that trusteth unto me,
I will dispatch him quite,
And him defend, because that he doth know my name aright.

15 When he for help on me doth cry,
an answer I will give:
And from his grief take him will I
in glorie for to live.

15 With length of years and days of wealth
I will fulfill his time:
The goodness of my saving health
I will declare to him.

Bonus est. Psal. xcii. J. H.

I T is a thing both good and meet
to praise the highest Lord:
And to thy name, O thou most high,
to sing with one accord:

1 To shew the kindness of the Lord,
betime ere day be light:
And eke declare his truth abroad
when it doth draw to night.

2 Upon ten-stringed instruments,
on lute and harp so sweet:
Withall the mirth you can invent
of instruments most meet.

4 For thou hast made me to rejoyce
in things so wrought by thee:
And I have joy in heart and voice
thy handy-works to see.

5 O Lord, how glorious and how great
are all thy works so stout!
So deeply are thy counsels set
that none can trie them out.

6 The man unwise hath not the wit
this gear to pass to bring
And all such fools are nothing fit
to understand this thing.

7 When so the wicked at their will
as grass do spring full fast,
They when they flourish in their ill
for ever shall be waste.

8 But thou art mightie, Lord most high,
yet thou dost reign therefore
In every time eternally
both now and evermore.

9 For why? O Lord, behold and see,
behold thy foes, I say,
How all that work iniquitie
shall perish and decay.

10 But thou, like as an unicorn,
shalt lift mine horn on high:
With fresh and new prepared oyl
thine ointed king am I:

11 And of my foes before mine eyes
shall see the fall and shame:
Of all that up against me rise,
mine ears shall hear the same.

12 The just shall flourish up on highs
as date trees bud and blow:
And as the cedars multiply
in Libanus that grow.

13 For they are planted in the place
and dwelling of our God:
Within his courts they spring apace,
and flourish all abroad:

14 And in their age much fruit shall bring,
both fat and well beken:
And pleasantly both bud and spring
with boughs and branches green.

15 To shew that God is good and just,
and upright in his will:

He is my rock, my hopes and trust,
in him there is none ill.

Dominus regnavit. Psal. xciii. J. H.

THE Lord as king aloft doth reign
with glorie goodly dight:
And he to shew his strength most main,
hath girt himself with might.

2 The Lord likewise the earth hath made
and shap'd it so sure:
No might can make it move or fade,
at stay it doth endure.

3 Ere that the world was made or wrought,
thy seat was set before:
Beyond all time that can be thought:
thou hast been evermore.

4 The floods, O Lord, the floods do rise,
they roar and make a noise:
The floods (I say) did enterprise,
and lifted up their voice.

5 Yea, though the storms arise in sight,
though seas do rage and swell:
The Lord is strong and more of might,
for he on high doth dwell.

6 And look what promise he doth make his household to defend:
For just and true they shall it take,
all times without an end.

Deus altissimus. Psal. xciv. J. H.

O Lord, thou dost revenge all wrongs,
that office longs to thee:
Sith vengeance doth to thee belong,
declare that all may see.

2 Set forth thy self, for thou of right
the earth dost judge and guide:
Reward the proud and men of might
according to their pride.

3 How long shall wicked men bear sway
with lifting up their voice?
How long shall wicked men, I say,
thus triumph and rejoyce?

4 How long shall they with brags burst out,
and proudly praise their ill?
Shall they rejoyce that be so stout,
whose words are ever ill?

5 Thy flock, O Lord, thine heritage
they spoil and vex full sore:
Against thy people they do rage
still daily more and more.

6 The widows which are comfortless
and strangers they destroy:
They slay the children fatherless,
and none doth put them by.

7 And when they take these things in hand,
this talk they have of thee,
Can Jacobs God this understand?
tush now he cannot see.

8 O folk unwise and people rude,
some knowledge now discern:
Ye fools among the multitude,
at length begin to learn.

9 The Lord which made the ear of man,
he needs of right must hear:
He made the eye, all things must then before his sight appear.

10 The Lord doth all the world correct,
and make them understand:
Shall he not then your deeds detect,
how can ye scape his hand?

The second part.

11 The Lord doth know the thoughts of man,
his heart he seeth full plain:

The Lord (I say) man's thoughts doth scan,
and findeth them but vain.

12 But, Lords, that man is haple sure whom thou dost keep in aw,
And through correction dost procure
to teach him in thy law.

13 Whereby he shall in quiet rest
in time of trouble sit:
When wicked men shall be suppress'd,
and fall into the pit.

14 For sure the Lord will not refuse
his people for to take,
His heritage whom he did chuse
he will no time forsake.

15 Untill that judgement be decreed
to justice to convert:
That all may follow her with speed
that are of upright heart.

16 But who upon my part shall stand against the cursed train?
Or who shall rid me from their hand
that wicked works maintain?

17 Except the Lord had been mine aid,
mine enemies to repell:
My soul and life had now been laid
almost as low as hell.

18 When I did say, my foot did slide,
I now am like to fall:
Thy goodness, Lord, did so provide
to stay me up withall.

19 When with my self I mused much,
and could no comfort finde:
Then, Lord, thy goodness did me touch,
and that did ease my minde.

20 Wilt thou inhabit thy self and dwne,
with wicked men to sit:
Which with pretence in stead of law
much mischief do commit?

21 For they consult against the life
of righteous men and good:
And in their counsels they are ripe
to shed the guiltless blood.

22 But yet the Lord he is to me
a strong defence, or lock:
He is my God, to him I flee,
he is my strength and rock.

23 And he shall cause their mischiefs all themselves for to annoy:
And in their malice they shall fall,
our God shall them destroy.

Venite exultemus. Psal. xcvi. J. H.

O Come let us lift up our voice;
and sing unto the Lord:
In him our rock of health rejoyce
let us with one accord.

2 Yea, let us come before his face
to give him thanks and praise:
In singing psalms unto his grace
let us be glad always.

3 For why? the Lord he is no doubt
a great and mightie God:
A King above all gods throughout,
in all the world abroad.

4 The secrets of the earth so deep,
and corners of the land,
The tops of hills that are so steep,
he hath them in his hand.

5 The sea and waters all are his,
for he the same hath wrought;
The earth and all that therein is his hand hath made of nought.

6 Come, let us bow and praise the Lord,
before him let us fall:
And kneel to him with one accord,
the which hath made us all.

7 For why? he is the Lord our God,
for us he doth provide:
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
his sheep and he our guide.

8 To day if ye his voice will heare,
then harden not your heart:
As ye with grudging many a year
provok'd me in desert.

9 Whereas your fathers tempted me,
my power for to prove:
My wondrous works when they did see,
yet still they would me move.

10 Twice twentie years they did me grieve,
and I to them did say,
They err in heart, and not beleieve,
they have not known my way.

11 Wherefore I swear, when that my wrath
was kindled in my breast,
That they should never tread the path,
to enter in my rest.

Cantate Dom. Psal. xcvi. J. H.

Sing ye with praise unto the Lord
new songs with joy and mirth:
Sing unto him with one accord,
all people on the earth.

2 Yea, sing unto the Lord, I say,
praise ye his holy name:
Declare and shew from day to day
salvation by the same.

3 Among the heathen eke declare his honour round about:
To shew his wonders do not spare
in all the world throughout.

4 For why? the Lord is much of might,
and worthy praise alway:
And he is to be dread of right
above all gods, I say.

5 For all the gods of heathen folk
are idols that will fade:
But yet our God he is the Lord
that hath the heavens made.

6 All praise and honour eke do dwell
for aye before his face:
Both power and might likewise excell
within his holy place.

7 Ascribe unto the Lord alway,
ye people of the world,
All might and worship eke, I say,
ascribe unto the Lord.

8 Ascribe unto the Lord also
the glorie of his name:
And eke into his courts do go
with gifts unto the same.

The second part.

9 Fall down and worship ye the Lord
within his temple bright:
Let all the people of the world
be fearfull at his sight.

10 Tell all the world, be not afraid
the Lord doth reign above:
Yea, he hath set the earth so fast,
that it can never move:

11 And that it is the Lord alone
that rules with princely might,
To judge the nations everie one
with equitie and right.

12 The heavens shall great joy begin:
the earth eke shall rejoyce:
The sea with all that is therein
shall shout and make a noise.

13 The field shall joy, and everie thing
that springeth on the earth
The wood and everie tree shall sing
with gladness and with mirth.

14 Before the presence of the Lord,
and coming of his might:
When he shall justly judge the world,
and rule his folk with right.

Dominus regnavit. Psal. xcvi. J. H.

THe Lord doth reign; whereat the earth
may joy with pleasant voice:
And eke the isles with joyfull mirth
may triumph and rejoyce.

2 Both clouds and darkness eke do swell,
and round about him bear:
Yea, right and justice ever dwell
and bide about his seat.

3 Yea, fire and heat at once do run,
and go before his face:
Which shall his foes and enemies burn
abroad in everie place.

4 His lightnings eke full bright did blaze,
and to the world appear:
Whereat the earth did look and gaze
with dread and deadly fear.

5 The hills like wax did melt in sight
and presence of the Lord:
They fled before that rulers might,
which guideth all the world.

6 The heavens eke declare and show
his justice forth abroad,
That all the world may see and know
the glorie of our God.

7 Confusion sure shall come to such as worship idols vain:
And eke to those that glorie much dumb pictures to maintain.

8 For all the idols of the world,
which they as gods do call,
Shall feel the power of the Lord:
and down to him shall fall.

9 With joy shall Sion heare this thing,
and Juda shall rejoyce:
For at thy judgements they shall sing,
and make a pleasant noise.

10 That thou, O Lord, art set on high
in all the earth abroad:
And art exalted wondrously
above each other god.

11 All ye that love the Lord do this,
hate all things that are ill:
For he doth keep the souls of his
from such as would them spill.

12 And light doth spring up to the just,
with pleasure for his part:
Great joy with gladnes, mirth and lust,
to them of upright heart.

13 Ye righteous in the Lord rejoyce,
his holiness proclaim:
Be thankfull eke with heart and voice,
and mindfull of the same.

Cantate Domino. Psal. xcvi. J. H.

OSing ye now unto the Lord
a new and pleasant song:
For he hath wrought throughout the world
his wonders great and strong.

2 With his right hand full worthily
he doth his foes devour,
And get himself the victorie
with his own arm and power.

3 The Lord doth make the people know his saving health and might:
The Lord doth eke his justice show
in all the heathens sight.

4 His grace and truth to Israel
in minde he doth record:
That all the earth hath seen right well
the goodness of the Lord.

5 Be glad in him with joyfull voice,
all people of the earth:
Give thanks to God, sing and rejoyce
to him with joy and mirth.

6 Upon the harp unto him sing,
give thanks to him with psalms:
Rejoyce before the Lord our King
with trumpets and with shalms.

7 Yea, let the sea withall therein
for joy both roar and swell:
The earth likewise let it begin,
withall that therein dwell.

8 And let the floods rejoyce their fill,
and clap their hands apace:
And eke the mountains and the hills,
before the Lord his face.

9 For he shall come to judge and trie
the world and every wight:
And rule the people mightily
with justice and with right.

Dominus regnavit. Psal. xcix. J. H.

THe Lord doth reign, although at it
the people rage full sore:
Yea, he on cherubims doth sit,
though all the world do roar.

2 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell
is high and wondrous great:
Above all folk he doth excell,
and he aloft is set.

3 Let all men praise thy mighty name,
for it is fearfull sure:
And let them magnifie the same,
that holy is and pure.

4 The princely power of our King
doth love judgement and right:
Thou rightly ruled every thing
in Jacob through thy might.

5 To praise the Lord our God devise
all honour to him do:
Before his footstool worship him,
for he is holy too.

6 Moses, Aaron, and Samuel,
as priests on him did call:
When they did pray he heard them well,
and gave them answer all.

7 Within the cloud to them he spake,
then did they labour still
To keep such laws as he did make,
and pointed them untill.

8 O Lord our God, thou didst them bear,
and answeredst them again:
Thy mercy did on them appear,
their deeds didst not maintain.

9 O laud and praise our God and Lord
within his holy hill:
For why? our God throughout the world is holy ever still.

Jubilate Deo. Psal. c. J. H.

All people that on earth do dwell,
sing to the Lord with cheerfull voice.
2 Him serve with fear, his praise forth tell,
come ye before him and rejoyce.

3 The Lord ye know is God indeed, without our aid he did us make:
We are his flock, he doth us feed;
and for his sheep he doth us take.

4 O enter then his gates with praise,
approach with joy his courts unto:
Praise laud and bless his name always,
for it is seemly so to do.

5 For why? the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for ever sure:
His truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same, by J. H.

IN God the Lord be glad and light,
praise him throughout the earth:
2 Serve him and come before his sight
with singing and with mirth.

3 Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did us make and keep,
Not we our selves for we are his own flock and pasture sheep.

- 4 Go into his gates always give thanks within the same:
Within his courts set forth his praise,
and laud his holy name.
5 For why the goodness of the Lord
for evermore doth reign:
From age to age throughout the world,
his truth doth still remain.

Misererordiam. Psal. cl. N.

- I Mercy will and Judgement sing:
O Lord God, unto thee:
2 And wisely do in perfect way,
untill thou come to me.
And in the midst of my house walk
in parenels of my sprites:
3 And I no kinde of wicked thing
will set before my sight.
I hate their works that fall away,
it shall not cleave to me:
4 From me shall part the froward heart,
none evil will I see.
5 Him will I shew that slandereth
his neighbour privily:
The lofty heart I cannot bear,
nor him that looketh high.
6 Mine eyes shall be on them, within
the land that faithfull be:
In perfect way who walketh, shall be servant unto me.
7 I will no guilefull person have
within my house to dwell:
And in my presence he shall not remain that lies doth tell.
8 Betimes I will destroy even all
the wicked of the land:
That I may from Gods citie cut
the wicked workers hand.

Domine exaudi. Psal. cil. N.

- O Hear my prayer, Lord, and let
my cry come unto thee:
2 In time of trouble do not hide
thy face away from me.
3 Incline thine ear to me, make haste
to hear me when I call:
For as the smoke doth fade, so do
my days consume and fall.
4 And as an hearth my bones are burnt
my heart is smitten dead.
And withers like the grass, that I forget to eat my bread.
5 By reason of my groaning voice
my bones cleave to my skin:
6 As pelican in wilderness,
such case now am I in.
And as an owl in desert is,
lo, I am such an one:
7 I watch and as a sparrow on the house top am alone.
8 Lo, daily in reproachfull wife
mine enemies do me scorn:
And they that do against me rage,
against me they have sworn.
9 Surely with ashes as with bread,
my hunger I have fill'd:
And mingled have my drink with tears
that from mine eyes have fill'd 10 Because of thy displeasure, Lord,
thy wrath and thy disdain:
For thou hast lifted me aloft,
and cast me down again.
11 The days wherein I pass my life,
are like the fleeting shade:
And I am withered like the grass
that soon away doth fade.
12 But thou, O Lord, for ever doth,
remain in steady place:

And thy remembrance ever doth abide from race to race.

The second part.

- 13 Thou wilt arise, and mercy thou
to Zion wilt extend:
The time of mercy now the time,
forget is cometo end.
14 For even in the stones thereof
thy servants do delight:
And on the dust thereof they have compassion in their sprite.
15 Then shall the heathen people see
the Lords most holy name:
And all the kings on earth shall dread
thy glory and thy fame.
16 Then when the Lord the mighty God again shall Zion rear:
And then when he most nobly in his glory shall appear.
17 To prayer of the desolate
when he himself shall bend:
When he shall not disdain unto their prayers to attend.
18 This shall be written for the age
that after shall succeed:
The people yet uncreated
The Lords renown shall spread.
19 For he from his high sanctuary
hath looked down below:
And out of heaven hath the Lord
beheld the earth alo.
20 That of the mourning captiv he might hear the wefull cry:
And that he might deliver those
that damned are to die.
21 That they in Sion may declare
the Lords most holy name:
And in Jerusalem set forth
the praises of the same:
22 Then when the people of the land
and kingdoms with accord Shall be assembled for to do their service to the Lord.

The third part.

- 23 My formes force of strength he hath
obated in the way:
And shorter he did cut my days:
thus I therefore did say.
24 My God in midst of all my days
now take me not away:
Thy years endure eternally
from age to age for aye.
25 Thou the foundations of the earth
before all times hast laid:
And Lord the heavens are the work
which thine own hands have made: 26 Yea, they shall perish and decay,
but thou shalt terry still:
And they shall all in time wax old
even as a garment will.
27 Thou as a garment shalt them change,
and changed shall they be:
But thou dost still abide the same
thy years do never see.
28 The children of thy servant shall continually endure:
And in thy sight their happy feed
for ever shall stand sure.

Benedic. anima. Psal. cil. T. 3.

MY soul give laud unto the Lord,
my spirit shall do the same:
And all the secrets of my heart,
praise ye his holy name.

1 Give thanks to God for all his gifts
shew not thy self unkinde :
And suffer not his benefits
to slip out of thy minde.

2 That gave thee pardon for thy faults,
and thee restor'd again,
for all thy weak and frail disease,
and heil'd thee of thy pain.

3 That did redeem thy life from death,
from which thou couldst not flee :
His mercie and compassion both
he did extend to thee.

4 That fill'd with goodness thy desire,
and did prolong thy youth :
Like as the eagle casts her bill,
whereby her age renew'd th.

5 The Lord with justice doth repay
all such as he oppresseth :
So that their sufferings and their wrongs,
are turned to the best.

6 His ways and his commandments
to Moses he did shew :
His counsels and his valiant acts
the Israelites did know.

7 The Lord is kinde and mercifull
when sinners do him grieve :
The slowest to conceive a wrath
and readiest to forgive.

8 He chides not us continually,
though we be full of strife :
Nor keeps our faults in memorie,
for all our sinfull life.

9 Nor yet according to our sins
the Lord doth us regard :
Nor after our iniquities
he doth us not reward.

10 But as the space is wondrous great
'twixt earth and heaven above :
So is his goodness much more large
to them that do him love.

11 God doth remove our sins from us,
and our offences all :
As far as is the sun-rising
full distant from his fall.

The second part.

12 And look what pitie parents dear
unto their children bear :
Like pitie beareth God to such as worship him in fear.

13 The Lord that made us knows our shapen
our mould and fashion just :
How weak and frail our nature is,
and how we be but dust.

14 And how the time of mortal men
is like the withering hay :
Or like the flower right fair in field,
that fades full soon away.

15 Whose glofs and beauteous stornie winds
do utterly disgrace
And make that after their assaults
such blossoms have no place.

16 But yet the goodness of the Lord
with his shall ever stand :
Their childrens children do receive
his righteousness at hand.

17 I mean, which keep his covenant
with all their whole desire :
And not forget to do the thing
that he doth them require.

18 The heavens high are made the seat
and footstool of the Lord :
And by his power imperiall
he governs all the world.

19 Ye angels which are great in power,
praise ye and blese the Lord :
Which to obey and do his will immediatly accord.

20 Ye noble hosts and ministers cease not to laud him still :
Which ready are to execute
his pleasure at his will.

21 Yea, all his works in every place,
praise ye his holy name :
My heart, my minde, and eke my soul,
praise ye also the same.

Benedic, anima mea. Psal. cix. 19. M.

MY soul, praise the Lord,
speak good of his name,
O Lord, our great God,
how dost thou appear?
So passing in glory,
that great is thy fame.
Honour and majestie
in thee shine most clear.

2 With light as a robe,
thou hast thee bedad, Whereby all the earth
thy greatness may see :
The heavens in such sort thou also hast spread,
That it to a curtain
compared may be.

3 His chamber beams lie
in the clouds full sure,
Which as his chariots,
are made him to bear :
And there with much swiftness
his course doth endure.
Upon the wings riding
of winds in the air.

4 He maketh his spirits
as heralds to go :
And lightnings to serve
we see also prest :
His will to accomplish
they run to and fro,
To save or consume things,
as seemeth him best.

5 He groundeth the earth
so firmly and fast,
That it once to move
none shall have such power.

6 The deep a fair covering
for it made thou hast :
Which by his own nature
the hills would devour.

7 But at thy rebuke
the waters do flee :
And so give due place
thy word to obey.
At thy voice of thunder
so fearfull they be,
That in their great raging
they haste soon away.

8 The mountains full high
they then up ascend :
If thou do but speak,
thy word they fulfill,
So likewise the valleys
most quickly descend,
Where thou them appointedst remain they do still.

9 Their bounds thou hast set
how far they shall run :
So that in their rage
not that pass they can :
For God hath appointed
they shall not return
The earth to destroy more,
which made was for man.

The second part.

10 He sendeth the springs
to strong streams or lakes,
Which run do full swift
among the huge hills,

11 Whete both the wilde asses
their thirst oft-times slakes.
And beasts of the mountains thereof drink their fills.

12 By these pleasant springs
of fountains full faire,
The fowls of the air
abide shall and dwell:
Who moved by nature
to hop here and there, Among the green branches
their songs shall excell.

13 The mountain to moist
the clouds he doth use:
The earth with his works
is wholly replete.

14 So as the brute cattel
he doth not refuse:
But grafs doth provide them,
and herb for mans meat.

15 Yea bread, wine, and oyl,
he made for mans sake:
His face to refresh
and heart to make strong.

16 The cedars of Liban
this great Lord did make:
Which trees he doth nourish
that grow up so long.

17 In these may birds build and make there their nests:
In fir-trees the flocks remain and abide.

18 The high hills are succours
for wilde goats to rest:
And eke the rock stonie
for conies to hide.

19 The moon then is set
her seasons to run:
The days from the nights
thereby to discern.
And by the descending
also of the sun,
The cold from heat away
thereby we do learn.

20 When darkness doth come
by Gods will and power,
Then creep forth do all
the beasts of the wood.

21 The lions range roaring their prey to devour:
But yet it is thou, Lord,
which givest them food.

22 As soon as the sun
is up, they retire:
To couch in their dens,
then are they full faire.

23 That man to his work may,
as right doth require,
Till night come and call him
to take rest again.

The third part.

24 How sundry, O Lord,
are all thy works found!
With wisdom full great
they are indeed wrought:
So that the whole world
of thy praise doth sound:
And as for thy riches,
they pass all mens thought.

25 So is the great sea,
which large is and broad,
Where things that creep swarm
and beasts of each sort.

26 There both mighty ships sail,
and some lie at rode:
The whale huge and monstrous
there also doth sport.

27 All things on thee wait
thou dost them relieve:

And thou in due time
full well dost them feed.

28 Now when it doth please thee
the same for to give,
They gather full gladly
those things which they need.

Thou openest thy hand,
and they finde such grace,
That they with good things
are filled we see.

29 But fore are they troubled
if thou turn thy face:
For if thou their breath take,
vile dust then they be.

30 Agsin, when thy spirit
from thee doth proceed
All things to appoint,
and what shall ensue:
Then are they created
as thou hast decreed:
And dost by thy goodness
the drie earth renew.

31 The praise of the Lord
for ever shall last,
Who may in his works
by right well rejoyce.

32 His look can the earth make
to tremble full fast,
And likewise the mountains
to smoke at his voice.

33 To this Lord and God
sing will I always:
So long as I live,
my God praise will I.

34 Then am I most certain
my words shall him please
I will rejoyce in him,
to him will I crye.

35 The sinners, O Lord,
consume in thine ire:
And eke the perverse,
them root out with shame:
But as for my soul now,
let it still desire,
And say with the faithfull
praise ye the Lords name.

Confitemini Dom. Psal. cv. N.

Give praises unto God the Lord,
and call upon his name:

Among the people eke declare his works to spread his fame,

2 Sing ye unto the Lord, I say,
and sing unto him praise:
And talk of all his wondrous works
that he hath wrought always.

3 In honour of his holy name
rejoyce with one accord:
And let the heart also rejoyce
of them that seek the Lord.

4 Seek ye the Lord and seek the strength of his eternal might:
And seek his face continually,
and presence of his sight.

5 The wondrous works which he hath done
keep still in mind full heart:
Ne let the judgements of his mouth
out of your minde depart.

6 Ye that of faithfull Abraham
his servant are the seed, Ye his elect, the children that of Jacob do proceed.

7 For he, he onely is, I say,
the mighty Lord our God:
And his most rightfull judgements are through all the earth abroad.

8 His promise and his covenant
which he hath made to his,
He hath remembered evermore
to thousands of degrees.

The second part.

- 9 The covenant which he hath made
with Abraham long ago,
And faithfull oath which he hath sworn to Isaac also.
- 10 And did confirm the same for law,
that Jacob should obey:
And for eternal covenant
to Israel for aye.
- 11 When thus he said, Lo, I to you all Canaan land will give,
The lot of your inheritance,
wherein your feed shall live.
- 12 Although the number at that time
did very small appear Yea, very small and in the land,
they then but strangers were.
- 13 While yet they walke from land to land,
without a sure abode:
And while from sundry kingdoms they did wander all abroad.
- 14 And wrong at no oppressours hands
he suffered them to take:
But even the great and mighty kings
reproved for their sake.
- 15 And thus he said, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be:
Ne do the prophets any harm
that do pertain to me.
- 16 He call'd a dearth upon the land,
of bread he stroyd the store:
But he against the time of need
had sent a man before:

The third part

- 17 Even Joseph which had once been sold
to live a slave in wo:
Whose feet they hurt in stocks, whose soul
the irons pierc'd also:
- 18 Untill the time came when his cause
was known apparently,
The mighty word of God the Lord
his faultless truth did trie.
- 19 The king sent and delivered him
from prison where he was:
10 The ruler of the people then did freely let him pass.
- 21 And over all his house he made
him lord to bear the sway:
And of his substance made him have
the rule and all the stay.
- 22 That he might to his will instruct
the princes of the land:
And wisdoms lore his ancient men
might cause to understand.
- 23 Then into the Egyptian land
came Israel also:
And Jacob in the land of Ham
did live a stranger tho.
- 24 His people he exceedingly
in number made to flow:
And over all their enemies
in strength he made them grow.
- 25 Whose heart he turn'd, that they with hate
his people did entreat:
And did his servants wrongfully abuse with false deceit.

The fourth part.

- 26 His faithfull servant Moses then,
and Aaron whom he chose,
He did command to go to them,
his message to disclose.
- 27 The wondrous message of his signes
among them he did show:
And wonders in the land of Ham
then did they work also.
- 28 Darkness he sent and made it dark
in stead of brighter day:
And unto his commission
they did not disobey.
- 29 He turn'd their waters into bloud,
he did their fishes slay:

- 30 Their land brought frogs even in the place
where their king Pharaoh lay.
- 31 He spake and at his voice there came
great swarms of noisome flies:
And all the quarters of the land
were fill'd with crawling lice.
- 32 He gave them cold and stonie hail
in stead of milder rain:
And fiery flames within their land
he sent unto their pain.
- 33 He smote their vines and all their trees
whereon their figs did grow:
And all the trees within their coasts down did he overthrow.
- 34 He spake, then caterpillers did,
and grasshoppers abound:
35 Which ate the grafs in all their land,
and fruit of all their ground.

The fifth part.

- 36 The first-begotten in their land,
eke deadly did he smite:
Yea, the beginning and first-fruit
of all their strength and might.
- 37 With gold and silver he them brought from Egypt land to pass:
And in the number of their tribes
no feeble one there was.
- 38 Egypt was glad and joyfull then
when they did thence depart:
For terror and the fear of them
was fill'n upon their heart.
- 39 To shroud them from the parching heat,
a cloud he did display:
And five he sent to give them light
when night had hid the day.
- 40 They asked, and he caused quails
to rain at their request:
And fully with the bread of heaven
their hunger he repress.
- 41 He opened the stony rock,
and waters gushed out:
And eke the drie and parched ground
like rivers ran about.
- 42 For of his holy covenant
aye mindfull was he tho:
Which to his servant Abraham
he plighted long ago.
- 43 He brought his people forth with mirth,
and his elect with joy,
Out of the cruel land where they had liv'd in great annoy.
- 44 And of the heathen men he gave
to them the fruitfull lands:
The labours of the people eke
they took into their hands.
- 45 That they his holy statutes might observe for evermore,
And faithfully obey his laws:
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Domino. Psal. cvi. N.

- Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
his mercy dures for aye:
2 Who can express his noble acts,
or all his prayse display?
- 3 They blessed are that judgement keep,
and justly do alway:
 - 4 With favour of thy people, Lord,
remember me, I pray:
- And with thy saving health, O Lord,
vouchsafe to visit me:
5 That I the great felicitie
of thine elect may see:
And with thy peoples joy I may
a joyfull minde possess:
And may with thine inheritance
a glorying heart express.
- 6 Both we and eke our fathers all have sinned every one:

We have committed wickedness,
and lewdly we have done.
7 The wonders great which thou, O Lord,
hast done in Egypt land:
Our fathers though they saw them all,
yet did not understand.
Nor thy mercies multitude
did keep in thankfull minde:
But at the sea, yea the Red sea,
rebelled most unkinde.
8 Nevertheless he saved them
for honour of his name:
That he might make his power known,
and spread abroad his fame.
9 The Red sea, he did then rebuke,
and forthwith it was dri'd:
And as in wilderness, so through
the deep he did them guide.
10 He sav'd them from the cruel hand
of their despightfull foe,
And from the enemies hand he did deliver them also.

The second part.

11 The waters their oppressours whelm'd,
not one was left alive:
12 Then they believ'd his word, and praise
in song they did him give.
13 But by and by unthankfully
his works they clean forgot:
And for his counsel and his will
they did neglect to wait:
14 But lusted in the wilderness
with fond and greedy lust:
And in the desert tempted God,
the slay of all their trust.
15 And then their wanton minds desire
he suffer'd them to have:
But wasting leanness therewithall
into their souls he gave.
16 Then when they lodged in their tents,
at Moses they did grutch:
Aaron the holy of the Lord
so did they envie much.
17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did devour:
And all Abiram's company
did cover in that hour.
18 In their assembly kindled was
the hot consuming fire,
And wasting flame did then burn up
the wicked in his ire.
19 Upon the hill of Horeb they
an idol-calf did frame:
And there the molten image they did worship of the same.
20 Into the likeness of a calf
which feedeth on the grass:
Thus their glory turn'd, and all their honour did deface.
21 And God their onely Saviour
unkindly they forgot:
Which many great and mighty things
in Egypt land had wrought:

The third part.

22 And in the land of Ham for them
most wondrous works had done:
And by the Red sea dreadfull things
performed long ago.
23 Therefore for their so shewing them
forgetfull and unkinde,
To bring destruction on them all
he purpos'd in his minde:
Nad not his chosen Moses stood
before him in the break,
To turn his wraths lest he on them
with slaughter should him wreak.
24 They did despise the pleasant land
that he bethight to give:

Yea, and the words that he had spoke
they did no what beleve.

25 But in their tents with grudging heart
they wickedly repin'd,
Nor to the voice of God the Lord
they gave an hearkning minde.
26 Therefore against them lifted he
his strong revenging hand,
Them to destroy in wilderness
ere they should see the land:
27 And to destroy their seed among
the nations with his rod:
And through the countreys of the world
to scatter them abroad.
28 To Eael Peor then they did adjoyn themselves also:
And ate the offerings of the dead,
so they forsook him tho.
29 Thus with their own inventions
his wrath they did provoke:
And in his fore enkindled wrath
the plague upon them broke.
30 But Phinchas stood up with zeal
the sinners vile to slay:
And judgement he did execute,
and then the plague did slay.

The fourth part.

31 It was imputed unto him
for righteousness that day:
And from thenceforth so counted he
from race to race I say.
32 At waters cle of Meribah
they did him angrie make:
Yea, so far forth, that Moses was then punish'd for their sake.
33 Because they vent his spirit so fere
that in impatient hert
His lips spake unadvisedly,
his fervour was so great.
34 Nor as the Lord commanded them,
they slew the people tho:
35 But were among the heathen mist,
and learn'd their works also.
36 And did their idols serve, which were their rulse and decay:
37 To fiends their sons and daughters they did offer up and slay:
38 Yea, with unkindly murdering knife
the guiltless bloud they spilt:
Yea, their own sons and daughters bloud
without all cause of guilt.
Whom they to Canaan idols then
offred with wicked hand:
And so with bloud of innocents
defiled was the land.
39 Thus were they stained with the works
of their own filthy way:
And with their own inventions
a whoring they did stray.
40 Therefore against his people was the Lords wrath kindled sore:
And ev'n his own inheritance
he did abhor therefore.
41 Into the hands of heathen men
he gave them for a prey,
And made their foes their lords, whom they were forced to obey.

The fifth part.

42 Yea, and their hatefull enemies
oppress them in the land:
And they were humbly made to stoop
as subject to their hand.
43 Full oftentimes from thrall had he delivered them before:
But with their counsels they to wrath
provok'd him evermore.
Therefore they by their wickedness
were brought full low to lie:

- 44 Yet when he saw them in distress;
he heartned to their crye.
45 He call'd to minde his covenant
which he to them had swore:
And by his mercies multitude repented him therefore.
46 And favour he them made to finde:
Before the sight of those
That led them captive from their land,
when erst they were their foes.
47 Save us, O Lord, that art our Gods;
save us, O Lord, we pray:
And from among the heathen folk,
Lord, gather us away.
48 That we may spread the noble praise
of thy most holy name:
That we may glorie in thy praise
and sounding of thy fame.
49 The Lord the God of Israel
be blest for evermore:
Let all the people say, Amen,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Dom. Psal. cvil. IV. R.

- Give thanks unto the Lord our God;
for gracious is he:
And that his mercie hath no end
all mortal men may see.
2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath with thanks shall praise his name:
And shew how they from foes were freed,
and how he wrought the same.
3 He gathered them forth of the lands
that lay so far about:
From east to west, from north to south
his hand did finde them out.
4 They wandered in the wilderness
and strayed from the way,
And found no citie where to dwell,
that serve might for their stay.
5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great
in these deserts so void:
That faintnes did them sore assault,
and eke their souls annoy'd.
6 Then did they crye in their distress
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state
according as they pray'd.
7 And by that way which was most right
he led them like a guide:
That they might to a citie go,
and there also abide.
8 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his goodness then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
9 For he the emptie soul sustein'd,
whom thirst had made to faint:
The hungrie soul with goodness fed,
and did them eke acquaint.
10 Such as do dwell in darkness deep,
where they on death do wait:
Fast bound to take such troublous storms,
as iron chains do threat.

The second part.

- 11 For that against the Lords own words
they sought so to rebell:
Esteeming light his counsels high,
which do so far excell.
12 But when he humbled them full low,
they then fell down with grief:
And none was found so much to help,
whereby to get relief.
13 Then did they crye in their distress
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they pray'd.
14 For he from darkness out them brought,
and from deaths dreadfull shade:

Bursting with force the iron bands
which them before did lade.

- 15 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his kindness then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
16 For he threw down the gates of brass,
and brake them with strong hand;
The iron bars he smote in two,
nothing could him withstand.
17 The foolish folk great plagues do feele,
and cannot from them wend:
But heap on more to those they have
because they do offend.
18 Their soul so much did loath all meat,
that none they could abide:
Whereby death had them almost caught,
as they full truly tri'd.
19 Then did they crye in their distress
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state
according as they pray'd.
20 For then he sent to them his word
which health did soon restore:
And brought them from those dangers deep wherein they were before.

The third part.

- 21 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his kindness then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
22 And let them offer sacrifice
with thanks, and also praise:
And speak of all his wondrous works
with glad and joyfull cheer.
23 Such as in ships and brittle barks
into the seas descend,
Their merchandise through fearfull winds
to compass and to end:
24 Those men are forced to behold
the Lords works what they be:
And in the dangerous deep, the same
most marvellous they see.
25 For at his word the stormie winds
arise in a rage,
And stirreth up the surges so
as nought can them assuage.
26 Then are they lifted up so high,
the clouds they seem to gain:
And plunging down the depth untill,
their souls consume with pain.
27 And like a drunkard to and fro
now here now there they reel,
As men with fear of wit bereft,
or had of sense no feel.
28 Then did they crye in their distress
unto the Lord for aid:
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they pray'd.
29 For with his word the Lord doth make
the sturdie storms to cease:
So that the great waves from their rage
are brought to rest and peace.
30 Then are men glad when rest is come,
which they so much did crave
And are by him in haven brought,
which they so fain would have.

The fourth part.

- 31 Let men therefore before the Lord
confesse his kindness then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.
32 Let them in presence of the folk
with praise extoll his name:
And where the elders do convent,
there let them do the same.
33 For running floods to drie deserts
he doth oft change and turn:

And drieth up as it were dust
the springing well and bourn.
24 A fruitfull land with pleasures deckt
full barren doth he make :
When on their sins that dwell therein
he doth just vengeance take.
35 Again the wilderness full rude
he maketh fruit to bear :
With pleasant springs of waters clear,
though none before were there :
36 Wherein such hungrie souls are set
as he doth freely chuse :
That they a citie may them build
to dwell in for their use.
37 That they may sow their pleasant lands,
and vin-yards also plant,
To yeeld them fruits of such increase,
as none may seem to want.
38 They multiply exceedingly,
the Lord doth blest them for :
Who doth also the brute beasts make
by numbers great to grow.
39 But when the faithfull are low brought
by the oppressours stout,
And minish do through many plagues
that compass them about :
40 Then doth he princes bring to shame
which did them fore oppress :
And likewise caused them to err
within the wilderness.
41 But yet the poor he raiseth up out of his troubles deep :
And oft times doth his train augment,
much like a flock of sheep.
42 The righteous shall behold this sight,
and also much rejoyce :
Whereas the wicked and perverse
with grief shall stop their voice.
43 But who is wise, that now full well
he may these things record ?
For certainly such shall perceive
the kindness of the Lord.

Paratum cor. Psal. cviii. J. H.

O God my heart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is so ;
I will advance my voice in song,
and giving praise also.
Awake my viol and my harp
sweet melodie to make ;
And in the morning I my self
right early will awake.
3 By me among the people : Lord,
still praised shalt thou be :
And I among the heathen folk
will sing, O Lord, to thee.
4 Because thy mercie, Lord, is great
above the heavens high :
And eke thy truth doth reach the clouds
within the lofty skie.
5 Above the starrie heavens high
exalt thy self, O God :
And Lord, display upon the earth
thy glorie, all abroad.
6 That thy dearly beloved may be set at libertie :
Help, O my God, with thy right hand,
and hearken unto me.
7 God in his holiness hath spoke,
wherefore my joys abound :
Sichem I will divide and mete
the vale of Succoth-ground.
8 And Gilead shall be mine own,
Manasses mine shall be :
My head-strength, Ephraim ; and law
shall Judah give for me.
9 Moab my wash-pot, and my shoe
on Edom will I throw :
Upon the land of Palestine
in triumph will I go.

10 Who shall into the citie strong
be guide to conduct me ?
Or how ? by whom to Edom land conveyed shall I be ?
11 Is it not thou, O Lord, which late hadst us forsaken quite ?
And thou, O Lord, which with our bests
didst not go forth to fight ?
12 Give us, O Lord, thy saving aid
when troubles do assaile :
For all the help of man is vaine,
and can no whit avail.
13 Through God we shall do valiant acts
and worthy of renown,
He shall subdue our enemies,
yes, he shall tread them down.

Deus, laudem tuam. Psal. cix. N.

I N speechless silence do not hold,
O God, thy tongue always :
O God, even thou, I say, that art
the God of all my praise.
2 The wicked and the guilefull mouth
on me disclosed be :
And they with false and lying tongues
have spoken unto me.
3 They did beset me round about
with words of hatefull spight :
Without all cause of my desert
against me they did fight.
4 For my good will they were my foes,
but then gan I to pray :
5 My good with ill, my friendliness
with hate they did repay.
6 Set thou the wicked over him,
to have the upper hand :
At his right hand eke suffer thou
his hatefull foe to stand.
7 When he is judged, let him then condemned be therein :
And let the prayer that he makes
be turned into sin.
8 Few be his days, his charge also let thou another take :
9 His children let be fatherless,
his wife a widow make.
10 Let his off-spring be vagabonds,
to beg and seek their bread :
Wandering out of the wasted place
where erst they have been fed.
11 Let covetous extortioners catch all his goods and store :
And let the stranger spoil the fruit
of all his toil before.
12 Let there be none to pity him,
let there be none at all That on his children fatherless
will let their mercy fall.

The second part.

13 And so let his posterity
for ever be destroy'd :
Their name out blotted in the age
that after shall succeed.
14 Let not his fathers wickedness
from Gods remembrance fall :
And let not shou his mothers sin
be done away at all.
15 But in the presence of the Lord
let them remain for aye :
That from the earth their memory
he may cut clean away.
16 Sith mercy he forgot to shew,
but did pursue with spite
The troubled man, and sought to slay
the wofull-hearted wight.
17 As he did cursing love, it shall betide unto him so :
And as he did not blessing love,
it shall be far him fro.

18 As he with curling clad himself,
so it like water shall into his bowels, and like oyl
into his bones befall.

19 As garment let it be to him,
to cover him for aye :
And as a girdle wherewith he shall girded be alway.

20 Lo, let the same be from the Lord
the guerdon of my foe :
Yea, and of those that evil speak against my soul also.

21 But thou, O Lord, that art my God,
deal thou, I say, with me
After thy name, deliver me ;
for good thy mercies be.

22 Because in depth of great distress
I needy am and poor :
And eke within my pained breast
my heart is wounded sore.

The third part.

23 Even so do I depart away,
as doth declining shade :
And as the grasshopper, so I am shaken off and fade.

24 With fasting long from needfull food
enfeebled are my knees :
And all her fatness hath my flesh
enforced been to leese.

25 And I also a vile reproach
to them am made to be :
And they that did upon me look
did shake their heads at me.

26 But thou O Lord, that art my God,
mine aid and succour be :
According to thy mercy, Lord,
save and deliver me.

27 And they shall know thereby, that this (Lord) is thy mighty hand :
And that thou hast done it, Lord,
so shall they understand.

28 Although they curse with spite, yet thou shalt bless with loving voice :
They shall arise and come to shame,
thy servant shall rejoyce.

29 Let them be clothed all with shame,
that enemies are to me :
And with confusion as a cloke
eke covered let them be.

30 But greatly I will with my mouth
give thanks unto the Lord :
And I among the multitude
his praises will record.

31 For he with help at his right hand
will stand the poor man by,
To save him from the man that would condemn his soul to die.

Dixit Dominus. Psal. cx. N.

The Lord did say unto my Lord,
Sit thou on my right hand,
Till I have made thy foes a stool
whereon thy feet shall stand.

2 The Lord shall out of Sion send the sceptre of thy might :
Amid thy mortal foes be thou
the ruler in their sight.

3 And in the day on which thy reign
and power they shall see :
Then hereby free-will-offerings shall
the people offer thee.

Yea, with an holy worshipping
then shall they offer all :
Thy births dew is the dew that doth
from womb of morning fall.

4 The Lord hath sworn, and never will repent what he doth say :
By th' order of Melchisedech
thou art a priest for ay.

5 The Lord thy God, on thy right hand
that standeth for thy stay, Shall wound for thee the stately kings
upon his wrathfull day.

6 The heathen he shall judge, and fill
the place with bodies dead :
And over divers countreys shall
in sunder smite the head.

7 And he shall drink out of the brook
that runneth in the way :
Wherefore he shall lift up on high
his royal head that day.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. cxl. N.

With heart I do accord
To praise and laud the Lord,
In presence of the just.

2 For great his works are founds,
To search them such are bound
As do him love and trust.

3 His works are glorious,
Also his righteousness
It doth endure for ever.

4 His wondrous works he would
We still remember should,
His mercie faileth never.

5 Such as to him love bears,
A portion full fair
He hath up for them hid :

For this they shall well finde,
He will them have in minde,
And keep them as he said.

6 For he did not disdain
His works to shew them plain,
By lightnings and by thunders :

When he the heathens land
Did give into their hand,
Where they beheld his wondrous.

7 Of all his works ensue
Both judgement, right, and truth,
Whereto his statutes tend ;

8 They are decreed sure
For ever to endure,
Which equitie doth end.

Redemption he gave
His people for to save :

9 And hath also required,
His promise not to fail,
But always to prevail :

His holy name be feared.

10 Who so with heart full faine
True wisdom would attain,
The Lord fear and obey :

Such as his laws do keep
Shall knowledge have full deep,
His praise shall last for ay.

Beatus vir. Psal. cxli. W. R.

The man is blest that God doth fear
And that his law doth love indeed :
His seed on earth God will uprear,

And bless such as from him proceed.
3 His house with good he will fulfill,
His righteousness endure shall still.

4 Unto the righteous doth arise
In trouble joy, in darkness light,
Compassion is in his eyes,

And mercie always in his sight.
5 Yea pitie moveth such to lend,
He doth by judgement things expend.

6 And surely such shall never fail,
For in remembrance had is he :

7 No tidings ill can make him quail
Who in the Lord sure hope doth see.

8 His heart is firm, his fear is fast,
For he shall see his foes down cast.

9 He did well for the poor provide,
His righteousness shall still remain :
And his estate with praise abide,

Though that the wicked man disdain.
10 Yea, gnash his teeth thereat shall he,
And so consume his state to see.

Laudate pueri. Psal. cxlii. W.K.

YE children which do serve the Lord,
Praise ye his name with one accord.
2 Yes, blessed be always his names
3 Who from the rising of the sun,
Till it return where it begun,
Is to be praised with great fame.
4 The Lord all people doth surmount;
As for his glorie we may count,
Above the heavens high to be.
5 With God the Lord who may compare,
Whose dwellings in the heavens are?
Of such great power and force is he.
6 He doth abase himself, we know,
Things to behold both here below,
And also in heaven above.
7 The needie out of dust to draw,
And eke the poor which help none saw,
His onely mercie did him move.
8 And so him set in high degree
With princes of great dignitie,
That rule his people with great fame.
9 The barren he doth make to bear,
And with great joy her fruit to rear;
Therefore praise ye his holy name.

In exitu Israel. Psal. cxiv. W.W.

When Israel by Gods address
from Pharaohs land was bent;
And Jacobs house the strangers left,
and in the same train went:
2 In Judah God his glorie shew'd,
his holiness most bright:
So did the Israelites declare his kingdome, power, and might.
3 The sea it saw, and suddenly
as all amaz'd did see:
The roaring streams of Jordans Roud
recoyled backwardly.
4 As rams afraid the mountains skip,
their strength did them forsake;
And as the silly trembling lambs,
their tops did beat and shake.
5 What ail'd thee feare, all amaz'd,
so suddenly to flee?
Ye rolling waves of Jordans Roud,
why ran ye backwardly?
6 Why shook ye hills, as rams afraid?
why did your strength so shake?
Why did your tops, as trembling lambs,
for fear quiver and quake?
7 O earth, confesse thy sovereign Lord,
and dread his mighty hand:
Before the face of Jacobs God
fear ye both sea and land.
8 I mean the God, which from hard rocks
doth cause main floods appeare;
And from the stonie flint doth cause
gush out the fountains cleare.

Non nobis, Domine. Psal. cxv. N.

Not unto us, Lord, not to us,
but to thy name give praise,
Both for thy mercie and thy truth
that are in thee alwayes.
2 Why shall the heathen scorners say,
Where is their God become?
3 Our God in heaven is, and what he will that hath he done.
4 Their idols silver are and gold,
works of mens hands they be:
5 They have a mouth, and do not speak;
and eyes, and do not see:
6 And they have ears joynt to their heads,
and do not hear at all:
And noses eke they formed have
and do not smell withall:

7 And hands they have, and handle not;
and feetband do not go:
A throat they have, yet through the same
they make no sound to blow.
8 Those that make them are like to them,
and those whose trust they be.
9 O Israel trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is he.
10 O Aarons house trust in the Lord,
their help and shield is he:
11 Trust ye the Lord that fear the Lord,
their help and shield is he.
12 The Lord hath mindfull been of us,
and will us blest also:
On Israel and on Aarons house
his blessings he will shew.
13 Them that be feareers of the Lord,
the Lord will blest them all:
Even he will blest them every one,
the great and eke the small.
14 To you (I say) the living Lord
will multiply his grace:
To you and to the children that shall follow of your race.
15 Ye are the blessed of the Lord,
even of the Lord, I say:
Which both the heaven and the earth
hath made and set in stay.
16 The heavens, yea the heavens high belong unto the Lord:
The earth unto the sons of men
he gave of free accord.
17 They that be dead do not with praise
set forth the Lords renown:
Ner any that into the place
of silence do go down.
18 But we will praise the Lord our God
from henceforth and for ay:
Sound ye the praises of the Lord;
praise ye the Lord, I say.

Dilexi quoniam. Psal. cxvi. N.

I Love the Lord, because my voice
and prayer heard hath he:
2 When in my days I call'd on him,
he bow'd his ear to me.
3 Even when the snares of cruel death
about beset me round:
When pains of hell me caught, and when I wo and sorrow found.
4 Upon the name of God my Lord,
then did I call and say,
Deliver thou my soul, O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.
5 The Lord is verie mercifull,
and just he is also:
And in our God compassion
doth plentifully flow.
6 The Lord in Gistie doth preserve
all those that simple be:
I was in wofull miserie,
and he delivered me.
7 And now my soul with thou art safe,
return unto thy rest:
For largely do, the Lord to thee
his bountie hath expresst.
8 Because thou hast delivered
my soul from deadly thrall:
My moistned eyes from mournfull tears,
my sliding feet from fall.
9 Before the Lord I in the land
of life will walk therefore:
10 I did beleve, therefore I spake,
for I was troubled fore.

The second part.

11 I said in my distress and feare,
that all men liars be:
12 What shall I pay the Lord for all his benefits to me?

13 The wholesome cup of living health;
I thankfully will take:
And on the Lords name I will call
when I my prayer make.

14 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I to him beight:

Yea, even at this present time
in all his peoples sight.

15 Right dear and precious in his sight
the Lord doth his esteem

The death of all his holy ones,
what ever men do deem.

16 Thy servant, Lord, thy servant, lo,
I do my self confesse;

Son of thy handmaid: thou hast broke
the bonds of my distress.

17 And I will offer up to thee
a sacrifice of praise:

And I will call upon the name
of God the Lord always.

18 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I have him beight:

Yea, even at this present time
in all his peoples sight,

19 Yea, in the courts of Gods own house,
and in the midst of thee;

O thou Jerusalem, I say;
wherefore the Lord praise ye.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. cxvii. N.

O All ye nations of the world,
praise ye the Lord always:

And all ye people everie where
set forth his noble praise,

2 For great his kindness is to us,
his truth endures for aie:

Wherefore praise ye the Lord our Gods,
praise ye the Lord, I say.

Confitemini. Psal. cxviii. N.

O Give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:

Because his mercie doth endure
for ever towards thee.

2 Let Israel confesse and say,
his mercie dures for aie:

3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
his mercie dures for aie.

4 Let all that fear the Lord our God
even now confesse and say.

The mercie of the Lord our God
endureth still for aie.

5 In trouble and in heaviness
unto the Lord I cry'd:

Which lovingly heard me at large,
my suit was not deny'd.

6 The Lord himself is on my side,
I will not stand in doubt,

Nor fear what man can do to me
when God stands me about.

7 The Lord doth take my part with them
that help to succour me:

Therefore I shall see my desire upon mineemie.

8 Better it is to trust in God
then in mans mortall seed:

9 Or to put confidence in kings
or princes in our need.

10 All nations have enclosed me,
and compassed me round:

But in the name of God shall I mine enemies confound.

11 They kept me in on everie side,
they kept me in, I say:

But in the Lords most mightie name
I shall work their decay.

12 They came about me all like bees;
but yet in the Lords name

I quench their thorns, that were on fire,
and will destroy the same.

The second part.

13 Thou hast with force thrust sore at me
that I indeed might fall:

But through the Lord I found such help
that they were vanquish't all.

14 The Lord is my defence and strength,
my joy, my birth, my song:

He is become for me indeed
a Saviour most strong.

15 The right hand of the Lord our God
doth bring to pass great things:

He causeth voice of joy and health
in righteous mens dwellings.

15 The right hand of the Lord doth bring
most mightie things to pass:

His hand hath the preeminence,
his force is as it was.

17 I shall not die, but ever live
to utter and declare

The Lord his might and wondrous power,
his works, and what they are.

18 The Lord himself hath chastened
and hath corrected me:

But hath not given me over yet
to death, as ye may see.

19 Set open unto me the gates of truth and righteousness:

That I may enter into them
the Lords praise to express.

20 This is the gate even of the Lord,
which shall not so be shut;

But good and righteous men alway
shall enter into it.

The third part.

21 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord,
because thou hast heard me.

And art become most lovingly
a Saviour unto me.

22 The stone which ere this time among
the builders was refused,

Is now become the corner-stone,
and chiefly to be used.

23 This was the mightie work of Gods,
this was the Lords own fact:

And it is marvellous to behold
with eyes that noble art.

24 This is the joyfull day indeed
which God himself hath wrought:

Let us be glad and joy therein
in heart, in minde, in thought.

25 Now help us, Lord, and prosper us,
we with with one accord.

25 Blessed is he that comes to us
in the name of the Lord.

27 God is the Lord that shews us light,
binde ye therefore with cord

Your sacrifice to the altar,
and give thanks to the Lord.

28 Thou art my God, I will confesse,
and render thanks to thee:

Thou art my God, and I will praise
thy mercie towards me.

29 O give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:

Because his mercie doth endure
for ever towards me.

Beati immaculati. Psal. cxix. VV. VV.

Blessed are they that perfect are,
and pure in minde and heart:

Whose lives and conversations
from Gods laws never part.

2 Blessed are they that give themselves
his statutes to observe:

Seeking the Lord with all their heart,
and never from him swerve.

- 3 Doubtless such men go not astray
nor do no wicked thing;
Which stedfastly walk in his way
without any wandering.
- 4 It is thy will and commandment,
that with attentive heed
Thy noble and divine precepts
we learn and keep indeed.
- 5 O would to God it might thee please
my ways so to address.
That I might both in heart and voice
thy laws keep and confess!
- 6 So should no shame my life attain,
whilst I thus set mine eyes;
And bend my mind always to muse
on thy sacred decrees.
- 7 Then will I praise with upright heart,
and magnify thy name,
When I shall learn thy judgements just,
and likewise prove the same.
- 8 And wholly will I give my self
to keep thy laws most right:
For sake me not for ever, Lord,
but shew thy grace and might.

BETH. The second part.

- 9 By what means may a young man best
his life learn to amend?
If that he mark and keep thy word,
and therein his time spend.
- 10 Unfeignedly I have thee sought,
and thus seeking abide:
O never suffer me, O Lord,
from thy precepts to slide.
- 11 Within my heart and secret thoughts
thy words I have hid still:
That I might not any time offend thy godly will.
- 12 We magnify thy name, O Lord,
and praise thee evermore!
Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
O Lord, teach me therefore.
- 13 My lips have never ceas'd to preach
and publish day and night
The judgements all which did proceed
from thy mouth full of might.
- 14 Thy testimonies and thy ways
please me no less indeed
Then all the treasures of the earth,
which worldlings make their meed.
- 15 Of thy precepts I will still muse,
and thereto frame my talk:
As at a mark so will I aim
thy ways how I may walk.
- 16 My only joy shall be to sit,
and on thy laws to set:
That nothing can me so far blind,
that I thy words forget.

GIMEL. The third part.

- 17 Grant to thy servant now such grace
as may my life prolong:
Thy holy word then will I keep both in my heart and tongue.
- 18 Mine eyes which were dim and shut up,
so open and make bright:
That of thy law and marvellous works
I may have the clear light.
- 19 I am a stranger in this earth,
wandering now here now there:
Thy word therefore to me disclose
my footsteps for to clear.
- 20 My soul is ravish'd with desire,
and never is at rest:
But seeks to know thy judgements high,
and what may please thee best.
- 21 The proud men and malicious
thou hast destroy'd each one;
And cursed are such as do not thy oaths attend upon.

- 22 Lord turn from me rebuke and shame
which wicked men conspire:
For I have kept thy covenants
which zeal as hot as fire.
- 23 The princes great in counsel sit,
and did against me speak:
But then thy servant thought how he thy statutes might not break.
- 24 For why? thy covenants are my joys,
and my hearts great solace:
They serve in stead of counsellors
my matters for to pass.

DALETH. The fourth part.

- 25 I am, alas, as brought to grave,
and almost turn'd to dust:
Restore therefore my life again,
as thy promise is just.
- 26 My ways when I acknowledged,
with mercy thou didst hear:
Hear now oftsoon, and me instruct thy laws to love and fear.
- 27 Teach me once thoroughly for to know
thy precepts and thy lore
Thy works then will I meditate,
and lay them up in store.
- 28 My soul I feel so sore oppress'd,
that it melteth for grief:
According to thy word therefore haste, Lord, to send relief.
- 29 From lying and deceitfull lips
let thy grace me defend:
And that I may learn thee to love,
thy holy law me send.
- 30 The way of truth both straight and sure
I have chosen and found:
I set thy judgements me before
which keep me safe and sound.
- 31 Since then, O Lord, I forc'd my self
thy covenants to embrace:
Let me therefore have no rebuke
nor check in any case.
- 32 Then will I run with joyfull cheer
where thy word doth me call:
When thou hast set my heart at large,
and rid me out of thrall.

HE. The fifth part.

- 33 Instruct me, Lord, in the right trade
of thy statutes divine:
And it to keep even to the end
my heart will I incline.
- 34 Grant me the knowledge of thy law
and I shall it obey:
With heart and mind and all my might
I will it keep, I say.
- 35 In the right paths of thy precepts
guide me, Lord, I require:
None other pleasure do I wish,
nor greater thing desire.
- 36 Incline my heart thy laws to keep,
and covenants to embrace:
And from all filthy avarice,
Lord, defend me with thy grace.
- 37 From vain desires and worldly lusts
turn back mine eyes and sight:
Give me the spirit of life and power
to walk thy ways aright.
- 38 Confirm thy gracious promise, Lord,
which thou hast made to me,
Which am thy servant, and do love
and fear nothing but thee.
- 39 Reproach and shame which I so fear,
from me, O Lord, expell:
For thou dost judge with equitie,
and therein dost excell.
- 40 Behold my hearts desire is bent
thy laws to keep foray:
Lord, strengthen me so with thy grace
that it perform I may.

Y A Y. The sixth part.

- 41 Thy mercies great and manifold
let me obtain, O Lord :
Thy saving health let me enjoy,
according to thy word.
- 42 So shall I stop the slanderous mouths
of lewd men and unjust :
For in thy faithful promises
stands my comfort and trust.
- 43 The word of truth within my mouth
let ever still be prest :
For in thy judgements wonderfull
my hope doth stand and rest.
- 44 And whilst that breath within my breast
doth natural life preserve :
Yea, till this world shall be dissolv'd,
thy law will I observe.
- 45 So walk will I as set at large,
and made free from all dread :
Because I sought how for to keep
thy precepts and thy read.
- 46 Thy noble acts I will describe,
as things of most great fame :
Even before kings I will them blaze,
and think no whit for shame.
- 47 I will rejoyce them to obey
thy worthy hefts and will ;
Which evermore I have lov'd best,
and so will love them still.
- 48 My hands I will lift to thy laws
which I have dearly sought :
And praise thy commandments
in will, in deed, in thought.

Z A I N. The seventh part.

- 49 Thy promise which thou mad'st to me
thy servant, Lord, remember :
For therein have I put my trust
and confidence for ever.
- 50 It is my comfort and my joy
when troubles me assail :
For were my life not by thy word,
my life would soon me fail.
- 51 The proud and such as God condemns
still made of me a scorn :
Yet would I not thy law forsake,
as he that were forlorn :
- 52 But call'd to minde, Lord, thy great works
shew'd to our fathers old :
Whereby I felt the joy surmount
my grief an hundred fold.
- 53 But yet, alas, for fear I quake,
seeing how wicked men
Thy law forsook and did procure thy judgements who knows when ?
- 54 And as for me, I fram'd my songs
thy statutes to exalt,
When I among the strangers dwelt,
and thoughts can me assault.
- 55 I thought upon thy name, O Lord,
by night when others sleep :
As for thy law also I kept,
and ever will it keep.
- 56 This grace I did obtain, because thy covenants sweet and dear
I did embrace, and also keep with reverence and with fear.

H E T H. The eighth part.

- 57 O God which art my part and lot,
my comfort and my stay :
I have decreed and promised
thy law to keep alway.
- 58 Mine earnest heart did humbly sue
in presence of thy face :
As thou therefore hast promised,
Lord, grant me of thy grace.
- 59 My life I have examined,
and tri'd my secret heart

- Which to thy statutes caused me
my feet straight to convert.
- 60 I did not slay nor linger long,
as they that slothfull are :
But hastily thy laws to keep
I did my self prepare.
- 61 The cruel bands of wicked men
have made of me their prey :
Yet would I not thy law forget,
nor from thee go astray.
- 62 Thy righteous judgements towards me
so great are and so high :
That even at midnight will I rise
thy name to magnifie.
- 63 Companion am I to all them
Which fear thee in their heart :
And never will for love nor dread
from thy commandments start.
- 64 Thy mercies, Lord, most pleasantly
do all the world fulfill :
O teach me how I may obey
thy statutes and thy will.

T E T H. The ninth part.

- 65 According to thy promise, Lord,
so hast thou with me dealt :
For of thy grace in sundry sorts
have I thy servant felt.
- 66 Teach me to judge always rightly,
and give me knowledge sure :
For certainly believe I do,
that thy precepts are pure.
- 67 Ere thou didst touch me with thy rods
I err'd and went astray :
But now I keep thy holy word,
and make it all my stay.
- 68 Thou art both good and gracious,
and giv'st most liberally ;
Thine ordinances how to keep,
therefore, O Lord, teach me.
- 69 The proud and wicked men have forg'd
against me many a lie :
Yet thy commandments still observe
with all my heart will I.
- 70 Their hearts are swollen with worldly
as grease so are they fat :
But in thy law do I delight,
and nothing seek but that.
- 71 O happy time, may I well say,
when thou didst me correct :
For as a guide to learn thy laws
thy rod did me direct.
- 72 So that to me thy word and law
is dearest manifold
Then thousands great of silver and gold or ought that can be told.

J O D. The tenth part.

- 73 Seeing thy hands have made me, Lord,
to be thy creature :
Grant knowledge likewise how to learn
to put thy laws in ore.
- 74 So they that fear thee shall rejoyce
when ever they me see :
Because I have learn'd by thy word
to put my trust in thee.
- 75 When with thy rods the world is plagu'd
I know the cause is just :
So when thou dost correct me, Lord,
the cause just needs be must.
- 76 Now of thy goodness I thee pray
some comfort to me send :
As thou to me hast promised
so from all ill me shend.
- 77 Thy tender mercies pour on me,
and I shall surely live :
For joy and consolation both thy law to me doth give.
- 78 Confound the proud, whose false pretence
is me for to destroy :

But as for me thy helps to know
I will my self employ.

79 Whofo with reverence do thee fear
to me let them r-tive:

And ſuch as do thy covenants know,
and them alone deſire.

80 My heart without all wavering
let on thy laws be bent:

That no confuſion come to me
whereby I ſhould beſhent.

C A P H. The xi part.

81 My ſoul doth faint, and ceaſeth not thy ſaving health-to crave:

And for thy words ſake ſtill I truſt
my hearts deſire to have.

82 Mine eyes do fail with looking for thy word, and thus I ſay,

Oh when wilt thou me comfort, Lord?
why doſt thou thus delay?

83 As a ſkin-bottle in the ſmoke,
ſo am I patcht and drit'd:

Yet will I not out of my heart
let thy commandments ſlide.

84 Alas how long ſhall I yet live
before I ſee the hour,

That on my ſoes which me torment,
thy vengeance thou wilt pour?

85 Preſumptuous men have digg'd pits,
thinking to make me ſure:

Thus contrary againſt thy law,
my hurt they do procure.

86 But thy commandments are all true,
and cauſeſt they me griefe:

To thee therefore I do complain,
that thou mightſt me relieve.

87 Almoſt they had me clean deſtroy'd,
and brought me quite to ground:

Yet by thy ſtatutes I abode,
and therein ſuccour found.

88 Reſtore me, Lord, again to life,
for thy mercies excell:

And ſo ſhall I thy covenants keep till death my life expell.

L A M E D. The xii part.

89 In heaven, Lord, where thou doſt dwell,
thy word is ſtabliſht ſure:

And ſhall for all eternitie
faſt graven there endure.

90 From age to age thy truth abides,
as doth the earth witneſs:

Whoſe ground-work thou haſt laid ſo ſure,
as no tongue can expreſs.

91 Even to this day we may well ſee
how all things perſevere.

According to thine ordinance,
for all things thee revere.

92 Had it not been that in thy law
my ſoul had comfort ſought,

Long time ere now in my diſtreſs
I had been brought to nought.

93 Therefore will I thy precepts aye
in memory keep faſt:

By them thou haſt my life reſtor'd
when I was at laſt-caſt.

94 No wight to me can title make,
for I am onely thine:

Save me therefore, for to thy laws
mine ears and heart incline.

95 The wicked men do ſeek my bane,
and thereto lie in wait:

But I the while conſidered
thy noble words and great.

96 I ſee nothing in this wide world
at length which hath not end:

But thy commandments and thy word
beyond all end extend.

M E M. The xiii part.

97 What great deſire and fervent love
do I bear to thy law!

All the day long my whole device
is onely on thy law.

98 Thy word hath taught me far to paſs
my ſoes in policie:

For ſtill I hold it as a thing
of moſt excellencie.

99 My teachers which did me inſtru&,
in knowledge I excell:

Be cauſe I do thy covenants keep,
and them to others tell.

100 In wiſdome I do paſs alſo
the ancient men indeed:

And alſo be cauſe to keep thy laws
I held it aye beſt need.

101 My feet I have refrained eke
from every evil way,

Be cauſe that I continually
thy word might keep, I ſay.

102 I have not ſwerv'd from thy judgements,
nor yet ſhrunk any deſt:

For why? thou haſt me taught thereby
to live godly and well.

103 O Lord, how ſweet unto my taſte
finde I thy words alway?

Doubtleſs no honey in my mouth
feell ought ſo ſweet I may.

104 Thy laws have me ſuch wiſdome learn'd
that utterly I hate

All wicked and ungodly ways,
in every kinde or rate.

N U N. The xiiii part.

105 Even as a lantern to my feet,
ſo doth thy word ſhine bright;

And to my paths where ever I go
it is a flaming light.

106 I have both ſworn and will perform
moſt certainly doubtleſs

That I will keep thy judgements juſt,
and them in life expreſs.

107 A miſerion hath me fore oppreſs,
and brought me to deaths door:

O Lord, as thou haſt promiſed,
ſo me to life reſtore.

108 The offerings which with heart and voice
moſt frankly I thee give

Accept, and teach me how I may after thy judgements live.

109 My ſoul is aye ſo in my hand,
that dangers me aſſail:

Yet do I not thy law forget,
nor it to keep will fail.

110 Although the wicked laid their nets
to catch me at a bay,

Yet did I not from thy precepts
once ſwerve or go aſtray.

111 Thy law I have ſo claim'd alway
as mine own heritage:

And why? for therein I delight,
and ſet my whole courage.

112 For evermore I have been bent
thy ſtatutes to fulfill:

Even ſo likewiſe unto the end
I will continue ſtill.

S A M E C H. The xv part.

113 The crafty thoughts and double hearts
I do alway deteſt:

But as for thy law and precepts,
I love them ever beſt.

114 Thou art my hid and ſecret place,
my ſhield of ſtrong defence:

Therefore have I thy promiſes
lookt for with patience.

115 Go to therefore ye wicked men,
depart from me anon:

For the commandments will I keep
of God my Lord alone.

116 As thou hast promised so perform,
that death me not assail:
Nor let my hope abuse me so,
that through distrust, I quail.

117 Uphold me, and I shall be safe
for ought they do or say:
And in thy statutes pleasure take will I both night and day.

118 Thou hast trod such under thy feet
as do thy statutes break:
For nought avails their subtilties,
their counsel is but weak.

119 Like drofs thou casts the wicked out
where ere they go or dwell:
Therefore can I as thy statutes
love nothing half so well.

120 My flesh (alas) is taken with fear,
as though it were benumm'd:
For when I see thy judgements, straight
I am as one aston'd.

AL N. The xvi part.

121 I do the thing that lawfull is,
and give to all men right, Resigne me not to them that would oppress me with their might.

122 But for thy servant suretie be in that thing that is good:
That proud men give me not the foils,
which rage as they were wood.

123 Mine eyes with waiting are now blinde,
thy health so much I crave:
And eke thy righteous promise, Lord,
whereby thou wilt me save.

124 Entreat thy servant lovingly,
and favour to him show:
Thy statutes of most excellencie
teach me also to know.

125 Thy humble servant, Lord, I am,
grant me to understand How by thy statutes I may know best what to take in hand.

125 It is now time, Lord, to begin,
for truth is quite decay'd:
Thy law likewise they have transgress'd,
and none against them fid.

127 This is the cause wherefore I love
thy laws better then gold.
Or jewels fine which are esteem'd
most costly to be sold.

128 I thought thy precepts all most just,
and so them laid in store:
All craftie and malicious ways
I do abhor therefore.

P E. The xvii part.

129 Thy covenants are most wonderfull,
and full of things profound:
My soul therefore doth keep them sure,
when they are try'd and found.

130 When men first enter into thy word
they finde a light most clear:
And very idiots understand
when they it read or hear.

131 For joy I have both gap'd and breath'd
to know thy commandment:
That I might guide my self thereby,
I sought what thing it meant.

132 With mercy and compassion, Lord,
behold me from above.
As thou art wont to behold such as thy name feare and love.

133 Direct my footsteps by thy word,
that I thy will may know:
And never let iniquitie
thy servant overthrow.

134 From slanderous tongues & deadly harms
preserve and keep me sure:

Thy precepts then will I observe,
and put them eke in ure.

135 Thy countenance which doth surmount
the sun in his bright hue,
Let shine on me, and by thy law
teach me what to eschew.

136 Out of mine eyes great floods gush out of dreary tears and fell:
When I behold how wicked men
thy laws keep never a dell.

Z A D E. The xviii part.

137 In every point, Lord, thou art just,
the wicked though they grudge:
And when thou dost sentence pronounce,
thou art a righteous Iudge.

138 To render right, and flee from guile,
are two chief points most high:
And such as thou hast in thy law
commanded us straitly.

139 With zeal and wrath I am consum'd
and even pin'd away:
To see my foes thy word forget,
for ought that I do may.

140 So pure and perfect is thy word:
as any heart can deem:
And I thy servant nothing more
do love or yet esteem.

141 And though I be nothing set by,
as one of base degree:
Yet do I not thy laws forget,
nor shrink away from thee.

142 Thy righteousness, Lord, is most just,
for ever to endure:
Also thy law is truth it self,
most constant and most pure.

143 Trouble and grief have fix'd on me,
and brought me wondrous low:
Yet do I still of thy precepts
delight to hear and know.

144 The righteousness of thy judgements
doth last for evermore:
Then teach them me, for even in them
my life lies up in store.

K O P M. The xix part.

145 With fervent heart I call'd and cri'd,
now answer me, O Lord:
That thy commandments to observe
I may fully accord.

146 To thee, my God, I make my suit
with most humble requests:
Save me therefore, and I will keep thy precepts and thy hests.

147 To thee I crie even in the morn
before the day wax light:
Because that I have in thy word
my confidence whole plight.

148 Mine eyes prevent the watch by night
and ere they call I wake:
That by deviling on thy word
I might some comfort take.

149 Incline thine ears to hear my voice,
and pity on me take:
As thou wast wont, so judge me Lord,
lest life should me forsake.

150 My foes draw near, and do procure
my death maliciously,
Which from thy law are far gone back,
and stray'd from it lowly.

151 Therefore, O Lord, approach thou neare
for need doth so require:
For all thy precepts true they are,
then help I thee desire.

152 But thy commandments have I learn'd
not now but long ago:
That they remain for evermore,
thou hast them groundd so.

RESH. The xx part.

- 153 My trouble and ambition
consider and behold :
Deliver me, for of thy law
I ever take fast hold.
- 154 Defend my good and righteous cause,
with speed some succour send :
From death, as thou hast promised,
Lord keep me and defend.
- 155 As for the wicked, far they are
from having health and grace :
Whereby they might thy statutes know
they enter not the trace.
- 156 Great are thy mercies, Lord, I grant,
what tongue can them attain ?
And as thou hast me judg'd are now,
so let me life obtain.
- 157 Though many men did trouble me,
and persecute me sore :
Yet from thy laws I never shrunk,
nor went awry therefore.
- 158 And truth it is, for grief I die
when I these traitours see :
Because they keep no whit thy words,
nor yet seek to know thee.

- 159 Behold, for I do love, thy laws
with heart most glad and fain :
As thou art good and gracious, Lord,
restore my life again.
- 160 What thy word doth decree must be,
and so it hath been ever :
Thy righteous judgements are also most true and decay never.

SCHEIN. The xxi part.

- 161 Princes have sought by cruelty
causeless to make me crouch :
But all in vain, for of thy word
the fear did my heart touch :
- 162 And certainly even of thy word
I was more merry and glad,
Then he that of rich spoils and prey
great store and plenty had.
- 163 As for all lies and falsties,
I hate most and detest :
For why ? thy holy law do I above all things love best.
- 164 Seven times a day I praise the Lord,
singing with heart and voice :
Thy righteous acts and wonderfull
so cause me to rejoyce.
- 165 Great peace and rest shall all such have
as do thy statutes love :
No danger shall their quiet state
empair or once remove.
- 166 My onely health and comfort, Lord,
I look for at thy hand :
And therefore have I done these things
which thou didst me command.
- 167 Thy laws have been mine exercise,
which my soul most desired :
So much to them my love was bent,
that nought else I required.
- 168 Thy statutes and commandments
I kept (thou know'st) aright :
For all the things that I have done
are present in thy sight.

TAV. The xxii part.

- 169 O Lord, let my complaint and cry
before thy face appear :
And as thou hast me promise made,
so teach me thee to fear.
- 170 Mine humble supplication
toward thee let made access :
And grant me, Lord, deliverance,
for so is thy promise.
- 171 Then shall my lips thy praises speak
after most ample sort :
When thou thy statutes hast me taught,
wherein stands my comfort.

Psalm cxix.

- 172 My tongue shall sing & preach thy word
and on his wife sy shall,
Gods famous acts and noble laws
are just and perfect all.
- 173 Stretch out thy hand, I thee beseech,
and speedily me save :
For thy commandments to observe chosen, O Lord, I have.
- 174 Of thee alone, Lord, I crave health,
for other I know none :
And in thy law and nothing else
I do delight alone.
- 175 Grant me therefore long days to live
thy name to magnifie :
And of thy judgements mercifull
let me the favour trie.
- 176 For I was lost and went astray
much like a wandering sheep :
Oh seek me for I have not fail'd
thy commandments to keep.

Ad Dominum. Psal. cxix. T.S.

- I N trouble and in thrall Unto the Lord I call,
And he doth me comfort.
- 2 Deliver me, I say,
From liars lips alway,
And tongues of false report.
- 3 What vantage, or what thing
Gett'st thou thus for to sing,
Thou false and flattering liar ?
- 4 Thy tongue doth hurt I ween,
No less then arrows keen,
Or hot consuming fire.
- 5 Alas, too long I slect
Within these tents so black,
Which Kedars are by name,
By whom the flock elect
And all of Isaacs seed
Are put to open shame.
- 6 With them that peace did hate
I came a peace to make
And let a quiet life :
But when my tale was told,
Causeless I was controld
By them that would have strife.

Levavi oculos. Psal. cxix. W. W.

- I Lift mine eyes to Sion hill,
From whence I do attend
That succour God me send.
- 2 The mighty God me succour will,
Which heaven and earth framed,
And all things therein named.
- 3 Thy foot from slip he will preserve;
And will thee safely keep,
For he will never sleep.
- 4 Lo he that doth Israel conserve
No sleep at all can him catch,
But his eyes shall ever watch.
- 5 The Lord is thy warrant alway,
The Lord eke doth thee cover
As at thy right hand ever :
- 6 The sun shall not thee parch by day,
Nor the moon not half so bright
shall with cold thee hurt by night.
- 7 The Lord will keep thee from distress,
And will thy life are save :
- 8 And thou shalt also have
In all thy business good success,
Where ever thou goest in or out,
God will thy things bring about.

Latatus sum. Psal. cxix. W. K.

- I Did in heart rejoyce
To hear the peoples voice,
In offering so willingly :

For let us up say they,
And in the Lords house pray :
Thus spake the folk full lovingly.
Our feet that wandred wide shall in thy gates abide,
O thou Jerusalem full faire
Which art so seemly set,
Much like a city neat.
The like whereof is not elsewhere.
The tribes with one accord,
The tribes of God the Lord
Are thither bent their way to take :
So God before did tell
That there his Israel
Their prayers should together make.
For there are thrones set;
And that for this respect.
To set forth justice orderly:
Which thrones right to maintain
To Davids house pertain
His folk to judge accordingly.
To pray let us not cease
For Jerusalem peace,
Thy friends God prosper mightily :
Peace be thy walls about,
And prosper thee throughout
Thy palaces continually.
I wish thy prosperous state
For my poor brethens sake,
that comfort have by means of thee;
Gods house doth me allure
Thy wealth for to procure
So much always as lies in me.

Ad te levavi. Psal. cxiii. T. S.

O Lord, that heaven dost possess,
I lift mine eyes to thee :
Even as the servant lifteth his,
his masters hands to see.
As hand-maid do watch their mistresses hand
some grace for to achieve :
So we behold the Lord our God,
till he do us forgive.
Lord grant us thy compassion,
and mercy in thy sight:
For we are fill'd and overcome
with hatred and despite.
Our minds be flust with great rebuke,
the rich and worldly wise
Do make of us their mocking stocks,
the proud do us despise.

Nisi quis Dom. Psal. cxiv. W. W.

Now Israel
may say and that truly,
If that the Lord
had not our cause maintain'd,
If that the Lord
had not our right sustain'd,
When all the world
against us furiously Made their uproars
and said we should all die.
Now long ago
they had devour'd us all,
And swallow'd quick,
for ought that we could deem :
Such was their rage,
as we might well esteem.
And as the floods
with mighty force do fall :
So had they now
our lives even brought to thrall.
The raging streams,
most proud in roaring noise,
Had long ago
orewhelm'd us in the deep :
But lov'd be God
which doth us safely keep.

From bloody teeth
and their most cruel voices
Which as a prey
to eat us would rejoyce.

7 Even as a bird
out of the fowlers grin Escapes away,
right so it fares with us
Broke are their nets,
and we have escap'd thus.
8 God that made heaven
and earth is our help then :
His name hath sav'd
us from these wicked men.

Qui confidant. Psal. cxv. W. R.

Such as in God the Lord do trust,
As mount Sion shall firmly stand,
And be removed at no hand.
The Lord will count them right and just :
So that they shall be sure
For ever to endure.

2 As mightie mountains huge and great Jerusalem about do close :
So will the Lord do unto those Who on his godly will do wait :
Such are to him so dear,
They never need to fear.

3 For though the righteous trie doth he
By making wicked men his rod,
Lest they through grief forsake their Gods
It shall not as their lot still be.
4 Give Lord to us thy light,
Whose hearts are true and right.

5 But as for such as turn aside
By crooked ways which they out sought,
The Lord will surely bring to nought :
With workers vile they shall abide :
But peace with Israel
For evermore shall dwell.

Another of the same. by R. W.

Those that do put their confidence
Upon the Lord our God onely,
And due to him for their defence
In all their need and misery :
Their faith is sure still to endure,
Grounded on Christ the corner-stone, Mov'd with none ill, but standeth still steadfast like to the mount Sion.

And as about Jerusalem
The mighty hills do it compass,
So that no enemies come to them
To hurt that town in any case :
So God indeed in every need
His faithful people doth defend,
Standing them by assuredly
From this time forth world without end.

Right wise and good is our Lord God,
And will not suffer certainly
The sinners and ungodlies rod
To lury upon his family :
Lest they also from God should go,
Falling to sin and wickedness.
O Lord defend world without end
Thy Christian flock through thy goodness.

O Lord do good to Christians all
That steadfast in thy word abide :
Such as willingly from God fall,
And to false doctrine daily slide,
Such will the Lord scatter abroad
With hypocrites throwne down to hell,
God will them send pains without end
But Lord grant peace to Israel.

Glory to God the Father of might :
And to the son our Saviour.
And to the holy Ghost whose light
Shine in our hearts and us succour :
That the right way from day to day
We may walk and him glorify :

With

With hearts desire all that are here
Worship the Lord, and say, Amen.

In convertens. Psal. cxv. W.W.

When that the Lord
again his Sign had forth brought:
From bondage great,
and also servitude extreme:
His work was such
as did surmount mans heart and thought
So that we were much like to them that use to dream.
Our mouthes were
with laughter filled then,
And eke our tongues
did shew us joyfull men.

The heathen folk
were forced then this to confesse,
Now that the Lord
for them also great things had done.

But much more we,
and therefore can confesse no less:
Wherefore to joy
we have good cause as we begun,

O Lord, go forth,
thou canst our bondage end:
As to deserts
the flowing rivers send.

Full true it is that they which sow in tears indeed,
A time will come
when they shall reap in mirth and joy.

They went and wept
in bearing of their precious seed,
For that their foes
full oftentimes did them annoy:

But their return
with joy they shall sure see,
Their sheaves home bring,
and nor empared be.

Nisi Dom. Psal. cxvii. W.W.

Except the Lord the house doth make,
And thereunto doth set his hand:
What men do build it cannot stand.
Likewise in vain men undertake
Cities and holds to watch and ward,
Except the Lord be their safeguard.

Though ye rise early in the morn,
And so at night go late to bed,
Feeding full hardly with browne bread,
Yet were your labour lost and worn:
But they whom God doth love and keep Receive all things with quiet sleep.

Therefore mark well when ever ye see
That men have heirs to enjoy their land,
It is the gift of Gods own hand:

For God himself doth multiply
Of his great liberality
The blessing of posterity.

And when the children come to age
They grow in strength and aduents,
In person and in comeliness:

So that 't is shaft shot with courage
Of one that hath a most strong arm,
Flies not so swift, nor doth like harm.

O well is he that hath his quiver
Furnish with such artillerie:
For when in peril he shall be,

Such one shall never shoke nor shiver,
When that he pleads before the Iudge
Against his foes that bear him grudge.

Beati omnes. Psal. cxviii. T. S.

Blessed art thou that fearest God
and walkest in his way:

For of thy labour thou shalt eat,
happy art thou, I say.

Live fruitfull vines on thy house side
so doth thy wife spring out:

Thy children stand like olive-plants
thy table round about.

Thus art thou blest that fearest God,
and he shall let thee see

The promised Jerusalem
and her felicity.

Thou shalt thy childrens children see
to thy great joys increase:
And likewise grace on Israel,
prosperity and peace.

Sape ex magna. Psal. cxix. N.

Oft they (now Israel may say)
me from my youth assailed:

Oft they assailed me from my youth,
yet never they prevail'd.

Upon my back the plowers plow'd,
and furrows long did cast:

The righteous Lord hath cut the cords
of wicked foes at last.

They that hate me shall be ashamed,
and turned back also:

And made as grass upon the house,
which withereth ere it grow:

Where of the mower cannot finde
enough to fill his hand:

Nor can he fill his lap that goeth
to glean upon the land.

Nor passers by pray God on them
to let his blessing fall:

Nor say, We bless you in the name
of God the Lord at all.

De profundis. Psal. cxix. W.W.

Lord to thee I make my moan
when dangers me oppress:

I call, I sigh, plain and groan,
trusting to finde release.

Hear now, O Lord, my request,
for it is full due time:

And let thine ears aye be prest
unto this prayer mine.

O Lord our God, if thou weigh
our sins and them peruse:

Who shall then escape, and say,
I can my self excuse?

But, Lord, thou art mercifull,
and turn'st to us thy grace,
That we with hearts most careful
should fear before thy face.

In God I put my whole trust:
my soul waits on his will:

For his promise is most iust,
and I hope therein still.

My soul to God hath regard,
wishing for him alway

More then they that watch and ward
to see the dawning day.

Let Israel then boldly
in the Lord put his trust:

He is that God of mercy
that his deliver mult.

For he it is that mult save
Israel from his sin,

And all such as surely have their confidence in him.

Domine, non est. Psal. cxxi. A.

O Lord I am not put in minde,
I have no scornfull eye:

I do not exercise my self
in things that be too high.

But as the childe that weaned is even from his mothers breast:

So have I, Lord, behav'd my self
in silence and in rest.

O Israel, trust in the Lords,
let him be all thy try.

From this time forth for evermore
from age to age, I say.

Memento Dom. Psal. cxxiii. M.

Remember Davids troubles, Lord,
how to the Lord he swore,
2 And vow'd a vow to Jacobs God,
to keep for evermore:
3 I will not come within my house,
nor climb up to my bed:
4 Nor let my temples take their rest,
nor the eyes in my head,
5 Till I have found out for the Lord
a place to sit thereon:
An house for Jacobs God to be an habitation.
6 We heard of it at Ephrata,
there did we hear this sound:
And in the fields and forests there
these voices first were found.
7 We will assay and go in now
his tabernacle there,
Before his foot stood to fall down,
and worship him in fear.
8 Arise, O Lord, arise I say,
into thy resting-place:
Both thou and the ark of thy strength,
the presence of thy grace.
9 Let all thy priests be clothed, Lord,
with truth and righteousness:
Let all thy saints and holy men
sing all with joyfulness.
10 And for thy servant Davids sake,
refuse not, Lord, I say,
The face of thine anointed, Lord,
nor turn thy face away.

The second part.

11 The Lord to David swore in truth,
and will not shrink from it, Saying, the fruit of thy body
upon thy seat shall sit.
12 And if thy sons my covenant keep that I shall learn each one:
Then shall their sons for ever sit upon thy princely throne.
13 The Lord himself hath chose Sion,
and loves therein to dwell,
14 Saying, This is my resting-place,
I love and like it well.
15 And I will bless with great increase her victuals every where:
And I will satisfy with bread
the needy that be there.
15 Yea, I will deck and clothe her priests
with my salvation:
And all her saints shall sing for joy
of my protection.
17 There will I surely make the horn
of David forth to bud:
For there I have ordain'd for mine
a lantern bright and good.
18 As for his enemies, I will clothe
with shame for evermore:
But I will cause his crown to shine
more fresh then heretofore.

Esce quam. Psal. cxxiii. IV. IV.

O How happy a thing it is,
and joyfull for to see,
Brethren together fast to hold
the bond of amity!
2 It calls to minde that sweet perfume
and that costly ointment
Which on the sacrificers head
by Gods precept was spent.
It wet not Aarons head alone,
but drencht his beard throughout,
And finally it did run down
his rich attire about.
3 And as the lower ground doth drink
the dew of Hermon hill,

And Sion with his silver drops
the fields with fruit doth fill:
4 Even so the Lord doth pour on them
his blessings manifold, Whose hearts and minds without all guile
this knot do keep and hold.

Ecce nunt. Psal. cxxiv. IV. IV.

Behold and have regard,
ye servants of the Lord,
Which in his house by night do watch:
praise him with one accord.
2 Lift up your hands on high unto his holy place,
And give the Lord his praises due,
his benefits embrace.
3 For why? the Lord who did
both earth and heaven frame, Doth Sion bless and will conserve
for evermore the same.

Laudate women. Psal. cxxv. N.

O Praise the Lord, praise him, praise him,
praise him with one accord:
O praise him still all ye that be
the servants of the Lord:
2 O praise him ye that stand and be in the house of the Lord:
Ye of his court, and of his house,
praise him with one accord.
3 Praise ye the Lord for he is good,
sing praises to his name:
It is a comely and good thing
always to do the same.
4 For why? the Lord hath chose Jacob
his very own ye see:
So hath he chosen Israel
his treasure for to be.
5 For this I know and am right sure
the Lord is very great:
He is indeed above all gods
most easie to entreat.
6 For whatsoever pleased him
all that full well he wrought:
In heaven, in earth and in the sea,
which he hath made of nought.
7 He lifts up clouds even from the earth,
he makes lightnings and rain,
He bringeth forth the winds also,
he made nothing in vain.
8 He smote the first-born of each thing
in Egypt that took rest:
He spared there no living thing,
the man nor yet the beast.
9 He hath in thee shew'd wonders great,
O Egypt void of vaunts,
On Pharaoh thy cursed kings
and his severe servants.
10 He smote then many nations,
and did great acts and things:
He slew the great and mightiest
and chiefest of their kings.
11 Siken king of the Amorites,
and Og king of Basan:
He slew also the kingdoms all
that were of Canaan:
12 And gave their land to Israel,
an heritage we see,
To Israel his own people,
an heritage to be.

The second part.

13 Thy name, O Lord, shall still endure,
and thy memorial
Throughout all generations
that are or ever shall.
14 The Lord will surely now avenge
his people all indeed:
And to his servants he will shew
favour in time of need.

- 15 The idols of the heathen are made
in all the coasts and lands ;
Of silver and of gold they be ,
the work even of mens hands .
16 They have their mouths , & cannot speak
and eyes that have no sight ;
17 They have eke ears and hear nothing ,
their mouthes be breathless quite .
18 Wherefore all they are like to them ;
that so do for them forth :
And likewise those that trust in them ,
or think they be ought worth .
19 O all ye house of Israel ,
see that ye praise the Lord :
And ye that be of Aarons house ,
praise him with one accord .
20 And ye that be of Levi's house ,
praise ye likewise the Lord :
And ye that stand in aw of him ,
praise him with one accord .
21 And out of Sion sound his praise ,
the great praise of the Lord
Which dwelleth in Jerusalem :
praise him with one accord .

Confitemini Dom. Psal. cxlvi. N.

- Praise ye the Lord, for he is good ,
for his mercy endureth for ever ,
2 Give praise unto the God of gods ,
for his mercy endureth for ever .
3 Give praise unto the Lord of lords ,
for his mercy endureth for ever .
4 Which onely doth great wondrous works ,
for his mercy endureth for ever .
5 Which by his wisdom made the heavens ,
for his mercy endureth for ever .
6 Which on the waters stretcht the earth ,
for his mercy endureth for ever .
7 Which made great lights to shine abroad ,
for his mercy , &c .
8 As sun to rule the lightsome day ,
for his mercy , &c .
9 The moon and stars to guide the night ,
for his mercy , &c .
10 Which smote Egypt with their first-born ,
for his mercy , &c .
11 And Israel brought out from thence ,
for his mercy , &c .
12 With mighty hand and stretched arm ,
for his mercy , &c .
13 Which cut the Red sea in two parts ,
for his mercy , &c .
14 And Israel made pass there-through ,
for his mercy , &c .
15 And drowned Pharaoh and his host ,
for his mercy , &c .
16 Through wilderness his people led ,
for his mercy , &c .
17 He which did smite great noble kings ,
for his mercy , &c .
18 And which hath slain the mighty kings ,
for his mercy , &c .
19 As Sehon king of Amorites ,
for his mercy , &c .
20 And Og the king of Basan land ,
for his mercy , &c .
21 And gave their land for heritage ,
for his mercy , &c .
22 Even to his servant Israel ,
for his mercy , &c .
23 Remembering us in base estate ,
for his mercy , &c .
24 And from oppressours rescued us ,
for his mercy , &c .
25 Which giveth food unto all flesh ,
for his mercy , &c .
26 Praise ye the Lord of heaven above ,
for his mercy endureth for ever .
27 Give thanks unto the Lord of lords ,
for his mercy endureth for ever .

Another of the same, by T. C.

- O Laud the Lord benigne,
Whose mercies last for aye :
2 Give thanks and praises sing
To God of gods, I say.
For certainly
His mercies dure
Both firm and sure Eternally.
3 The Lord of lords praise ye ,
Whose mercies aye do dure :
4 Great wonders onely he Doth work by his great power ,
For certainly , &c .
5 Which God omnipotent
By his great wisdom high
The heavenly firmament
Did frame as we may see .
For certainly , &c .
6 Yea, he the heavy charge
Of all the earth did stretch :
And on the waters large
The same he did out-reach .
For certainly , &c .
7 Great fights he made to be ,
For why ? his love is aye :
8 Such as the sun we see .
To rule the lightsome day .
For certainly , &c .
9 And eke the moon so clear ,
Which shineth in our sight ,
And stars that do appear ,
To guide the darksome night .
For certainly , &c .
10 With grievous plagues and sore
All Egypt smote he than :
The first-born lefs and more
He slew of beast and man .
For certainly , &c .
11 And from amidst their land
His Israel forth brought 12 Which he with mighty hand
And stretched arm hath wrought .
For certainly , &c .
13 The sea he cut in two ,
Which stood up like a wall :
14 And made through it to go
His chosen children all .
For certainly , &c .
15 But there he whelmed then
The proud king Pharaoh ,
With his huge host of men ,
And chariots eke also .
For certainly , &c .
16 Who led through wilderness
His people safe and sound :
17 And for his love endless
Great kings he brought to ground ,
For certainly , &c .
18 And slew with puissant hand
Kings mighty and of fame :

Sehon the King by name .
For certainly , &c .

Of Basan king also :

He gave his people tho .
For certainly , &c .

He gave the same to dwell ,

In our most base degree :

In safety set us free .
For certainly , &c .

With food &c doth full fill:
26 Wherefore of heaven the God
To laud be it your will.
For certainly, &c.

Super Aumina. Psal. cxxxvii. W. IV.

When as we sat in Babylon
the rivers round about,
And in remembrance of Sion
the tears for grief burst out:
2 We hang'd our harps and instruments
the willow-trees upon:
For in that place men for their use
had planted many a one.
3 Then they to whom we prisoners were,
said to us tauntingly,
Now let us hear your Hebrew songs,
and pleasant melodie.
4 Alas! said we, who can once frame
his sorrowfull heart to sing
The praises of our loving God,
thus under a strange king?
5 But yet if I Jerusalem
out of my heart let slide:
Then let my fingers quite forget
the warbling harp to guide.
6 And let my tongue within my mouth
be ty'd for ever fast,
If that I joy before I see
thy full deliverance past.
7 Therefore, O Lord, remember now,
the cursed noise and crye
That Edoms sons against us made,
when they ras'd our citie.
Remember, Lord, their cruel words,
when as with one accord
They cry'd, On sack, and rase their walls,
in despite of their Lord.
8 Even so shalt thou, O Babylon,
at length to dust be brought:
And happy shall that man be call'd
that our revenge hath wrought.
9 Yea, blessed shall that man be call'd,
that takes thy children young,
To dash their bones against hard stones
that lie the streets among.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. cxxxviii. N.

Thee will I praise with my whole hearts,
my Lord, my God, always:
Even in the presence of the gods
I will advance thy praise.
2 Toward thy holy temple I will look and worship thee:
And praised in my thankfull mouth
thy holy name shall be.
Even for thy loving kindness sake,
and for thy truth withall:
For thou thy name hast by thy word
advanced over all.
3 When I did call thou heardest me,
and thou hast made also
The power of increased strength
within my soul to grow.
4 Yea, all the kings on earth they shall give praise to thee, O Lord:
For they of thy most holy mouth
have heard the mighty word.
5 They of the ways of God the Lord
in singing shall entreat:
Because the glory of the Lord
it is exceeding great.
6 The Lord is high, and yet he doth behold the lowly sprite:
But he (contemning) knows afar
the proud and lofty wight.
7 Although in midst of trouble I do walk, yet shall I stand

Renewed by thee, O my Lord,
thou wilt stretch out thy hand

Upon the wrath of all my foes,
and saved shall I be
By thy right hand: the Lord God will perform his work to me.

8 Thy mercy, Lord, endures for aye,
Lord, do me not forsake:
Forsake me not that am the work which thine own hand did make.

Domine, probasti. Psal. cxxxix. N.

O Lord thou hast me try'd and known,
my sitting thou dost know:
2 And rising eke, my thoughts afar
thou understand'st also.

3 My paths, yea, and my lying down
thou compass'st always:
And by familiar custome art
acquainted with my ways.

4 No word is in my tongue, O Lord,
but known it is to thee:

5 Thou me behinde hold'st and before:
thou lay'st thine hand on me.

6 Too wonderfull above my reach,
Lord is thy cunning skill:

It is so high, that I the same cannot attain untill.

7 From sight of thy all-seeing spirit,
Lord, whither shall I go?

Or whither shall I flee away
thy presence to scape fro?

8 To heaven if I mount aloft,
so thou art present there:

In hell if I lie down below,
even there thou dost appear.

9 Yea, let me take the morning wing,
and let me go and hide

Even there where are the farthest parts,
where flowing sea doth slide:

10 Yea, even thither also shall
thy reaching hand me guide:

And thy right hand shall hold me fast,
and make me to abide.

11 Yea, if I say, The darkness shall yet shroud me from thy sight:

Lo even also the darkest night
about me shall be light.

12 Yea, darkness hideth not from thee,
but night doth shine as day:

To thee the darkness and the light
are both alike away.

The second part.

13 For thou possessest hast my reins,
and thou hast covered me,

When I within my mothers womb
enclosed was by thee.

14 Thee will I praise, made fearfully
and wondrously I am:

Thy works are marvellous, right well
my soul doth know the same.

15 My bones they are not hid from thee,
although in secret place,

I have been made, and in the earth
beneath I shaped was.

16 When I was formless, then thine eie
saw me: for in thy book

Were written all, nought was before that after fashion took.

17 The thoughts therefore of thee, O God,
how dear are they to me!

And of them all how passing great
the endless number be!

18 If I should count them, so, their sum
more then the sand I see:

And whensoever I awake,
yet am I still with thee.

19 The wicked and the bloudie men
O that thou wouldest slay!

Even

Even those, O God, to whom, Depart,
depart from me, I say.

20 Even those of thee, O Lord my God,
that speak full wickedly :

Those that are lifted up in vain,
being enemies to thee.

21 Hate I not them that hate thee, Lord,
and that in carnal wife ?

Contend I not against them all against thee that arise ?

22 I hate them with unfeigned hate,
even as my utter foes,

23 Trye me, O God, and know my heart,
my thoughts prove and disclose.

24 Consider, Lord, if wickedness
in me there any be :

And in tny way, O God my guide,
for ever lead thou me.

Eripe me. Psal. cxl. N.

Lord, save me from the evil man,
and from the cruel wight :

2 And from all those which evil do
imagine in their sprite.

Which make on me continual war,
their tongues lo they have whet

3 Like serpents ; underneath their lips
is adders poison set.

4 Keep me, O Lord, from wicked hands, preserve me to abide

Free from the cruel man, that means
to cause my steps to slide.

5 The proud have laid a snare for me,
and they have spread a net

With cords in my path-way, and grins
for me eke have they set.

6 Therefore I said unto the Lord,
thou art my God alone :

Hear me, O Lord, O hear the voice
wherewith I pray and mone.

7 O Lord my God, thou onely art
the strength that saveth me :

My head in day of battel hath been covered still by thee.

8 Let not, O Lord, the wicked have the end of his desire :

Perform not his ill thoughts, lest he
with pride be set on fire.

9 Of them that compass me about,
the chiefest of them all

Lord, let the mischief of their lips
upon themselves befall.

10 Let coals fall on them, let him cast
them in consuming flame,

And in deep pits, so as they may not rise out of the same.

11 For no backbiter shall on earth
be set in stable plight.

And evil to destruction still shall hunt the cruel wight.

12 I know the Lord th' afflicted will revenge, and judge the poor :

13 The just shall praise thy name : just shall dwell with thee evermore.

Domine, clamavi. Psal. cxli. N.

O Lord, upon thee do I call,
Lord, haste thee unto me :

And hearken, Lord, unto my voice
when I do crie to thee.

2 As incense, let my prayers be directed in thine eies :

And the up-lifting of my hands
as evening sacrifice.

3 My Lord, for guiding of my mouth
set thou a watch before :

And also of my moving lips,
O Lord, keep thou the door.

4 That I should wicked works commit incline thou not my heart;

With ill men of their delicates
Lord, let me eat no part.

5 But let the righteous smite me, Lord,
for that is good for me :

Let him reprove me, and the same
a precious oyl shall be.

Such smiting shall not break my head,
the time shall shortly fall

When I shall in their miserie
make prayers for them all.

6 Then when in stonie places down
their judges shall be cast :

Then shall they hear my words, for then
they have a pleasant taste.

7 Our bones about the graves mouth
lo scattered are they found :

As he that heweth wood, or he
that diggeth up the ground.

8 Eat, O my Lord my God, mine eies
do look up unto thee :

In thee is all my trust, let not my soul forsaken be.

9 Which they have laid to catch me, Lord,
keep me from the snare,

And from the subtil grins of them
that wicked workers are.

10 The wicked into their own nets
together let them fall :

While I do by thy help escape
the danger of them all.

Voce mea. Psal. cxlii. N.

Before the Lord God with my voice
I did send out my crie :

And with my strained voice unto
the Lord God prayed I.

2 My meditation in his sight
to pour I did not spare :

And in the presence of the Lord
my trouble did declare.

3 Although perplexed was my spirit,
my path was known to thee :

In way where I did walk a snare
they slyly laid for me.

4 I look'd and view'd on my right hand,
but none there would me know :

All refuge failed me, and for
my soul none cared tho.

5 Then cry'd I, Lord, to thee, and said,
My hope thou onely art :

Thou in the land of living art
my portion and my part.

6 Heark to my crie, for I am brought full low, deliver me

From them that do me persecute,
for me too strong they be.

7 That I may praise thy name, my soul
from prison, Lord, bring out :

When thou art good to me, the just shall press me round about.

Domine exaudi. Psal. cxliii. N.

Lord, hear my prayer, heark the plaint
that I do make to thee :

Lord in thy native truth and in thy justice answer me.

2 In judgement with thy servant, Lord,
O enter not at all :

For justifi'd be in thy sight
not one that liveth shall.

3 The enemy hath pursu'd my soul,
my life to ground hath thrown :

And laid me in the dark, like them
that dead are long ago.

4 Within me in perplexitie
was mine accumbred spite :

And in me was my troubled heart
amazed and affright.

- 5 Yet I record time past in all thy works I meditate :
Yea, in thy works I meditate
that thy hands have created.
- 6 To thee, O Lord my God, lo I
do stretch my craving hands :
My soul desireth after thee,
as do the thirlic lands.
- 7 Hear me with speed, my spirit doth fail,
hide not thy face me fro :
Else shall I be like them that down into the pit do go.
- 8 Let me thy loving kindness in the morning hear and know :
For in thee is my trust, shew me
the way where I shall go.
- 9 For I lift up my soul to thee,
O Lord, deliver me
From all mine enemies : for I have hidden me with thee.
- 10 Teach me to do thy will, for thou,
thou art my God, I say :
Let thy good Spirit unto the land
of mercy me convey.
- 11 For thy names sake with quickning grace
alive do thou me make :
And out of trouble bring my soul
even for thy justice sake.
- 12 And for thy mercy day my foes,
O Lord, destroy them all
That do oppress my soul for I thy servant am and shall.

Benedictus Dom. Psal. cxliv. N.

- Bless be the Lord my strength, that doth Instruct my hands to fight :
The Lord that doth my fingers frame
to battel by his might.
- 2 He is my goodness, fort, and tower,
deliverer and shield :
In him I trust ; my people he
subdues to me to yeeld.
- 3 O Lord, what thing is man, that him
thou holdest so in price ?
Or son of man, that upon him
thou thinkest in such wise ?
- 4 Man is but like to vanities,
so pass his days to ende
5 As fleeting shade. Bow down, O Lord,
the heavens and descend.
- 6 The mounts ins touch, and they shall smoke,
cast forth thy lightning flame
And scatter them : thine arrows shoot, consume them with the same.
- 7 Send down thine hand even from above,
O Lord, deliver me :
Take me from waters great, from hand
of strangers make me free.
- 8 Whose subtil mouth of vanitie
and fondness doth eatreat :
And their right hand is a right hand
of falsehood and deceit.
- 9 A new song will I sing, O Gods,
and singing will I be On viol and on instrument
ten stringed unto thee.
- 10 Even he it is that onely gives deliverance to kings :
Unto his servant David help
from hurtfull sword he brings.
- 11 From strangers hand me save and shield,
whose mouth talks vanitie :
And their right hand is a right hand
of guile and subtiltie.
- 12 That our sons may be as the plants
whom growing youth doth rear :
Our daughters as cary'd corner stones,
like to a palace fair :
- 13 Our garners full, and plentie may
with sundry sorts be found :

Our sheep bring thousands, in our streets
ten thousands may abound.

- 14 Our exen be to labour strong,
that none do us invade :
There be no goings out, nor cries
within our streets be made.
- 15 The people blessed are that with such blessings are so stor'd :
Yea, blessed all the people are whose God is God the Lord.

Exaltabo te. Psal. cxlv. N.

- Thee will I laud, my God and king,
and bless thy name for ay :
2 For ever will I praise thy name,
and bless thee day by day.
- 3 Great is the Lord, most worthy praise,
his greatness none can reach :
4 From race to race they shall thy works
praise, and thy power preach.
- 5 I of thy glorious majestie
the beauty will record :
And meditate upon thy works
most wonderfull O Lord.
- 6 And they shall of thy powers, and of thy fearfull acts declare :
And I to publish all abroad
thy greatness will not spare.
- 7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodness great :
And I aloud thy righteousness
in singing shall repeat.
- 8 The Lord our God is gracious and mercifull also :
Of great abounding mercy, and
to anger he is slow,
- 9 Yea, good to all, and all his works
his mercy doth exceed :
10 Lo, all thy works do praise thee, Lord,
and do thy honour spread.
- 11 Thy saints do bless thee, and they do
thy kingdoms glory show :
12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons
of men thy power to know.

The second part.

- And of his mightie kingdome eke
to spread the glorious praise :
13 Thy kingdome, Lord, a kingdome is that doth endure always :
And thy dominion through each age
endures without decay.
- 14 The Lord upholdeth them that fall,
their sliding he doth stay.
- 15 The eyes of all do wait on thee,
thou dost them all relieve :
And thou to each sufficing food
in season due dost give.
- 16 Thou openest thy pientious hands,
and bounteously dost fill
All things whatsoever do live with gifts of thy good will.
- 17 The Lord is just in all his ways,
his works are holy all.
- 18 Near all he is that call on him,
in truth that on him call.
- 19 He the desires which they require that fear him will fulfill :
And he will hear them when they cry,
and save them all he will.
- 20 The Lord preserves all those, to him
that bear a loving heart :
But he them all that wicked are
will utterly subvert.
- 21 My thankfull mouth shall gladly speak
the praises of the Lord :
All flesh to praise his holy name
for ever shall accord.

Lauda anima. Psal. cxlvi. J. H.

- My soul, praise thou the Lord always
my God I will praise :

- 1 While breath and life prolong my days,
my tongue no time shall cease.
- 2 Trust not in worldly princes them,
though they abound in wealth:
Nor in the sons of mortal men,
in whom there is no health.
- 3 For why? their breath doth soon depart,
to earth anon they fall:
And then the counsels of their heart
decay and perish all.
- 4 O happy is that man, I say,
whom Jacobs God doth aid:
And he whose hope doth not decay,
but on the Lord is staid.
- 5 Which made the earth and waters deep,
the heavens high withall:
Which doth his word and promise keep
in truth and ever shall.
- 6 With right always doth he proceed
for such as suffer wrong:
The poor and hungry he doth feed,
and loose the fetters strong.
- 7 The Lord doth send the blinde their sight,
the lame to limbs restore:
The Lord, I say, doth love the right
and just man evermore.
- 8 He doth defend the fatherless,
and stranger sad in heart.
And quit the widow from distress,
and ill mens ways subvert.
- 9 Thy Lord and God eternally,
O Zion, still shall reign:
In time of all posterity
for ever to remain.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. cxlvii. N.

- Praise ye the Lord, for it is good unto our God to sing:
For it is pleasant, and to praise
it is a comely thing.
- 1 The Lord his own Jerusalem
he buildeth up alone:
And the dispersit of Israel
doth gather into one.
 - 2 He heals the broken in their heart,
their forces up doth he binde:
 - 3 He counts the number of the stars,
and names them in their kinde.
 - 4 Great is the Lord, great is his power,
his wisdom infinite.
 - 5 The Lord relieves the meek, and throws
to ground the wicked wight.
 - 6 Sing unto God the Lord with praise,
unto the Lord rejoyce:
And to our God upon the harp
advance your singing voice.
 - 7 He covers heaven with clouds, and for
the earth prepareth rain:
And on the mountains he doth make
the grafs to grow again.
 - 8 He gives to beasts their food, and to young ravens when they cry.
 - 9 His pleasure not in strength of horse
nor in mans legs doth lie:
 - 10 But in all those that fear the Lord
the Lord hath his delight,
And such as do attend upon his mercies shining light.

The second part.

- 1 O praise the Lord, Jerusalem,
thy God, O Zion, praise:
- 2 For he the bars hath forged strong,
wherewith thy gates he stays.
- 3 Thy children he hath blest in thee,
and in thy borders he doth settle peace, and with the flour
of wheat he filleth thee.
- 4 And his commandment upon
the earth he sendeth out:

- And eke his word with speedy course
doth swiftly run about.
- 5 He giveth snow like wool, hoar-frost
like ashes he doth spread:
 - 6 Like morsels casts his ice, thereof
the cold who can abide?
 - 7 He sendeth forth his mightie word
and melteth them again:
His winde he makes to blow, and then
the waters flow again.
 - 8 The doctrine of his holy word
to Jacob he doth shew:
His statutes and his judgements he gives Israel to know.
 - 9 With every nation hath he not so dealt, nor have they known His secret judgements, ye therefore praise ye the Lord alone.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. cxlviii. J. H.

- Give hnd unto the Lord,
From heaven that is so high:
Praise him in deed and word,
Above the starrie skie.
- 1 And also ye
His angels all,
Armies royal,
Praise him with glee.
 - 2 Praise him both moon and sun,
Which are so clear and bright:
The same of you be done,
Ye glistering stars of light:
 - 3 And eke ye
Ye heavens fair,
And clouds of th' air,
His laud expresse.
 - 4 For at his word they were
All formed as we see:
At his voice did appear
All things in their degree,
Which he set fast:
To them he made
A law and trade
For aye to last.
 - 5 Extoll and praise Gods name
On earth ye dragons sell:
All deeps do ye the same,
For it becomes ye well
 - 6 Him magnifice,
Fire, hail, ice, snow,
And storms that blow
At his decree.
 - 7 The hills and mountains all,
And trees that fruitfull are,
The cedars great and tall
His worthy praise declare:
 - 8 Beasts and cattell,
Yea birds flying,
And worms creeping,
That on earth dwell.
 - 9 All kings both more and less
With all their pompous train,
Princes and all judges
That in the world remain,
Exalt his name.
 - 10 Young men and maids,
Old men and babes,
Do ye the same.
 - 11 For his name shall we prove
To be most excellent,
Whose praise is far above
The earth and firmament.
 - 12 For sure he shall Exalt with blisse
The horn of his,
And help them all.
 - 13 His saints all shall forth tell
His praise and worthiness,
The children of Israel
Each one both more and less:

And

16 And also they
That with good will
His words fulfill,
And him obey,

Cantate Domino. Psal. cxlix. M.

Sing ye unto the Lord our God
a new rejoycing song:
And let the praise of him be heard
his holy saints among.

2 Let Israel rejoyce in him
that made him of nothing:
And let the seed of Sion eke
be joyfull in their King.

3 Let them sound praise with voice of lute
unto his holy name:
And with the timbrel and the harp
sing praises of the same.

4 For why? the Lord his pleasure all hath in his people set:
And by deliverance he will raise
the meek to glory great.

5 With glory and with honour now
let all his saints rejoyce:
And now aloud upon their beds
advance their singing voice.

6 And in their mouths let be the acts
of God the mightie Lord:
And in their hands eke let them bear
a double-edged sword:

7 To plague the heathen; and correct
the people with their hands:
8 To binde their stately kings in chains,
their lords in iron bands:
9 To execute on them the doom
that written is before.
This honour all his saints shall have,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. cli. N.

Yield unto God the mightie Lord
praise in his sanctuary:
And praise him in the firmament,
that shews his power on high.

2 Advance his name; and praise him in his mighty acts always:
According to his excellencie
of greatness give him praise.

3 His praises with the princely noise
of sounding trumpets blow:
Praise him upon the viol; and upon the harp also.

4 Praise him with timbrel and with flute,
organs and virginals:

5 With sounding cymbals praise ye him;
praise him with loud cymbals.

6 What ever hath the benefit of breathing; praise the Lord.
To praise the name of God the Lord
agree with one accord.

The end of the PSALMS.

V E N I C R E A T O R.

Come Holy Ghost eternall God,
proceeding from above:
Both from the Father and the Sonne;
the God of peace and love.
Visit our mindes; and into us
thy heavenly grace inspire:
That in all truth and godlinesse
we may have true desire.

Thou art the very Comforter
in all wo and distresse:
The heavenly gift of God most high,
which no tongue can expresse.
The fountaine and the living spring
of joy celestiall.
The fire so bright; the love so clear;
and unition spiritual.

Thou in thy gifts art manifold,
whereby Christs Church doth stand:
In faithfull hearts writing thy law;
the finger of Gods hand.
According to thy promise made,
thou givest speech of grace:
That through thy help the praise of God
may stand in every place.

O Holy Ghost into our wits
send down thy heavenly light:
Kindle our hearts with fervent loves
to serve God day and night.
Strength and stablish all our weaknesse,
so feeble and so fraile:
That neither flesh; the world nor devil
against us do prevail.

Put back our enemies far from us,
and grant us to obtaine
Peace in our hearts with God and man;
without grudge or disdain.
And grant (O Lord) that thou being
our leader and our guide:
We may eschew the snares of sin,
and from thee never slide.

To us such plenty of thy grace
good Lord, grant we thee pray:
That thou maist be our Comforter,
at the last dreadfull day.

Of all strife and diffention
O Lord dissolve the bands:
And make the knots of peace and love
throughout all Christian lands.

Grant us, O Lord, through thee to know
the Father most of might:
That of his deare beloved Sonne
we may attaine the light.
And that with perfect faith also
we may acknowledge thee
The Spirit of them both always one God in persons three.

Laud and praise be to the Father;
and to the Son equal:
And to the Holy Spirit also;
one God coeternall.

And pray we that the only Son vouchsafe his Spirit to send
To all that do professe his Name,
unto the worlds last end.

The humble sute of a sinner. M.

O Lord on whom I do depend;
behold my carefull heart
And when thy will and pleasure is,
release me of my smart.
Thou seest my sorrowes what they are;
my grief is known to thee:
And there is none that can remove,
or take the same from me.

But onely thou whose aid I crave
whose mercy still is prest;
To ease all those that come to thee,
for succour and for rest.
And sith thou seest my restless eyes,
my teares and grievous grone:
Attend unto my suit O Lord,
mark well my plaint and moane.

For sin hath so inclosed me,
and compass me about:
That I am now remedilesse,
if mercy help not out.
For mortall man cannot release
or mitigate this paine:

But

But even thy Christ my Lord and God,
who for my sins was slain.

Whose bloody wounds are yet to see,
though not with mortall eye,
Yet do thy Saints behold them all,
and so I trust shall I.

Though sin doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see it good,
I shall enjoy the sight of him,
and see his wounds and blood.

And as thine Angels and thy Saints
do now behold the same,
So trust I to possesse that place,
with them to praise thy Name.
But whilst I live here in this vale,
where sinners do frequent:
Assist me ever with thy grace,
my sins still to lament.

Left that I tread the sinners traces
and give them my consent,
To dwell with them in wickednesse,
whereto nature is bent.
Onely thy grace must be my stay,
left that I fall down flat:
And being down then of my selfe cannot recover that.

Wherefore this is yet once againe
my suit and my request,
To grant me pardon for my sins
that I in thee may rest.
Then shall my heart and tongue also
be instruments of praise:
And in thy Church and house of Saints
sing Psalmes to thee alwaies.

Venite exultemus.

O Come and let us now rejoyces
And sing unto the Lord:
And to our onely Saviour,
Also with one accord.

O let us come before his face,
With inward reverence,
Confessing all our former sins,
And that with diligence.

To thank him for his benefits,
Alwaies distributing:
Wherefore to him right joyfully
In Psalmes now let us sing.
And that because that God alone
Is Lord magnificent,
And eke above all other gods,
A King omnipotent.

His people doth not he forsake
At any time or tide:
And in his hands are all the coasts
Of all the world so wide.

And with his loving countenance
He looketh every where:
And doth behold the tops of all
The mountaines farre and neare.

The sea and all that is therein
Are his, for he them made:
And eke his hand hath fashioned
The earth which doth not fade.

O come therefore and worship him
And down before him fall:
And let us kneele before the Lord,
The which hath made us all.

He is our God, our Lord and King
And we his people are:
His flock, and sheep of his pasture,
Of whom he taketh care.

This day if ye will heare his voice
Then harden not your heart:
As in the bitter murmuring,
When ye were in desert.

Which thing was of their negligence
Committed in the time
of trouble in the wilderness:

A great and grievous crime.

Whereas your fathers tempted me,
And tri'd me every way:
They proved me and saw my works,
What I could do or say.

These fourty years I have been griev'd
With this generation:
And evermore I said they er'd
In their imagination.

Wherewith their hearts were fore cumbr'd
Long time and many daies:
Wherefore I said assuredly,
They have not known my waies.

To whom I in mine anger swore,
That they should not be blest,
Nor see my joy celestiall,
Nor enter in my rest.

Gloria Patri.

All laud and praise be to the Lord,
O that of might art most:
To God the Father and the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost.
As it in the beginning was,
for ever heretofore:
And is now at this present time,
and shall be evermore.

The Song of Saint Ambrose called Te Deum.

WE praise thee God, we knowledg thee
the only Lord to be:
And as eternall Father all
the earth doth worship thee.
To thee all Angels cry, the heavens,
and all the powers therein:
To thee Cherub and Seraphin,
to cry they do not lin.

O holy, holy, holy Lord,
of Sabboth Lord the God:
Through heaven and earth thy praise is spread,
and glory all abroad.
Th' Apostles glorious company
yeeld praises unto thee:
The Prophets goodly fellowship
praise thee continually.

The noble and victorious host
of Martyrs sound thy praise:
The holy Church throughout the world
doth knowledg thee alwaies.
Father of endlesse Majesty
they do acknowledge thee,
Thy Christ thine honourable true,
and onely Son to be.

The Holy Ghost the Comforter,
of glory thou art King,
O Christ and of the Father art
the Son everlasting.

When fassall mans decay in hand
thou tookest to restore:
To be inclos'd in Virgins wombe,
thou diddest not abhorre.

When thou hadst overcome of death
the sharp and cruell might:
Thou heavens kingdome didst set open
to each beleiving wight.

In glory of the Father thou
dost sit on Gods right hand:
We trust that thou shalt come our Judge
our cause to understand.

Lord help thy servants whom thou hast bought with thy precious blood:
And in eternall glory set them with thy Saints so good.

O Lord do thou thy people save,
blesse thine inheritance:
Lord govern them, and Lord do thou
for ever them advance.

We magnifie thee day by day,
and world without end

Benedictus. Magnificat. Nunc dimittis.

adore thy holy Name : O Lord vouchsafe us to defend
From sin this day : have mercy Lords,
have mercy on us all :
And on us as we trust in thee :
Lord let thy mercy fall.

O Lord I have reposed all
my confidence in thee :
Put to confounding shame therefore Lord let me never be.

The Song of Zacharias called Benedictus.

THe only Lord of Israel
Be praised evermore :
For through his visitation,
And mercy kept in store.
His people now he hath redeem'd
That long have been in thrall :
And spread abroad his saving health
Upon his servants all.

In Davids house his servant true,
According to his minde :
And also his anointed King,
As we in Scripture finde.
As by his holy Prophets all
Of times he did declare :
The which were since the world began
His wayes for to prepare.

That we might be delivered
From those that make debate :
Our enemies, and from the hands
Of all that do us hate.

The mercy which he promised
our Fathers to fulfill,
And think upon his covenant made,
According to his will.

And also to performe the oath
Which he before had sworne,
To Abraham our Father deare,
For us that were forlorne.

That he would give himselfe for us
And us from bondage bring
Out of the hands of all our foes,
To serve our heavenly King.

And that without all manner feare,
And eke in righteousness :
And also for to lead our lives
In steadfast holinesse :

And thou (O Child) which now art born,
And of the Lord elect :
Shalt be the Prophet of the Highest,
His wayes for to direct.

For thou shalt go before his face
For to prepare his wayes :
And also for to teach his will,
And pleasure all thy dayes.

To give them knowledge how that their Salvation is neere :
And that remission of their sins
Is through his mercy deere.

Whereby the day-spring from on high
Is come out for to visit :
And those for to illuminate,
Which do in darkness sit.

To lighten those that shadowed be
With death and eke oppress :
And also for to guide our feet
The way to peace and rest.

The Song of blessed Mary, called Magnificat.

My soule doth magnifie the Lord,
My spirit eke evermore :
Rejoyceth in the Lord my God,
Which is my Saviour.

The Lament of a sinner.

And why? because he did regard,
And gave respect unto :
So base estate of his hand-maid,
And let the mighty go.

For now behold all nations,
And generations all,
From this time forth for evermore
Shall me right blessed call :

Because he hath me magnified,
Which is the Lord of might :
Whose name be ever sanctified,
And praised day and night.

For with his mercy and his grace
All men he doth inflame :
Throughout all generations,
To such as feare his Name.

He shewed strength with his great army,
And made the proud to start,
With all imaginations
That they have in their heart.

He hath put downe the mighty ones
From their supernall seat :
And did exalt the meeke in heart,
As he hath thought it meet.

The hungry he replenished :
With all things that were good :
And through his power he made the rich
Of times to want their food.

And calling to remembrance
His mercy every deale :
Hath holpen up assiduously
His servant Israel.

According to his promise made
To Abraham before :
And to his seed successively,
To stand for evermore.

The Song of simon, called Nunc dimittis.

O Lord because my hearts desire
Hath wished long to see :
My only Lord and Saviour,
Thy Sonne before I die.

The joy and health of all man-kinde,
Desired long before :
Which now is come into the world,
Of mercy bringing store.

Thou suffrest thy servant now
In peace for to depart,
According to thy holy Word,
Which lighteneth my heart.

Because mine eyes which thou hast made
To give my body light,
Have now beheld thy saving health,
Which is the Lord of might.

Whom thou mercifully hast set (Of thine abundant grace)
In open sight and visible,
Before all peoples face.

The Gentiles to illuminate,
And Satan over-quell :
And eke to be the glory of Thy people Israel.

The Lamentation of a sinner.

O Lord turne not away thy face
From him that lies prostrate Lamenting fore his sinfull life,
Before thy mercy gate :

Which gate thou openest wide to those
That do lament their sin :
Shut not that gate against me Lord,
But let me enter in.

And call me not to mine accounts,
How I have lived here,
For then I know right well O Lord,
How vile I shall appear.

The Lords Prayer.

I need not to confesse my life;
I am sure thou canst tell,
What I have beene and what I am,
I know thou know'st it well.

O Lord thou know'st what things be past
And eke the things that be:
Thou know'st also what is to come,
Nothing is hid from thee.
Before the heavens and earth were made,
Thou know'st what things were then:
As all things else, that have beene since,
Among the sonnes of men.

And can the things that I have done,
Be hidden from thee then?
Nay, nay, thou know'st them all O Lord,
Where they were done and when.
Wherefore with teares I come to thee,
To beg and to intreat:
Even as the childe that hath done ill,
And feareth to be beate.

So come I to thy mercy gate,
Where mercy doth abound:
Requiring mercy for my sin,
To heale my deadly wound.

O Lord I need not to repeat,
What I do beg or crave:
Thou know'st (O Lord) before I ask,
The thing that I would have.

Mercy good Lord, mercy I ask,
This is the totall summe,
For mercy Lord is all my suit,
Lord let thy mercy come.

The Lords Prayer, or Pater noster.

O Ur Father which in Heaven art,
Lord, hallowed be thy Name:
Thy Kingdome come, thy will be done
in earth, even as the same in Heaven is. Give us O Lord, our daily bread this day.
As we forgive our debtors, so forgive our debts we pray.
Into temptation leade us not,
from evill make us free:
For kingdome, power and glory thine
both now and ever be.

Another of the same by D. Cox.

O Ur Father which in Heaven art,
And mak'st us all one brother-hood,
To call upon thee with one heart,
Our heavenly Father and our God.
Grant we pray not with lips alone,
But with our hearts deep sigh and groane.

Thy blessed Name be sanctified,
Thy holy Word might us inflame,
In holy life for to abide.
To magnific thy holy Name.
From all errors defend and keep
The little flock of thy poore sheep.

Thy kingdome come even at this houre
And henceforth everlastingly:
Thine Holy Ghost into us pour,
With all his gifts most plenteously.
From Satans rage and filthy band,
Defend us with thy mighty hand.

Thy will be done with diligence,
Like as in heave, in earth also:
In trouble grant us patience,
Thee to obey in wealth and woe.
Let not Acher. blood, or any ill
Prevail against thy holy will.

Give us this day our daily bread,
And all other good gifts of thine:
Keep us from war and from blood-shed,
Also from sickness, death and pine.
That we may live in quietnesse,
Without all greedy carefullnesse.

The X. Commandments.

Forgive us our offences all,
Relieve our carefull conscience:
As we forgive both great and small,
Which unto us have done offence.
Prepare us Lord for to serve thee,
In perfect love and unity.

O Lord into temptation,
Lead us not when the fiend doth rage,
To withstand his invasion,
Give power and strength to every age.
Arme and make strong thy feeble host
With faith and with the Holy Ghost.

O Lord from evill deliver us,
The dayes and times are dangerous.
From everlasting death save us,
And in our last need comfort us.
A blessed end to us bequest,
Into thy hands our soules receive.

For thou, O Lord, art King of kings,
And thou hast power over all:
Thy glory shineth in all things,
In the wide world universall.
Amen, let it be done, O Lord,
That we have praid with one accord.

*The ten Commandments of God,
Exod. 20. Audi Israel.*

H Eark Israel and what I say
give heed to understand:
I am the Lord thy God that brought thee out of Egypt land, Even from the house wherein thou didst
in thraldome live a slave:
None other Gods at all before my presence shalt thou have.

No manner graven image shalt thou make at all to thee:
Nor any figure like by thee
shall counterfeited be.
Of any thing in Heaven above,
nor in the earth below:
Nor in the waters beneath the earth,
to them thou shalt not bow.

Nor shalt thou serve, the Lord thy God
a jealous God am I:
That punish parents' faults, unto
the third and fourth degree.
Upon their children that me hate:
and mercy do display
To thousands of such as me love,
and my precepts obey.

The Name thou of the Lord thy God
in vaine shalt never use:
For him that takes his Name in vaine
the Lord will not excuse.
Remember that thou holy keep
the sacred Sabbath-day:
Six dayes thou labour shalt, and do thy needfull works alway.

The seventh day the Lord thy God
hath set to rest upon:
No work then shalt thou do in it,
ne thou nor yet thy sonne,
Thy daughter, servant, nor thy maid,
thine ox, nor yet thine asse,
Nor stranger that within thy gates
hath his abiding place.

For in six dayes, God heaven and earth
and all therein did make:
And after those his rest he did
upon the seventh day take.
Wherefore he blest the day that he forresting did ordaine:
And sacred to himselfe alone
appointed to remaine.

Yield honour to thy parents, that prolong'd thy dayes may be Upon the land, the which the Lord
thy God hath given thee.

The X. Commandments.

Thou shalt not murder. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
Thou shalt not steale. Nor witnesse false against thy neighbour be.
Thou shalt nor covet house that to thy neighbour doth belong :
Ne covet shalt in having of his wife to do him wrong :
Nor his man-servant nor his maid,
nor Oxe nor Ass of his :
Nor any other thing that to thy neighbour proper is.

Another of the same by W. W.

Attend my people and give eare,
Of ferly things I will thee tell :
See that my words in minde thou beere,
And to my precepts listen well.

1 I am thy soveraigne Lord and God,
Which have thee brought from careful thral
And eke reclaim'd from Pharaohs rod,
Make thee no gods on them to call.

2 Nor fashioned forme of any thing
In heaven or earth to worship it :
For I thy God by revenging
With grievous plagues this sin will smite.

3 Take not in vaine his holy Names,
Abuse it not after thy will.
For to thou might'st soone purchase blame
And in his wrath he would thee spill.

4 The Lord from work the seventh day ceast,
And brought all things to perfect end :
So thou and thine that day takerest,
That to Gods helts ye may attend.

5 Unto thy parents honour give,
As Gods commandments do intend :
That thou long dayes and good maist live
In earth, where God a place doth lend.

6 Beware of murder and cruell hate.

7 All filthy fornication feare.

8 See thou steale not in any rate.

9 False witnesse against no man beere.

10 Thy neighbours house wish not to have,
His wife, or ought that he calls mine :
His field, his Oxe, his Ass, his slaves,
Or any thing which is not thine.

A Prayer.

The Spirit of grace grant us O Lord;
To keep these lawes our hearts restore;
And cause us all with one accord,
To magnifie thy Name therefore.

For of our selves no strength we have To keep these lawes after thy will :
Thy might therefore O Christ we crave,
That we in thee may them fulfill.

Lord for thy Names sake grant us this,
Thou art our strength, O Saviour Christ :
Of thee to speed how should we misse,
In whom our treasure doth consist ?

To thee for evermore be praise,
With the Father in each respect,
And with the holy Spirit alwayes,
The comforter of thine elect.

The Complaint of a sinner.

Where righteousness doth say,
Lord for my sinfull part,
In wrath thou shouldst me pay Vengeance for my desert.
I can it not deny,
But needs I must confesse,
Now that continually
Thy lawes I do transgress.

The Complaint of a sinner.

But if it be thy will
With sinners to contend :
Then all thy flock shall fill,
And be lost without end.
For who lives here so right,
That rightly he can say,
He sins not in thy sight,
Full oft and every day ?

The Scripture plaine tels me
The righteous man offendeth
Seven times a day 'gainst thee
Whereon thy wrath dependeth :
So that the righteous man
Doth walk in no such path,
But he falls now and then
In danger of thy wrath.

Then with the case he stands,
That even the man right wise
Falls oft in sinfull bands,
Whereby thy wrath may rise :
Lord, I that am unjust,
And righteousness none have,
Where to then shall I trust,
My sinfull soule to save ?

But truly to that post,
Where to I cleave and shall,
Which is thy mercy most,
Lord let thy mercy fall.
And mitigate thy mood,
Or els we perish all;
The price of this thy blood,
Wherein mercy I call.

The Scripture doth declare,
No drop of blood in thee :
But that thou didst not spare
To shed each drop for me.
Now let those drops most sweet
So moist my heart to drie,
That I with sin replest,
May live, and sin may die.

That being mortified,
This sin of mine in me,
I may be sanctified,
By grace of thine in thee :
So that I never fall
Into such mortall sin :
That my foes infernall
Reioyce my death therein.

But vouchsafe me to keep
From those infernall foes :
And from that lake so deep,
Whereas no mercy grows.
And I shall sing the songs,
Confirmed with the just :
That unto thee belongs,
Which art my only trust.

A Song to be sung before Morning prayer T. B.

Praise ye the Lord ye Gentiles all,
Which hath brought you into his light :
O praise him all people mortall,
as it is most worthy and right.

For he is full determined
on us to poure out his mercy :
And the Lords truth be ye assur'd,
abideth perpetually.

Glory be to God the Father,
and unto Jesus Christ his Sonne :
With the Holy Ghost in like manner,
now and at every season.

A Song to be sung before Evening prayer.

Behold now give heed such as be the Lords servants faithfull & true ;
Come, praise the Lord every degree,
with such songs as to him are due.

The Creed.

Oye that stand in the Lords house,
even in our owne Gods mansion.
Praise ye the Lord so bounteous,
which worketh our saluation.
Lift up your hands in his holy place,
yea and that in the time of night :
Praise ye the Lord which gives all graces
for he is a Lord of great might.
Then shall the Lord out of Sions
which made heaven and earth by his power,
Give to you and your nations,
his blessing, mercy, and favour.
Glory be to the Father, &c.

The twelve Articles of the Christian Faith.

ALl my belife and confidence
is in the Lord of might :
The Father which all things hath made
the day and eke the night.
The heavens and the firmament,
and also every starre,
The earth and all that is therein,
which passe mans reason farre.
And in like manner I believe in Christ our Lord his Sonne : Coequall with the Deitie,
and man in flesh and bone.
Conceived by the Holy Ghost,
his word doth me assure :
And of his mother Mary honest,
yet she a Virgin pure.
Because mankinde to Satan was
for sin in bond and thrall :
He came and offered up himselfe
to death to save us all.
And suffering most grievous paine,
then Pilate being Judge :
Was crucified on the Crosse,
and thereat did not grudge.
And so he died in the flesh,
but quickned in the spirit :
His body then was buried,
as is our use and right.
His soule did after this descend
into the lower parts :
A dread unto the wicked spirites,
but joy to faithfull hearts.
And in the third day of his death
he rose to life againe :
To th'end he might be glorified
out of all griefe and paine.
Ascending to the heavens high,
to sit in glory still.
On Gods right hand his Father deare,
according to his will.
Untill the day of judgement come,
when he shall come againe
With Angels power (yet of that day
we all be uncertaine)
To judge all people righteously,
whom he hath dearely bought,
The living and the dead also,
which he hath made of nought.
And in the holy Spirit of God,
(my faith to satisfie)
The third person in Trinity,
believe I stedfastly.
The holy and Catholike Church,
that Gods Word doth maintaine :
And holy Scripture doth allow,
which Satan doth disdain.
And also I do trust to have
by Jesus Christ his death :
Release and pardon of my sins,
and that only by faith.
Whereto all flesh shall rise againe
before the Lord of might :

A Prayer to the Holy Ghost.

And see him with their bodily eyes,
which now do give them light.
And then shall Christ our Saviour
the sheep and goats divide :
And give life everlastingly,
to those whom he hath tri'd.
Within his Realme celestiall,
in glory for to rest :
With all his holy company
of Saints and Angels blest.
Which serve the Lord omnipotent
obediently each houre :
To whom be all dominion,
and praise for evermore.

*A Prayer to the holy Ghost to be sung
before the Sermon.*

Come holy Spirit the God of might comforter of us all :
Teach us to know thy Word aright,
that we do never fall.
O Holy Ghost visit our coast,
defend us with thy shield :
Against all sin and wickednesse,
Lord help us win the field.
Lord keep our King and his Councell,
and give them will and might
To persevere in thy Gospell,
which can put sin to flight.
O Lord that giv'st thy holy Word,
send Preachers plentifully :
That in the same we may accord,
and therein live and die.
O holy Spirit direct aright
the Preachers of thy Word :
That thou by them maist cut down sin
as it were with a sword.
Depart not from thy Pastours cure,
but aid them at their need.
Which breake to us the bread of lifes
whereon our soules do feed.
O blessed Spirit of truth keep us
in peace and unity :
Keep us from sects and errours all,
and from all Papistry.
Convert all those that are our foes,
and bring them to thy light,
That they and we may well agree,
and praise thee day and night.
O Lord increase our faith in us,
and love so to abound :
That man and wife be void of strifes
and neighbours about us round.
In our time give thy peace O Lord,
to nations farre and nigh :
And teach them all thy holy Word,
that we may sing to thee,
All glory to the Trinity,
that is of mighties most :
The living Father and the Sonne,
and eke the Holy Ghost,
As it hath been in all the time
that hath been heretofore :
As it is now, and so shall be henceforth for evermore.

Da Patem Domine.

Give peace in these our dayes O Lord,
Great dangers are now at hand :
Thine enemies with one accord,
Christe name in every land,
Seek to deface,
Root out and race
Thy true right worship indeed :
Be thou the stay,
Lord we thee pray,
Thou helpest alone in all need.

De Patientia.

Give us that peace that we do lack
Through misbeleefe and ill lifes
Thy Word to offer thou dost, not slack
Which we unkindly gain-strive,
With fire and sword,
This healthfull word,
Some persecute and oppresse:
Some with the mouth
Confesse the truth
Without sincere godlinesse.
Give peace, and us thy Spirit down send
With griefe and repentance true,
Pierce thou our hearts, our lives amend,
And by faith in Christ renew,
That feare and dread
Warre and bloud-shed,
Through thy sweet mercy and grace,
May from us slide,
Thy truth may bide,
And shine in every place.

The Lamentation.

O Lord in thee is all my trust.
Give care unto my woful cry,
Refuse me not that am unjust,
but bowing down thy heavenly eyes
Behold how I do still lament,
my sinnes wherein I do offend:
O Lord for them shall I be bent?
sith thee to please I do intend.
No, no, not so, thy will is bent,
to deale with sinners in thine ire

The Lamentation.

But when in heart they shall repent,
thou grantst with speed their just desires,
To thee therefore still shall I cry,
to wash away my sinfull crime:
Thy blood O Lord is not yet drie,
but that it may help me in time.
Haste thee O Lord, haste thee I say,
to poure on me thy gifts of grace:
That when this life shall sit away,
in heaven with thee I may have place:
Where thou dost raigne eternally,
with God which once did down thee send Where Angels sing continually,
so thee be praise world without end.

R. W.

Preserve us Lord by thy deere word,
From Turk and Pope defend us Lord
Which both would thrust out of his thronc
Our Lord Jesus Christ thy deare Sonne.

Lord Jesus Christ shew forth thy might,
That thou art Lord of Lords by right:
Thy poore afflicted flock defend,
That we may praise thee without end.

God Holy Ghost our Comforter,
Be our patron, help, and succour:
Give us one minde and perfect peace,
All gifts of grace in us increase.

Thou living God in persons three,
Thy Name be prais'd in unity,
In all our need so us defend,
That we may praise thee without end.

V I N I S,

A FORME OF PRAYER TO

be used in private houses every Morning and Evening.

Morning Prayer.

Almighty God, and most mercifull Father, we do not present our selves here before thy Majestie, trusting in our owne merits or worthinesse, but in thy manifold mercies, which hast promised to heare our prayers & grant our requests which we shall make to thee in the name of thy beloved Sonne Jesus Christ our Lord, who hath also commanded us to assemble our selves together in his name, with full assurance that he will not onely be amongst us, but also be our Mediator and Advocate towards thy Majestie, that we may obtaine all things which shall seeme expedient to thy blessed will, for our necessities. Therefore we beseech thee (most mercifull Father) to turne thy loving countenance towards us, and impute not unto us our manifold finnes and offences, whereby we justly deserve thy wrath and sharpe punishment: but rather receive us to thy mercie, for Jesus Christs sake, accepting his death and passion as a just recompence for all our offences, in whom onely thou art pleased, and through whom thou canst not be offended with us. And seeing that of thy great mercies we have quietly passed this night, grant (O heavenly Father) that we may bestow this day wholly in thy service, so that all our thoughts, words, and deeds may redound to the glorie of thy Name, and good ensample to all men, who seeing our good workes, may glorifie thee our heavenly Father. And forasmuch as of thy meere favour and love, thou hast not onely created us to thine owne similitude & likenesse, but also hast chosen us to be heirs with thy deare Sonne Jesus Christ, of that immortal kingdome, which thou preparedst for us before the beginning of the world: we beseech thee to increase our faith and knowledge, and to lighten our hearts with thine holy Spirit, that we may in the meane time live in godly conversation and integrity of life, knowing that Idolaters, adulterers, covetous men, contentious persons, drunkards, gluttons, and such like, shall not inherit the kingdome of God.

And because thou hast commanded us to pray one for another, we do not onely make request (O Lord) for our selves, and them that thou hast already called to the true understanding of thine heavenly wil, but for all people and nations of the world; who as they know by thy wonderfull workes that thou art God over all, so they may be intruded by thine holy Spirit to believe in thee their onely Saviour and Redeemer. But forasmuch as they cannot believe except they heare, nor cannot heare but by preaching, and none can preach except they be first: therefore (O Lord) raise up faithfull distributors of thy mysteries, who setting apart all worldly respects, may both in their life and doctrine onely seek thy glory. Contrarily confound Satan, Antichrist, withall hirelings and Papists, whom thou hast already cast off into a reprobate sense, that they may not by sects, schismes, heresies and errors, disquiet thy little flocke. And because (O Lord) we be fallen into the latter dayes and dangerous times, wherein ignorance hath gotten the upper hand, and Satan by his ministers seeks by all means to quench the light of thy Gospel; we beseech thee to maintaine thy cause against those ravening wolyes, and strengthen all thy servants whom they keepe in prison and bondage. Let not thy long suffering be an occasion either to increase their tyrannie, or to discourage thy children: neither yet let our sins and wickednesse be an hinderance to thy mercies; but with speed (O Lord) consider their great miserie. For thy people Israel many times by their finnes provoked thine anger, and thou punishedst them by thy just judgement; yet though their finnes were never so grievous, if they once returned from their iniquitie, thou receivedst them to mercie. We therefore most wretched sinners bewaile our manifold finnes, and earnestly repent us for our former wickednes and ungodly behaviour towards thee: and whereas we cannot of our selves purchase thy pardon, yet we humbly beseech thee, for Jesus Christs sake, to shew thy mercies upon us, and receive us againe to thy favour. Grant us (deare Father) these our requests, and all other things necessarie for us and thy whole Church, according to thy promise in Jesus Christ our Lord. In whose name we beseech thee, as he hath taught us, saying, Our Father which art, &c.

Evening Prayer.

O Lord God, Father everlasting and full of pitie, we acknowledge and confesse that we be not worthy to lift up our eyes to heaven, much lesse to present our selves before thy Majestie, with confidence that thou wilt heare our prayers and grant our requests, if we consider our own deservings. For our consciences do accuse us, and our finnes do witness against us, and we know that thou art an upright Judge, which doest not iustifie the sinners and wicked men, but punishest the faults of all such as transgresse thy commandments. Yet most mercifull Father, since it hath pleased thee to command us to call on thee in all our troubles and adversities, promising even then to helpe us when we feeble our selves (as it were) swallowed up of death and desperation, we utterly renounce all worldly confidences, and flee to thy soveraigne bountie as our onely stay and refuge: beseeching thee not to call to remembrance our manifold finnes and wickednesse, whereby we continually provoke thy wrath and indignation against us: neither our negligence and unkindnesse, which have neither worthily esteemed, nor in our lives sufficiently expressed the sweet comfort of thy Gospel revealed unto us: but rather to accept the obedience and death of thy Sonne Jesus Christ, who by offering up his body in sacrifice once for all, hath made a sufficient recompence for all our finnes. Have mercie therefore upon us, O Lord, and forgive us our offences. Teach us by thine holy Spirit, that we may rightly weigh them, and earnestly repent us for the same: and so much the rather, O Lord, because that the reprobate and such as thou hast forsaken, cannot praise thee, nor call upon thy name; but the repenting heart, the sorrowfull minde, the conscience oppressed, hungering and thirsting for thy grace, shall ever set forth thy praise and glory.

And albeit we be but wormes and dust, yet thou art our Creator, and we be the work of thine hands: yea thou art our Father, and we

Prayer.

we thy children : thou art our Shepherd, and we thy flocke, thou art our Redemer, and we the people whom thou hast bought : thou art our God, and we thine inheritance, Correct us not therefore in thine anger, (O Lord) neither according to our desert, punish us, but mercifully chastise us with a fatherly affection, that all the world may know that at what time soever a sinner doth repent him of his sinnes from the bottome of his heart, thou wilt put away his wickednesse out of thy remembrance, as thou hast promised by thine holy Prophet.

Finally, forasmuch as it hath pleased thee to make the night for man to rest in, as thou hast ordained him the day to travel in, grant (deare Father) that we may take our bodily rest, that our soules may continually watch for the time that our Lord Jesus Christ shall appear for our deliverance out of this mortal life : and in the meane season that we not overcome by any fantasies, dreames, or other temptations, may fully set our minds upon thee-love thee, feare thee, and rest in thee : furthermore, that our sleepe be not excessive or overmuch, after the insatiable desires of our flesh, but only sufficient to content our weak nature that we may be the better disposed to live in all godly conversation, to the glory of thine holy name and profit of our brethren. So be it.

A godly Prayer to be said at all times.

HONOUR and praise be given to thee, O Lord God Almighty, most deare Father of heaven, for all thy mercies and loving kindnesse shewed unto us, in that it hath pleased thy gracious goodnesse, freely and of thine owne accord to elect and chuse us to salvation before the beginning of the world. And even like continuall thanks be given to thee, for creating us after thine owne image, for redeeming us with the precious blood of thy deare Son, when we were utterly lost : for sanctifying us with thy holy Spirit, in the revelation and knowledge of thy holy word : for helping and succouring us in all our needs and necessities : for saving us from all dangers of bodie and soule : for comforting us so fatherly in all our tribulations and persecutions : for sparing us so long, and giving us so large a time of repentance. These benefites-O most mercifull Father, like as we acknowledge to have received them of thy only goodnesse, even so we beseech thee for thy deare Son Jesus Christs sake, to give us alwayes thy holy Spirit, wherein we may continually grow in thankfulness towards thee, to be led into all truth, and comforted in all adversities, O Lord strengthen our faith, kindle it more in ferventnesse and love towards thee, and our neighbors for thy sake. Suffer us not, most deare Father, to receive thy word any more in vaine : but grant us alwayes the assistance of thy grace and holy Spirit, that in heart, word and deed, we may sanctifie and do worship to thy Name : helpe to simplify and increase thy kingdome, and whatsoever thou sendest, we may heartily wel content with thy good pleasure and will. Let us not lacke the thing (O Father) without the which we cannot serve thee : but blesse thou so all the workes of our hands, that we may have sufficient, and not be chargeable, but rather helpfull unto others. Be mercifull, O Lord, to our offences : and seeing our debt is great, which thou hast forgiven us in Jesus Christ, make us to love thee and our neighbours so much the more. Be thou our Father, captaine and defender in all temptations : hold thou us by thy mercifull hand, that we may be delivered from all inconveniences, and end our lives in the sanctifying, and honouring of thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord and onely Saviour.

Let thy mightie hand and out-stretched arme (O Lord) be still our defence : thy mercie and loving kindnesse in Jesus Christ thy deare Sonne our salvation, thy true and holy word our instruction, thy grace and holy Spirit our comfort and consolation, unto the end, and in the end. So be it.

Lord increase our faith.

A Prayer to be said before a man begin his worke.

O Lord God, most mercifull Father and Saviour, seeing it hath pleased thee to command us to travel that we may relieve our needs, we beseech thee of thy grace so to blesse our labour, that thy blessing may extend unto us, without the which we are not able to continue : And that this great favor may be a witnesse unto us of thy bountifullnesse and assistance, so that thereby we may know the fatherly care that thou hast over us.

Moreover, O Lord, we beseech thee that thou wouldst strengthen us with thy holy Spirit, that we may faithfully travel in our state and vocation without fraud or deceit, and that we may endeavour our selves to follow thine holy ordinance, rather then seek to satisfie our greedie affections, or desire to gaine. And if it please thee (O Lord) to prosper our labour, give us a minde also to helpe them that have need, according to that ability that thou of thy mercy hast given us : And knowing that all good things come of thee, grant that we may humble our selves to our neighbours, and not by any meanes lift our selves above them, which have not received so large a portion of thy mercie as thou hast given us. And if it please thee (O Lord) to trie and exercise us by greater poverty and necessities then our flesh would desire, that thou wouldst yet (O Lord) grant us grace to know that thou wilt nourish us continually through thy bountifull liberality, that we be not so tempted that we fall into distrust, but that we may patiently waite till thou fill us, not onely with corporall graces and benefites, but chiefly with thine heavenly and spirituall treasures : to the intent that we may always have more ample occasion to give thee thanks, and wholly to rest upon thy mercies. Hear us (O Lord) of mercie, through Jesus Christ thy Sonne our Lord, Amen.

A Confession for all estates and times.

O Eternal God and most mercifull Father, we confesse and acknowledge here before thy divine Majesty, that we are miserable sinners, conceived and borne in sinne and iniquitie, so that in us there is no goodnesse. For the flesh evermore rebelieth against the Spirit, whereby we continually transgresse thy holy precepts and commandments, and so purchase to our selves through thy iust judgement, death and damnation. Notwithstanding (O heavenly Father) forasmuch as we are displeased with our selves, for the sinnes we have committed against thee, and do unfeignedly repent us of the same, we most humbly beseech thee for Jesus Christs sake, to shew thy mercie upon us, to forgive all our sins, and inlarge thy holy Spirit in us, that we acknowledging from the bottome of our hearts, our owne unrighteousnesse, may from from henceforth not onely mortifie our indell' tates and affections, but also bring forth such fruites as may be agreeable to thy most blessed will: not for the worthinesse thereof,

but for the merits of thy dearely beloved Sonne Iesus Christ our onely Saviour, whom thou hast already given an oblation and offering for our finnes, and for whose sake we are certainly perswaded, that thou wilt denye

us nothing that we shall aske in his Name,
according to thy will. For thy Spirit doth assure our consciences, that thou art our merciful Father, and so lovest us thy children through him, that nothing is able to remove thy heavenly grace and favour from us.
To thee therefore (O Father) with thy Sonne,
and the holy Ghost, be all honour and glory
world without end. Amen.
